INTERESTING EVIDENCE

Toronto, April 26.—Judge MacTavish, hairman, J. W. Langmuir and B. L. Kent, the Dominion Insurance Commis-sion of Inquiry, resumed work here yesterday morning at 10.35.

Mr. Shepley, K. C., and W. N. Tilley are the counsel representing the Dom-inion; I. F. Hellmuth and G. R. Geary appear on behalf of the polleyholders of Ontario; C. L. Le Boeuf, K. C., rep-resents the polleyholders of Quebec; R. J. McLaughlin, K. C. (Lindsay) and R. L. Johnston represented the Manu-facturers' Life; and Robert Smith, K. C., the Sun Life; L. J. McCarthy, K. C., (Montreal) the Canada Life. W. S. Andrews was present as the actuary of the Ontario Government.

The commission will sit daily from 10.30 a.m. to 1 p. m. and from 2 to 4.30, except Saturday.

Protest rrom Hellmuth.

Mr. Hellmuth said: "I conceive it to be my duty now to enter a protest against leaving the enquiry into the department of insurance at the present department of insurance at the present stage. I was advised that the proceed-ings would not continue as intended at Ottawa last week, owing to the illness of the chairman, but that during this week the proceedings would go on here into the affairs of the Manufacturers

Why should not the commission have the advantage of them before going into the individual companies? Int it most material for the policyholders to know just what safeguards were placed round their interests by the depart-ment? I think that is sufficient reason

Who Was Responsible? Mr. Hellmuth referred to the legisla-tion of 1899 changing regulations as to

Mr. Hellmuth did not wish to be thought to be protesting for the sake of making a disturbance.

were I to sit merely as an onlooker," He insisted that the program should be adhered to, unless the departure had the consent of those interested. Wanted to Cross-Examine. FOR CLOTHES OF QUALITY

Mr. Shepley replied that he was fully sensible of the necessity of inspiring public confidence in the commission. He conceived, however, that the best means of inspiring public confidence was to consider the conduct of the enquiry as a whole. Mr. Hellmuth did not suggest that there would not be a thorough departmental enquiry. He did not know what Mr. Hellmuth's instructions were, whether he proposed to promote the throughness of the enquiry or to criticize at every turn those who were anceavoring to conduct it in the interests of the public. "We will not take the trouble," said Mr. Shepley, "to vindicate my own desire for a thorough and honest inquiry, for I know that when this investigation is brought to a close what we have done will be a subject of legitimate and proper criticism. So long as I am entrusted with the conduct of the enquiry I propose to act as seem in my own judgment best in the public interests."

Objects to Muzzle.

Mr. Hellmuth answered:

"If my learned frience remarks mean I am not to say anything I should like to know it. Surely I'm not bound to accept by learned frience remarks mean final. I don't think he should say I do nothing but criticize."

Chairman Ruies.

This reply brought forth an answer from the chairman, Judge MacTavish. Mr. Shepley, he said, was appointed.
