RACE WAR.

Armed Young Men of Pittsburg Out on the Streets

Dressed as Women Hoping They Will be Attacked.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 4.—The situation in the Herron Hill district, where over 150 negroes have been arrested following the many attacks on young white girls, is quiet to-night, but a double force of police and plain-clothes men is still on duty, as there is a strong under current of racial feeling that needs but a slight excuse to break forth in violent form.

The authorities believe that in Mack McGee they have the man who has been terrorizing the Herron Hill district. McGee was identified to-day as the man seen running away from the scene of the most recent assault, and Miss Ida O'Neil, the victim of the attack, gave a description of the cap worn by her assailant that fits the headgear worn by McGee.

John D. Shuter to-day sentenced William Martin, colored, to serve five years in the Western Penitentiary, the limit of the law, on the charge of assault and battery with intent to commit a more serious crime, on Mrs. Mary Schaffer several weeks ago.

Many negroes of the Herron Hill district are moving to the suburbs, to get away from the scene of the trouble. The authorities have sent out young men, dressed as women, and armed with blackjacks, hoping to have the guilty negroes accost or attack them.

ANTI-JAP LAW.

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 5.—Governor Gillett will send a message to the Assembly to-day asking that body to reconsider the vote by which it yesterday passed the bill compelling Japanese children to attend separate schools. This intended action is the result of a message received from President Roosevelt yesterday, appealing to him to devise some means of blocking the measure in the Legislature.

WARNER

Quite a number attended quarterly meeting at Merritt's, although the day was not very favorable.

A special meeting of the Township Council was held on Monday last.

Mrs. S. Silverthorn is spending a week with her parents at Simcoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard and Malcolm Lymburner passed through this locality en route for Niagara Falls.

Mr. McSorley, from Blackheath, was through here buying heavy draught horses.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Silverthorn and family visited at C. Lymburner's on Sunday evening last.

G. E. Lounsbury and family spent Sunday at Mr. Aaron Merritt's.

Harvey Evans is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. E. Lymburner.

Messrs. Albert Ties, Farmer Merritt and Christopher Warner made a business trip to Cayuga.

Friends to the number of about eighty assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Travers to bid farewell before leaving for their new home near Wellandport. A sociable time was spent; games of all kinds passed the hours away, after which refreshments were served, and at the hour of 1 o'clock all started homeward, bidding farewell to the host and hostess, and thanking them for the good time they all had.

SINCLAIRVILLE

Special meetings, conducted by the pastor, Mr. Springer, and Mr. Scott, evangelist, will be commenced in the Methodist Church of this place on Sunday evening, Feb. 7. The meetings which have been carried on in the Castorville Church will conclude on Sunday morning. The meetings have proven very helpful to the people of Castorville and great things are expected from the meetings at Sinclairville.

Fun For Our Readers

Where the Miracle Came In. Dr. Walter C. Smith, the popular Scotch poet-preacher, on one occasion tried to explain to an old lady the meaning of the scriptural expression, "Take up thy bed and walk," by saying that the bed was simply a mat or rug easily taken up and carried away.

Law-Abiding Citizen. One evening, when the city clerk's office was full of men seeking registration, an Irishman asked to be registered. He received the usual blank, with the request that he sign his name. This he succeeded in doing after a painful effort. Suspecting that this was the extent of his accomplishments, an onlooker called out to the clerk: "Try him on another name; let him write yours."

A LITTLE REHEARSAL. Mr. Saphend—Willie, is your sister busy? Willie—She seems to be. She is standing in front of the mirror saying, "Mr. Saphend, this is so sudden."

Dressed for the Concert. Heinrich Conrad was telling how he had the old-fashioned concert was sometimes, "An old Chicago millionaire," he said, "called upstairs to his daughter: 'What a time you girls take getting ready for the concert! Look at me—a bit of wadding in each ear and I'm all ready.'"—Success Magazine.

Improving. Bach—Confess, now, Henry—you don't pay as much attention to your wife as you did before you were married, do you? H. Peck—Lord, yes! I mind twice as quick now.—Cleveland Leader.

Too Risky. "Do you approve of the plan of teaching pupils to box?" "Not unconditionally," replied the country pedagogue, "remembering his hunky 19-year-old. 'Might be all right, though, if you'd authorize the teachers to carry guns.'"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Terminology. Officious Salesman—Wouldn't you like to look at some of our overcoats or suits? Dyspeptic Looking Customer—No, but if you will be kind enough to tell me where the drug department is I'll take a look at your pills and porous plasterings.—Chicago Tribune.

Grateful. Henry E. Dixey was sitting in his dressing room before the curtain rose on "Mary Jane's Pa" the other night, watching a large roach leisurely traveling up the wall.

"Ah, a roach," said Mr. Dixey. "Once, in my own home, I found a roach struggling in a bowl of water. I took a half walnut shell and put him in, it made a good boat; I gave him a couple of toothpicks for oars. Next morning I saw that he had fastened a hair to one of the toothpicks, and had evidently been fishing. Then, overcome with exhaustion, he had fallen asleep. The sight moved me. I took him out, washed him, gave him a spoonful of boiled egg and let him go. That roach never forgot my kindness, and now my home and dressing rooms are full of roaches."—Young's Magazine.

WAS HEREDITARY. Dix—From whom does she get her lovely complexion? Nix—Her father, I believe. Dix—Is he a druggist?

Monumental Blunder. It was while Charlemagne Tower was Ambassador to Russia that a newspaper "spoke itself" upon a fête held at St. Petersburg. A green egg reader produced this result: "As pleasing to the eye as was all this decoration there was additional pleasure in the sight, as one stood at the head of the Prospekt. News, of Charlemagne Tower, brilliantly illuminated, looming grand and imposing against the winter sky."—Success Magazine.

Behold the Scenes. The stage manager of one of the Glasgow theatres was, in the old days, well known for his impetuous and hasty temper.

On one occasion a drama was put on, in which a snowstorm occurred. Some men were sent up into the hills with brown paper bags filled with little pieces of white paper, which they let fall to represent the snow. Suddenly the shower stopped.

"What's your snow?" roared the stage manager.

"We have no snow white paper," came a loud whisper from above.

"Then snow brown, or, fules, snow brown," was the manager's response.—Tit-Bits.

Choice of Evils. President Nicholas Brown, for whom Brown University was named, was fond of quizzing small boys. One day, while walking in the streets of Providence, he came upon a little fellow who attracted his notice. "How do you do, my boy?" said the President. "What is your name?" "My name is Harry, sir," replied the child.

"Harry, is it?" returned President Brown. "And did you know the evil one is often called Old Harry?"

"Why, no, sir," answered the boy. "I thought he was called Old Nick."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.
