To The Ratepayers of the Town of Newcastle.

Ladies and Gentlemen:
At the request of a large number of the citizens I have consented to allow my name to go into nomination for the office of

at the coming civic election. Feeling that I can safely appeal to you on my record when previously I had the honor of serving you in the above capacity, I again ask for the same generous support you then accorded me.

Promising if elected to give to the Town in so far as I am able, a sincere, economical and business-like administration. I remain,

Your Obedient Servant,

CHAS. J. MORRISSEY

CARD

Ladies and Gentlemen:

At the request of a number of the ratepayers of the Town, I have decided to come before you as a candidate for in the coming election.

As I have not the time to call on you all personally I take this means of soliciting your votes.

If elected I will do my best to further the interests of the town in all departments. Thanking you in advance,

I remain yours truly,

P. RUSSELL

Newcastle Town Improvement League

Appoint Committee to Interview Candidates For Council Board--Another Meeting Next Tuesday Night

The Newcastle Town Improvement League, adjourned from March 29th, met in Police Court room, on Monday evening, April 2nd. The attendance was much larger than usual, the majority of the members of the old Executive being present, as also a large number of non members, many of whom signed the revised Constitution and will henceforth take an active part. Rev. Father P. W. Dixon was unavoidably absent because of a Mission in his church and Rev. Dr. C. W. Squires because of illness.

Among those present were: Of the Executive—President J. M. Troy, second vice pres. G. G. Stothart, sec. treas. H. H. Stuart, Revs S. J. Gray and S. J. MacArthur and Messrs F. Aharan, John R. Allison, John H. Ashford, A. Astle, J. Ander, Mayor C. Fish, Ald. C. C. Hayward, Fred E. Locke, Ald. A. H. Mackay, Andrew McCabe, E. A. McCurdy, Edward O'Donnell, Ald. James Stables, Ald. T. A. Scribner, D. W. Stothart.

Others—Mrs. Astle, Miss Jessie J. Fleming, Mrs. Hayward, Mrs. McCurdy, Mrs. A. E. Shaw, and Messrs J. Robinson Allison, Walter Amy, W. F. Corp, R. Waldo Crocker, Walter Donoran, C. C. Hubbard, Donald A. Jackson, John S. Scott, Dr. H. Sproul, Wm. Stymiest D. C. Smallwood, William Shaw, and several others—more than 40 in all.

The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed, and the revised Constitution was read and adopted. The following signed the revised Constitution:

J. M. Troy
Henry Harvey Stuart
C. E. Fish
C. C. Hayward
E. A. McCurdy
J. Ander
A. Astle
E. O'Donnell
(Rev.) S. Gray
Jas. Stables
A. H. MacKay
Mrs. A. McMastle
Mrs. C. C. Hayward
Mrs. A. E. Shaw
Anna R. McCurdy
Jessie A. Flemming
G. G. Stothart
H. Sproul
Andrew McCabe
D. W. Stothart
T. A. Scribner
D. A. Jackson
(Rev.) S. J. MacArthur
J. Robinson Allison
F. E. Locke

President Troy asked to be relieved of the chairmanship, on the ground that his private duties were such that he could not attend meetings before 8.30 or stay much after 10.

Mr. McCurdy thought that Mr. Troy was too good an official to lose for such a reason. The vice president or some other member could occupy the chair when Mr. Troy could not be there. He moved, seconded by Ald. Stables, that a nominating committee be appointed to recommend officers. Carried.

The chairman appointed Messrs. McCurdy, Fish and MacArthur as such committee.

The President's circular sent out March 31st was read by the secretary. The Nominating Committee reported as follows:

President—James M. Troy
First Vice Pres.—Joseph Ander
Second Vice Pres.—Ald. T. A. Scribner
Secretary—Ald. H. H. Stuart
Treasurer—F. E. Locke

Additional members of Executive—Andrew McCabe, Ald. Jas. Stables, D. A. Jackson, Ald. C. C. Hayward and D. W. Stothart.

The report was unanimously adopted.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur reported from the committee appointed at last meeting to interview candidates. He had seen several, but thought the committee was too small, and not representative enough.

Mr. McCurdy gave a similar report and moved, seconded by Rev. Mr. Gray, that the committee be enlarged and that they bring in a report at a special meeting at an early date.

The president agreed that the committee of three was too small. It should be seven at least. Better have it settled what was the duty and scope of this committee. He did not think it wise for the League to take everything in their own hands. Rev. Father Dixon at last meeting had spoken very appreciatively of the retiring Council and thought it would be wise to give His Worship and the most of the Aldermen a second term. The League should be careful and stand by those men who had shown their value.

Ald. Stuart asked that the committee be instructed to bring in a recommendation in favor of not more than nine candidates—the nine they should, after thorough investigation deem most worthy of the League's support.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur agreed that a committee of seven, fully representative of the League, be appointed to interview possible candidates for civic honors. One of the candidates spoken of had said him he was not sure he would run, and he understood that one more was also under consideration.

Mr. McCurdy's motion was adopted. Rev. Mr. MacArthur asked that

Candidates Mentioned for Civic Election

Very little has transpired in the Civic Political Arena, since our last issue. The cards of Mayor C. E. Fish and Mr. Chas. J. Morrissey for the Mayoralty, and Messrs D. P. Doyle, Perley Russell, John H. Troy and Capt. John Russell for Aldermen, appear in this issue and it is understood that Ex-Ald. Charles Sargeant and David Ritchie and Messrs C. P. McCabe, W. L. Durick and Stewart L. Demers will offer as will Ald. Kingston, Hayward, Miller, Scribner and Stuart of the present board. Several new names—including Clifford Allison, John Williamson and Thomas Fowler are spoken of as probable candidates. Ald. McGrath has stated that he will not be a candidate and Ald. Stables and Mackay, although expressing themselves against offering again may be found in the field on the 17th.

Along. Let the Committee report to the T. I. L. and recommend suitable persons to be supported.

It was moved by Rev. Mr. Gray, seconded by Ald. Stuart and carried. That the committee consist of seven with the clergymen of the town as honorary members, and that they be instructed to approach the various candidates, and from the men offering recommend to the T. I. L. nine men for the latter's support.

Following committee were chosen by the League:

E. A. McCurdy, chairman; Andrew McCabe, A. Astle, J. Robinson Allison, D. A. Jackson, J. Ander and D. W. Stothart, together with all the clergy of the town.

Rev. Mr. MacArthur spoke of the cultivation of vacant lots. One of the candidates spoken of told him he would give the use of a big field free to any four who would cultivate it this season. The League should follow up this matter.

Mr. McCurdy said that the Miramichi Hoep'tal would most likely cultivate their nine acre lot this season. Mayor Fish said he had not found anybody who would take hold of the idea heartily. They seemed to expect someone to cultivate the land for them and hand them over the products in the fall.

Vice president Ander took the chair and the meeting adjourned till Tuesday evening, April 10th at 8 o'clock, to hear report of the committee and transact all business that may come up.

BOUESTOWN

Boiestown, April 3—Fire visited our community last week and burned the barn belonging to the Miramichi Lumber Co. They were fortunate in getting out the horses, and in preventing the other buildings from catching fire.

Birthday Party
Mrs. William Harris, Jr., entertained at a birthday party, March 28th. A large number of friends were present and Mrs. Harris proved herself a charming hostess.

Mr. William A. Brown was the guest of James Murray this week. Mr. William MacMillan drove to Holtville on Monday.

Miss Dorothy Price of Avery's Portage is doing some sewing in this village.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Norrad were in town one dry last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hovey of Florenceville arrived in town on Wednesday night and are guests of relatives at Bloomfield.

Dentist J. D. MacMillan of Newcastle was in town on Friday and Saturday and as usual was kept very busy.

Mrs. Justice Carroll and children went to Taymouth on Monday to visit Mrs. Carroll's sister, Mrs. Fred McBean.

Ploughed Out Roads

A large crowd from Holtville snow ploughed their roads on Wednesday. The roads have been almost impassable. It took twenty five men and four teams to fix it, and Holtville people boast of the best roads on the coast now.

Mr. Harry L. Norrad, the new store keeper, is kept very busy.

The young people of the community enjoyed a sliding party on Saturday evening.

Following are appointments by Pastor and assistant for Methodist mission circuit.

Sunday April 8th:
