Gibson Signal.

GIBSONBURG, JULY 30, 1875

Subject Index.

A few days ago a paper was started in Toledo called the Signal. Already one of the Signal editors is dead. Another is in jail. A third is a defaulter to the amount of $2,000. The paper will probably be a success.

Mr. Bonner, of the New York Ledger, has purchased Jay Gould's yacht for $30,000. Mr. Bonner is a generous man, and we have no doubt he will allow Jay to sail it occasionally.

Mr. Bonner has also purchased Dexter, the fastest horse in the world, for $40,000. Mr. Bonner is a liberal man, and we have no doubt he will allow Dexter to run occasionally.

Mr. Bonner has also purchased Lucy Hooper, the handsomest woman in England, for $50,000. Mr. Bonner is a liberal man, and we have no doubt he will allow Lucy to run occasionally.

The widow of the late Commodore Vanderbilt has presented to Vanderbilt University, at Nashville, Tenn., a magnificent gift of $500,000.
