AUBURN.

From our own Correspondent.
FORESTERS' SERMON—Rev Mr Anderson, of Knox church, Goderich, delivered an excellent sermon to the Dufferin Court of the C. O. F. of Auburn and vicinity, and a large congregation on Sabbath, Sept. 16. He took for his text I James 1:27, stating that it was a universal text for a man's religion, and that charity and compassion for the poor and needy form an essential part of a religion. After exhorting the members of the Order to continue in their good work, he closed a very interesting discourse.

Quigly Bros. have left town for Southern Ontario.
Mrs A. T. Isaac, of Port Elgin, is the guest of her brother Rev. J. R. Isaac of this place.

A series of special services are in contemplation in connection with the Main-st. Methodist church.

Will Carter, is in Hamilton, viewing the wonders of the great fair in the Ambitious City this week.

CHURCH NOTES—Mr M. McGilivray, of Goderich, conducted services here last Sunday, in the absence of the organist, who is taking a holiday visiting friends in Clinton the past week.

Mrs Craigie, of Goderich, and two sons, were the guests of Mr J. T. Clutton, Broadview Farm this week.

BELFAST.

From our own correspondent.
The Good Templars held their open lodge this (Friday) evening. A pleasant time is expected.

Apples are a good crop this year. Large quantities are being packed around here for shipping.

Miss Stevenson, of Kent, visited a few days last week at Mr S. Alton's.

The Belfast L. O. G. T. No. 159, will meet in the Methodist church west of here in the future instead of the school house.

Mr Robert Somerville has returned from his trip to Manitoba. He reports hard times around Brandon on account of frozen grain.

NILE.

From our own correspondent.
There is an unusual amount of sickness here at present.

Mrs Mathews is still low, but out of danger for the present.

We are glad to say Miss Augusta Potter has taken a change for the better and is on the road to convalescence.

David McWhitney is very low at present. His trouble seems to be inflammation of the stomach. For a time it seemed as if the attack were going to kill him. He is some better now.

Miss Rebecca Shields had a severe illness which came on last Saturday. It seemed like inflammatory rheumatism of the heart. She suffered terribly for a couple of days, but is out of immediate danger.

The wedding of last week came near being spoiled by an upset. Rev D. G. Cameron was to marry the couple. On the way to Duncannon the drivers began racing and Miss Rachel was thrown out. This awful warning did not prevent her having her name changed.

Chas Givrin, sen. was down to the Toronto Exhibition last week.

Robt McIlwain has gone to London to the Western Fair.

Mr Jas Hetherington and Mr Zerwinski, of Auburn, take the services in Nile church next Sunday. Rev H. Irvine has gone away on a visit to Ayr.

Mr Jos Cassey, of London, is visiting with his wife at Jos Hetherington's. The Methodist church trustees are sending their organ to Clinton for repairs. They speak of frosting the church windows also, a much needed improvement.

MORRIS.

Miss Grace Irvine, who has been attending a missionary school in Massachusetts, is home here on a visit but will leave for China about the last of this month.

Miss E. Robinson, a pupil of Geo. Mosgrove's, Turnberry, and who is at present completing her course at the Model, has been engaged for 1889 in No 8 Miss Robinson comes well recommended.

This week R. Sheridan and father, of Brockville, were visiting friends in this township. Mr Sheridan, sr., is a brother to Mr Sheridan, near Sunshine, and they had not met for upwards of 40 years, when they separated in Ireland.

A four day's meeting was commenced in St. James Methodist church on Tuesday evening last week. Rev Mr Tonge, pastor, preached at the opening service, Rev M Swann, of Brussels, on Wednesday at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m., Rev R. Paul, of Brussels, on Thursday at the same hours, and Rev Robert Godfrey, of Belgrave, on Friday.

GREY.

Bush fires have done considerable damage in some parts of the township. All the available fields in the vicinity of Cranbrooks are now spread over with flax.

Fires are now burning in every corner. A great deal of waste land is being cleared up.

Wm Pine and Jno Avery have gone to the Michigan lumber woods. We wish them prosperity.

Apple buyers have been through this section and most of the crop has been bought for shipment.

The fine showers the beginning of the week have given the fall wheat a good start. The early sown fields are quite green.

Jno McLaughlin left last Monday for Philadelphia, where he will study at the Dental College.

On Wednesday evening of last week a 13-year-old son of James Pearson, who lives back of Ethel, was killed in a very unusual way. Along with his brother they were riding a horse (or horses) with harness on in from the field. The horse took fright, or started to run, and the older boy got caught in the harness and was so badly bruised and injured that he soon expired.

CLINTON.

Mr Geo Hoare returned from the Old Country on Wednesday last week.

E. T. Holmes, formerly of the New Yorks, is at present in Victoria, B.C. He reports times as very quiet there.

Some time since Mr J. Worsell's second son fell off a hen house; the child did not seem to be hurt at the time, but its injuries were worse than supposed, and it has been seriously ill for several days.

Mr J. C. Stevenson was last week placed on the Executive committee of the Ontario Undertakers' Association, at its meeting in Toronto, attended by himself and Mr D B Galbie.

On Monday Mr Jos Swaffield, formerly of Goderich, broke some of the small bones of his right foot by a heavy stack of timber falling on it.

Mr H. Knott met with a bad accident the other day. He was in Downs' blacksmith shop, and attempting to remove some obstructions from the barrel of a loaded gun, put a hot iron down the barrel, kee, on his hand in a line with his mouth. Of course the gun was discharged, and Mr Knott had his forefinger blown off and the otherwise shattered.

SEAFORTE.

The Y. M. C. A. of this town are arranging for a series of night meetings, to be conducted by Mr Cole, of Toronto.

Some evil disposed persons, recently entered the curling rink and cut open the head of the big drum belonging to the band, and then poured cold oil into it. The chief has his eye upon the parties who committed the contemptible outrage.

It is understood that Mr G. E. Jackson will erect a salt block in Seaforte fitted up with his new patent salt boiling apparatus.

Dr Coleman met with a rather serious mishap on Monday last. While stopping at Stagsville, he thought he could jump from the train while in motion. In doing so he fell with great force on the hard ground, cutting his head and receiving other bruises and wounds. He is not seriously hurt.

STUDENTS.—We learn, with pleasure, that Mr Hugh A. Ross, of the Seaforte Collegiate Institute, has received his third class certificate, and has joined the Model School Class in Goderich. Mr Wm. Tough, a very diligent student of the Institute, has also received his second class certificate on appeal. The number of successful appeals seems to indicate great imperfection in the examining at Toronto.

BRUSSES.

A Ronald steam fire engine was taken to B, th on Thursday of last week to show the people of that burg what the valuable machine can do.

Quite a curiosity was on exhibition in Robt. Henderson's garden this week, viz. that of a strawberry plant blooming. This is the fourth time this season for them to bloom.

Joseph Clegg shipped a carload of cattle to Montreal and a carload of sheep to Black Rock this week. Jno. Roddick sent a carload of lambs to Black Rock on Thursday.

The Wiston waterworks were completed on Wednesday of last week and was tested to the satisfaction of everybody. The employees of the Ronald works of this village, have come home, and are hard at work at the foundry.

Mrs W. B. Dickson and Miss Kate Cormack leave shortly for Helena, Montana. W. B. Dickson has entered into partnership with an old established lawyer of that city. He will find W. B. the "clear quill" every time.

RACE.

The half-mile running race between Beattie Bros. roan pony, of this town, and Northgrove's mare, from Listowel, drew quite a crowd to the race course last Saturday afternoon. The first heat was taken by the mare, winning by about two lengths. In the next trial the pony won by about half a neck. The mare cast a shoe while running this heat, which somewhat interfered with her speed. The third and last heat was taken by the Listowel beast. Robt. Denbow rode Beattie's pony and Northgrove's son held the reins on the mare. The judges were Russ, Ely, of Listowel, and T. Hall and A. Keating, of Brussels. The time made was 54 63 and 54 seconds respectively.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.

Do not send your mowing machine into the field without one of our Emery Mower Sharpeners.
THE MOWER'S FRIEND, is that best. With it you can repair damaged sections and sharpen the knife with removing it from the machine. It will save you many hours hard work at the grindstone, besides valuable time. In fact, it is worth its weight in gold to every owner of a mower or reaper. If not for sale in your town, send 30 cents, and we will send you one by mail postage paid. Agents wanted.

ELLWANGER & BARRY,

MOUNT HOPE NURSERY, ROCHESTER, N.Y.

I take this opportunity of informing the public that I have been appointed travelling agent for the well-known firm of Ellwanger & Barry, the premier nurserymen of America. They have carried on business successfully for the past 50 years, and have 1000 acres of nursery under cultivation. Hear what the Ontario County Farmer of New York State says of them: "Our visit was notably a most pleasant one, and we added largely to our store of information. The former cordially commends the great firm of Ellwanger & Barry to his thousands of readers. When stock is wanted in their line it is pleasant to know that we may order it with the assurance that we shall get it at fair prices and that it will be true to name. They are thoroughly reliable in every sense of the word, and all their dealings are characterized by the strictest integrity." Orders solicited and satisfaction guaranteed.

R. L. WALTON, Agent.

Important To Farmers

The Subscriber would respectfully announce that he intends opening a seed store on the west side of Hamilton-st. in the building lately occupied by Mr. Barry, of which due notice will be given in this paper further on. We will have in store by Tuesday next, three of the best varieties of all wheat grown, viz: GARFIELD, Hybrid Mediterranean and SURPRISE, which we offer for seed purposes. We have only been able to secure a limited quantity of the last named. These wheats, for milling purposes have no superior. Our seed has been procured from some of the most prominent farmers on the Continent, and will be guaranteed free from any dirt, whatever, and true to name.

WILLIAM BURROWS, SEEDSMAN.
