THEM WAS THE DAYS

While not the slightest doubt exists among residents of this as well as of other cities, that the cost o living has greatly advanced within the past few years, by comparing the two lists of market reports below, this advance in the cost of daily necessities can be accurately discovered. The first list is taken from the Courier files of 1896 and sets forth the prevailing market prices on Saturday May 2nd. The other list is twenty-one years later, he corresponding Saturday, May 5
