CAMP MEETING. -On Tuesday evening 13th inst., Rev. James Caswell, of this place, occupied the platform in the Holmesville camp grounds, where he delivered a very instructive and interesting sermon to a large and appreciative audience, from St. Mathew 16-26. "For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" We understand that it is the managing committee's intention to try and purchase the above grove from Mr. Elford for the purpose of holding camp-

Choir.—The Methodist Church choir appears to be falling into decay, to judge by the look of the choir seat the last two Sundays. The organist is the only one clings to the sinking ship, and the way she keeps it up is admirable and worthy of support, and how is it she has not got it? Where are all the ship's company? In short what is the matter? It seems too bad to put the whole burden on the organist, when there is such a large control of the choir seat the last to be and the support of these assertions. Mr. Reid has evidently been misled. Such conduct upon the part of those who were instrumental in doing so, will need no comment from me. I leave that for an intelligent public to judge. Any apparent delay upon my part to act in this matter has arisen from the fact that I was perhaps the last to hear of it, and forget to call and settle that little bill.
