The Wash Dresses

in a Sweeping Clearance Sale

We're done with them! Something else needs the room they are occupying—must have the room and will have it. There's no place here to put these beautiful dresses, however. So we marked them at such ridiculously low prices that any woman will be more than willing to find room in her wardrobe for at least one of them,—perhaps several.

There's every kind of them, from a neat little gingham to dotted swiss frock or silk jersey. There are sizes from 16 to 44. All of them are in the three sale groups as follows:

NEWCASTLE TRIMS BATHURST TEAM

On last Wednesday the local ball team motored to Bathurst to play the latter team there. A number of the Newcastle fans followed the team taking advantage of the half holiday and the nice motor trip to Bathurst and return. Through the inability of four or five of the local players not being able to leave their work, it was necessary to secure three players from Chatham; Martin, who played first, Archibald who played short, and Hanley, who looked after third base, all three putting their best into the game, especially Archibald who played a star game at short field. A great gathering of Bathurst rooters were on hand to see the game which started at 6 p. m. In the first inning Newcastle failed to score, while England scored one for Bathurst. In the second frame, after Melrose had reached third on a nice three bagger, he scored on Crank's hit. Bathurst also scored one in this inning. Neither team scored in the third. In the fourth stanza Newcastle got three runs. Archibald reached first, stole second and scored on Hanley's hit. Melrose tapped the pill for a homer and scored Hanley ahead of him. In the fifth and sixth Newcastle failed to score, while Bathurst tallied one more in the fifth. Each team scored one more in the seventh. In the eighth inning Newcastle failed to score, and with two men down. Lavigne reached first on an error, and moved to second on McKenna's hit. Duncan hit to short and was out trying to reach second. Lavigne and McKenna raced home, but not before Duncan was out at second, so these two runs do not count for Bathurst, although the latter team counted them. The boys claim that the base umpire was a novice at the game, this being the first game in which he had taken part as a base umpire, and could not make a decision until told what to say by the Bathurst players. The MANAGER of the team umpired balls and strikes. The final score was 5-4 in favor of Newcastle.

EMPRESS THEATRE ON THURSDAY

ELSIE FERGUSON, who is starring "Footlights," a Paramount picture which will be shown at the Empress Theatre on Thursday brings to her role the finesse of both stage and screen experience. The part, which portrays an American, who is introduced on the New York stage as a Russian actress, challenges the best of Miss Ferguson's art. In one scene she gives an impersonation of Eddie Foy and in another she has a fencing bout. All through the picture there are the two personalities at play, the one of the puritanical New England girl, and that of the pampered Russian actress.

In making this picture, Miss Ferguson has broken a precedent. She has refused to appear in many plays and pictures, dealing with the stage, feeling that no true presentation of the profession has been given.

"Footlights," tells the story of a vaudeville entertainer who becomes the most famous actress in America. Her rise to fame, although unique in every way, is made through struggles, hardships and sacrifices. It is not the exaggerated story of an overnight career with flowers and dinner parties. To reach this height, Lizzie Parsons, had to give up her friends and past associations and lose her identity in that of a Russian. Miss Ferguson's interpretation of this role makes "Footlights" the outstanding picture of the year. Reginald Denny heads a capable supporting cast of players.

LABOR DAY

Next Monday, Sept. 4th is Labor Day and will be observed by the merchants as a Holiday. The Public Schools will also be closed.

LIKELY COAL STRIKE WILL BE SETTLED

*The general strike of Nova Scotia coal miners is likely to be over by the end of the present week competent observers say.

Sentiment in favor of the acceptance of the new wage scale negotiated Friday night between the British Empire Steel Corporation and the executive of District 26, of the United Mine Workers of America seems hourly to be gaining strength in the coal fields, according to late reports reaching Sydney from many quarters.

It is not denied that there are many "bitter enders" and "die-hards" among the strikers and that the voting opposition of considerable strength, but competent observers believe that at least 75 per cent of the referendum vote will favor an immediate settlement.

An insurgent movement in opposition to the new pact, organized during the week-end by a section of the Phalen Local, petered out and lent additional strength to the advocates of the new wage pact.

A section of Phalen, which started the strike movement, held a meeting on Saturday and decided to make strenuous efforts to call off the referendum altogether. Their plan was to send out telegrams to the mainland locals asking them to ignore the order for a referendum and continue the strike. When the Phalen men met again it was apparent that a change of heart had taken place, and the movement was abandoned, so far as calling off the referendum was concerned.

A general mass meeting of the strikers had been called on Sunday afternoon at the Dominion ball park, but had to be abandoned because of a torrential downpour of rain which continued throughout the early afternoon.

The wet weather also put a stop to all but the most perfunctory picket work on the part of the troops and the United Mine Workers.

At New Waterford Saturday there was a meeting of strikers at which the new agreement came in for considerable criticism and a standing vote seemed to show the opposition was in the majority.

In the United Mine Workers camp it was forecast that the voting Thursday would show Pictou, Cumberland and Sydney Mines districts almost unanimous in favor of a settlement, a substantial majority for the pact in the Glace Bay, area, with New Waterford possibly showing a small majority against.

Official representatives on both sides reported all quiet in the strike area and all hands marking time awaiting the outcome of the referendum of August 31.

THE BEAVERBROOK SCHOLARSHIPS

FREDERICTON, Aug. 28—A meeting of the trustees of the Beaverbrook Scholarships will probably be held this week or early next week to determine the winners of the five scholarships to be awarded in New Brunswick this year. The total number of applicants this year is about 25. The trustees are: Mr. Justice Crockett (chairman) Fredericton; Hon. William Pugsley and F. B. Ellis, St. John.

The scholarships are valued at $325 a year for a period of three years. Five are awarded yearly and this will be the third year they have been in existence. By next year the full number of twenty will have been awarded.

If continued, that number will always be in existence after next year. The scholarships are open to all persons passing the University of New Brunswick matriculation examination, but the successful students may carry on their studies at any university in Canada, except that only when taking the theoretical courses can the winners attend denominational colleges.

The number of applicants this year is the largest on record.

THE UNLOVED WIFE COMING

Men think they win women, when they are merely tolerated. Women will tolerate a great deal. That is one of the best characteristics. When writing "The Unloved Wife," the new, sensational comedy drama in three acts coming to the Opera House Newcastle on Wednesday Night Aug. 30, Florence Edna May, Ince and Night Aug. 30 with matinee for ladies only. Florence Edna May, the authoress, kept these sentences always in mind, and it occurred to her that "Does your husband really love you, or does he just tolerate you? You bestow countless smiles upon him, sing your best for him, do everything to please him and you—tolerate him. That is the woman side of it. What do you receive in return? Did it ever occur to you that many married men have a double personality? Should the woman be tied to the home, while the man can do as he pleases. Is this amazing situation-justice. How long does the honeymoon last?"

These are the facts in married life and perhaps you have an answer for each of the above questions, but your answers are not correct because it is your God-given right to be happy. Your husband should understand you, you should not-tolerate each other.

Miss May, the authoress of "The Unloved Wife" unleashed the pent up feelings of a young married woman and in baring her soul, she drives deep into her audiences' hearts the truths as you should know them. With a cast of excellence and a Broadway production, this latest sensational comedy drama will no doubt create a favorable impression among playgoers when it comes to Newcastle.

A NEW BOARD FOR C. N. R. TO BE NAMED SOON

The creation of a board of directors for the operation of the Canadian National Railways system, will be before the government again this week. While the personnel of the board is yet to be determined, finally the general constitution of it is understood to be decided. The special act of parliament dealing with the matter, authorizes a board of not more than fifteen members, and all that number are likely to be appointed. According to present intimations, each of the nine provinces, will be represented: Ontario and Quebec would each have two members, and each of the other provinces, one. The four remaining positions on the board, would be operating or traffic men, one of them president.

The delay is assigned to the difficulty experienced in finding a head for the board and no selection has yet been made though several are under consideration. One or two to whom the position has been offered, have declined.

In the meantime, conditions on the National system, are looking up, with prospects that the difference between operating expenditure and revenue, apart from fixed charges, may pretty nearly be equalized this year. The heavy wheat crop and the revenue resultant from handling it, will be a very helpful factor.

The Grand Trunk division, particularly is showing a rather remarkable betterment, with a steady upward trend of the operating ratio. One reason assigned for this is the increased traffic on the American lines from Chicago east through Canada owing to conditions on the competing American lines consequent upon the shopmen's strike. Another is the co-ordinating of traffic with other lines of the system and the saving effected in that way.
