THE GREAT PRESERVER AND RAIN EXCLUDER

THE PAINT

has grown steadily in public favor, and is no place more popular than where it was first used. It is a sure and positive cure for leaks in a tin or iron roof, and as a preservative of wood it has no equal. Write for particulars and prices.

We have scores of testimonials as to its merits.

ROOFING

We do iron, cement, and gravel roofing and guarantee good work in every case. We sell our paint by the gallon or barrel, or will contract to paint your roof or any woodwork liable to decay.

If you want a new roof or an old one repaired, let us hear from you.

FRANKVILLE

Mrs. J. L. Gallagher is visiting at Ottawa.

Miss Summers, of Lansdowne, is a guest at Wm. Mitchell's.

Dr. Byron Haskins, of Plattsburgh, N.Y., and his mother made a short visit here last week.

Miss Jennie Brown has returned home after a seven weeks' visit to Toronto, Collingwood and other places.

ADDITION

Quite a number of our local sports are going for a few days deer hunting. They leave on Thursday morning. We wish them every success.

Mr. James Lee, of Reynard Valley, is engaged repairing a culvert on King St. He is putting in tile as an experiment and we hope it will prove a success.

The second quarterly meeting for this year will be held at Greenbush on Sunday next to which all are invited.

Mr. David Wilcox has secured a position in the carriage works in Brockville and will move there in a few days.

HARLEM

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith have returned home after visiting their son, Mr. I. Smith, of the Customs department, Ottawa, and also their daughter, Mrs. B. H. Alexander, of Stittville.

Miss V. Gorman, of Chantary, spent the last few days with Miss Sybil and Miss Pansy Smith.

Quarterly service will be held in the Methodist Church of this place on Nov. 8.

REDAN

Miss Lillie Pritchard is spending her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pritchard.

Farmers in this section have commenced their fall plowing.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cooper have moved to Lyndhurst, where they will permanently reside. They will be greatly missed in this vicinity.

An old and respected resident, Mr. Rowsome, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wellington Barrington, on Thursday.

Mr. Chas. Goff entertained a number of Brockville hunters on Saturday.

GLEN BUELL

The funeral of the late Miss Annie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prue, of Spring Valley, was largely attended on Friday last by a wide circle of sorrowing friends and relatives.

The board of trustees have engaged the services of Miss Kincaid, of Oatton, as school teacher for the coming year.

Mrs. D. J. Forth, who has been spending a few days with friends at Montreal, has returned home.

Miss Nellie Dancy is on the sick list.

GREENBUSH

Oct. 22—Mr. and Mrs. Amos Blanchard, of Athens, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Connell.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan McCready have moved to Elbe.

Henry Davis paid his patrons $20.08 for their September milk pail ton.

W. G. Lee is moving buildings for W. Connell, who is enlarging his cow stable.

G. N. Young, the popular auctioneer of the Tin Cup, conducted a very successful sale for Robert Latimer yesterday.

Mr. Latimer has sold his farm to Mr. Clifford Hall and will remove to North Augusta, where he will engage in the bakery business.

Mr. Hilvard Tackaberry is visiting his relatives and many friends here. Mr. Tackaberry is a Greenbush boy and left the scenes of his childhood 18 years ago, and has been engaged in the dairying business in California. He speaks in glowing terms of the Golden State. He says that he notices great improvements in his native county, since he left, in the form of dairying and cattle raising and the erection of silos.

In keeping with the progress of the age, CANADA'S GREAT NATIONAL HOME NEWSPAPER, THE WEEKLY GLOBE, will be very materially improved for 1904. Numerous important changes are in contemplation, but the leading feature will be the introduction of an EIGHT-PAGE ILLUSTRATED SUPPLEMENT ON SUPERCALENDERED PAPER.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

A little ad't in The People's Column of the Reporter costs only 25c for one week and 10c per week after.

—Strength and vigor come of good food, fully digested. "Fores," a ready-to-serve wheat and barley food, adds no burden, but sustains, nourishes, invigorates.

When you want a physic that is mild and gentle, easy to take and certain to act, always use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by J. P. Lamb & Son.

Mr. Alex. Compo has just about completed his painting contract at the Baptist church, and has this week been engaged in varnishing and graining the interior of the Methodist parsonage.

The village council met in the clerk's office last evening and passed a resolution placing the sum of $260.00 to the credit of the road commissioners to pay for crushing stones and work on the streets.

An offer of 11c was made and declined at Brockville cheese board last week, and after its close the Recorder says 7,400 boxes changed hands on the curb at 10c. What wise dairyman can explain this!

On Saturday last parliament prorogued after the longest session in the history of the Dominion. Several important matters were left over, including, of course, the bill relating to the manufacture and importation of cigarettes.

A meeting of Brockville Fair board was held last week, and the treasurer's report showed that, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, there is likely to be small balance on the right side of the ledger. The total receipts were $4,425.

The hunting fever has developed at Addison good and strong, and Messrs. J. M. Percival, Peter Martin, C. A. Blanchard, D. J. Forth, Fred Loez, J. Haywood and R. H. Field have been organized as the Addison Hunt Club and will hunt deer next month in Renfrew county.

Many in this section learned with sincere sorrow of the death of Gertrude Cole, beloved wife of Mr. J. H. Allen, of Lansdowne, which occurred on the 21st ult. As a student of the A.H.S., deceased was highly esteemed for her many Christian graces.

Sunday last was moderately warm, but in the evening the wind shifted to the north-west and blew a gale. The temperature lowered suddenly, ice was formed during the night, and in the morning the walks were covered with snow. At intervals on Monday snow fell, and it was decidedly wintry out of doors.

A Frankville correspondent says: Farmer's Friend Factory is still turning out the finest of cheese and lots of them. This factory stands second to none in Eastern Ontario for fine goods, and under the new management and a first class cheesemaker is still forging ahead. Smith Bros. are to be commended for their success.

After a full consideration of the Alaskan boundary award, the principal and teachers in training at the Athens Model School have decided that Lord Alverston, Chief Justice of England, is "a haughty, narrow-minded English peer," and that such matters in future should be dealt with only by Canadian jurists who "rightly understand the problem of Canadian development on civilization universally." See Globe of Oct. 27.

Ran a Nail Through His Hand

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by J. P. Lamb & Son.
