PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS.—On Tuesday evening the mannothing in the property of the servation and hands of our taxidermists in this county, at least in our time. It is a fox squirrel with two tails. It was brought from Missouri by H. Cresswell, Eq., Tuckersmith, who brought over a number of skins with him. Our old friend John Walker, texidermist, at Roxboro, stuffed it for Wm Cresswell, Eq., artist. where it may be seen. It is a rari avis and though we have read of snakes with two heads, 'tis seldom we believe that the flying fox has been seen with two tails, and we suppose that it is one of those freaks in nature which cannot be accounted for. The two tails grow from the one stump and one is over eight inches m length, the other is over eight inches the larger spreading.

The sum of the time since the Court was instituted. Rev Mr McMillan, of Knox carriage; 1 single Buzgy, new; 10 church, made a few very suitable remarks on the occasion. Mr H. W. tBall, of Coderich, who was present, being called on made a short address on the good that secret societies have been and are in the world. Mr Wm Shaue of Blyth. Agriculture of the world. Mr Wm Shaue of Blyth. Brace, artist. Where it may be seen. It is a rari avis and though we have read of snakes with two heads, 'tis seldom we believe that the flying fox has been seen with two tails, and we suppose that it is one of those freaks in nature which cannot be accounted for. The two tails grow from the one stump and one is over eight inches m length, the other is over eight inches the larger spreading.

Mr Habkirk leaves the village with the best-wishes of all his acquaintances. We wish him success in the town of over twelve inches the larger spreading We wish him success in the town of ant over four inches
