The Liberal convention for Leeds will meet at Delta on Saturday, November 4th, when general business will be considered.

Administration of the estate of Alfred L. Tackaberry has been granted to Addie Tackaberry, widow. T. R. Beale, solicitor.

A petition has been presented to the village council asking that a vote be taken for the repeal of the Local Option by-law.

Conservatives of Brockville riding will meet in convention at Brockville on Nov. 7 to select a candidate for the next provincial election.

Every gun in the country was carried to the lakes and woods on Thanksgiving Day, but the game generally remained under cover.

Geo. K. Wight of Brockville was a Thanksgiving visitor in Athens and made a number of pleasant calls on his acquaintances here.

Mr A. M. Eaton began his ministerial duties on Escott circuit on Sunday last and will move his family to that place in a few days.

Mr Arthur Lee is in Athens this week. He has re-engaged with Mr Parish and expects to move his family here from Toronto in a short time.

A large number of modelites drove to Addison on Monday evening to attend Halloween party at the home of Miss Bernice Taplin, where they were royally entertained.

The Ontario Agricultural College has arranged for a Short Course in Apiculture, to be held January 9-20, 1912. Persons interested in this Course should write for programme to Morley Petit, Guelph, Ont.

Divine service will be held in Glen Elbe School on Thursday night at 8 o'clock followed by a S.S. Teachers' meeting. The Anglican fortnightly service will be on Thursday night next week instead of Tuesday at Sheldon's school house.

A meeting for reorganization was held by Athens Boy Scouts on Saturday evening. Mr S. A. Hittman was elected Scout Master; Hubert Cornell Secretary; Israel Danby, Mills Johnston, Winford Gifford, Patrol Leaders. Meetings are to be held on Friday evenings.

On Saturday evening a number of relatives and intimate friends met at the home of Mr and Mrs N. K. Benedict, Athens, to attend the eighty-third anniversary of his birth. Notwithstanding his great age, Mr Benedict is enjoying rather good health, and thoroughly enjoyed a pleasant evening with his friends.

Our dark streets occasioned two accidents last week. Ernest Cole drove into a buggy standing on Sarah street, overturning it and precipitating the occupant, Mrs W. Singleton of Crosby, to the ground. She escaped with slight injury. On Thursday evening Claude Ooon and L. Lawson were driving at a good pace on Main street when their rigs collided. The buggies were damaged, but the occupants were uninjured.

The village council meets on Monday evening next.

Mr and Mrs T. S. Kendrick spent Thanksgiving Day with friends in Escott.

Mr E. Taylor, auctioneer, is conducting three auction sales in Athens this week.

Miss Dewey of Brockville spent the week end in Athens, a guest of Mrs B. Loverin.

Mr and Mrs J. C. Hudgins of Selby spent Thanksgiving in Athens, guests Mr and Mrs T. G. Stevens.

The political axe has fallen in Brockville and M. J. Connolly, local fishery inspector, has lost his official head.

Barns belonging to Dr. Sutherland and Samuel Mott at North Augusta were destroyed by fire on Wednesday night.

Miss Mary Livingston left for her home in Regina on Tuesday after a visit of three months with friends in Ansonia, Conn., and Eastern Ontario.

Halloween was altogether too dark, damp, dirty, disagreeable and depressing for the mischievous sprites that were abroad, and but few pranks were played.

Quarterly services will be conducted in Methodist church on Sunday a.m. next. There will be no service in the evening on account of the anniversary services in the Baptist church.

Among those who went to Brockville for the Thanksgiving holidays were Misses Carrie Covey, Gladys Gairford, Jessie Percival, Alma Stevens, Mina Prichard, Frances Clow.

The fall fairs of this district, despite unfavorable weather, are expected to come through alright financially. Lyndhurst will break even and Delta and Frankville will both show a cash balance.

No sales were made on Brockville cheese board last Thursday. The offering totalled 2,725 boxes. The highest board bid was 13 11-16c. After adjournment of the board the ruling price was 18 3/4c.

Next January 4 cities, 13 towns, 19 villages, and 47 townships will vote on local option. This number may be increased by petitions filed to-day, but already the licenses endangered number 278.

At the Methodist S.S. on Sunday Mr M. B. Holmes, delegate to the Provincial S.S. convention, gave an account of that assembly, with quotations from the addresses of the chief speakers.

We were shown this week a photo of the Friends' Church at Winchester, Indiana, of which Rev. Frank Cornell is pastor. It is the finest church in the city, the Friends being the leading denomination in that part of the state.

The death occurred at Addison on Monday of last week of Mrs J. E. Johnston, a well known and respected resident of that place. The funeral which took place on Wednesday was largely attended, the remains being placed in the Athens vault.

His Honor Judge Reynolds held court here on Friday for the revision of the township and village voters' lists. The appeals were nearly all disposed of without contention. It is probable that these lists will be used in the approaching provincial elections.

The late John Wiltse was a member of the official board of the Methodist church, and among the floral offerings was a handsome wreath from the board. The family desire through the Reporter to express their appreciation of his efforts to accomplish these improvements, the Times report says: Rev. S. G. B. Wright, who has for the past two years been pastor St. James' Church, is beloved by his congregation and rightly so. He is a man of action, perception and keen sympathy with his parish.

Following extensive improvements, the old historic parish church at Mail-lard, founded about 100 years ago, was reopened on October 22. Speaking of the rector, who had been indefatigable in his efforts to accomplish these improvements, the Times report says: Rev. S. G. B. Wright, who has for the past two years been pastor St. James' Church, is beloved by his congregation and rightly so. He is a man of action, perception and keen sympathy with his parish.

Claude Watson decided after dinner on Thanksgiving Day to visit friends in Lyndhurst. His prolonged absence caused anxiety at home, but Claude made the trip alright and returned before bedtime.

Dr. Dunn was fittingly remembered by the people of Elgin on the eve of his departure for Almonte. The large hall was crowded and following refreshments addresses highly enigmistic of the Doctor were delivered by prominent men of the district. A formal address was presented accompanied with the gift of a fine medical case.

Mr Geo. Taylor, M.P., has vacated his seat in the Dominion parliament by accepting, temporarily, the position of postmaster of Newboro. It is understood he is to be made a senator and that Mr W. T. White, Minister of Finance, will be nominated for Leeds. Nomination will take place on Nov. 6 and polling, if any, on the 13th. Geo. Morris is the Returning Officer.

Anniversary services will be conducted in the Baptist church on Sunday next at 10.30 and 7. A year ago Rev. W. S. McAlpine, B. A. B. Th. of Delta, treated in a unique and impressive way the subject of "Treasure in Heaven," suggesting the thought that the good deeds of earth were transmuted by the great Alchemist into the currency of Heaven. Many will be pleased to know Mr McAlpine is to be the preacher on Sunday next. Mrs McAlpine and Mr C. Davison will assist in the musical service. Collection for church funds.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Who pays the enormous expense of those show-rooms in our towns and cities? Is it not the people who buy pianos there?

Why buy from them when you can get just as good, and in many cases better, from me, delivered Free from the factory to your door? This is one of the reasons I can sell you a piano for less money than you pay at any show-room.

All kinds of instruments taken in exchange. We defy competition for the money in all grades. Get my prices before purchasing, for they are certainly very low for strictly high grade pianos.

Also agent for Raymond, New Will iams, and New Home Sewing Machines.

P. S.—Pianos sold on instalment plan when wished.
