There was no quorum at the meeting of the manufacturers committee yesterday afternoon, and an adjournment was made till Friday morning.

Surrounded by Poles

There are some residents of this city who are desirous of beautifying the streets, which fact is evidenced by an application which was received at the city hall this morning. Mr. R. Taylor, 261 Brant Avenue, in his application to the city to beautify his property at the corner of Brant Ave. and Bedford Sts., has asked the city to remove the telephone and hydro electric poles from that corner and allow him to plant trees in their place. This is an excellent suggestion of Mr. Taylor's as there are no less than five poles in his property which greatly mars its looks. With these poles out and trees planted in their place, the street as well as the property will be greatly improved.

STOP BAIL BUSINESS

Magistrate Livingston Objects When Defendants Don't Show Up.

"I will stop this bail business, if this sort of thing continues," said Magistrate Livingston this morning, when he was rather surprised to find that several men who had been bailed out, failed to put in an appearance this morning. Among those who failed to keep their bonds, were Stiff Komoka, Albert Kepper and Fred Willoughby.

A number of cyclists were on the list for racing on sidewalks, this morning, and in all cases but one, they had been released by paying the customary fine of $2 without appearing before the Bench. One of them had pleaded guilty, but had not given up the dollars, and had been let out by a constable. To this the magistrate objected, saying that he did not think they had any right to accept a plea of guilty when the offender did not pay the fine.

John Valenzy and H. G. Stanley came to a satisfactory settlement before the court when the former charged the latter with non-payment of wages. The cash will be handed over to-morrow.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Will Have Well Organized League Formed by the Various Different City Sunday Schools.

The junior football league as proposed by the superintendents of the Sunday Schools of the city will soon be an established league in Brantford. Last night the idea which has been fostered by Mr. John Hill came before the monthly meeting of the Brantford and Paris league and after a brief consideration the junior proposition was given their hearty approval. A committee was appointed to arrange the details and make up the league, which will include the schools desirous of joining. There is no doubt that a league will be formed consisting of ten teams at the least, and the matter will be worked upon immediately and a schedule will be placed before the next meeting of the senior league.

Inter-city Matches.

The inter-city games between Brantford and Hamilton were brought up, but as there is a good deal of time yet before these matches take place the subject was held over for discussion at the next meeting.

Transfers.

Two transfers had been notified to the committee, but in each case the teams retained the men who were mentioned. Thus the S. O. E. will keep Westlake and the Duffs will not yet part with Hollands.
