

Our Parl

There's been blood of ours expended,
But the seas are England's still!
There's been riven hearts anear us
For the sons who come not back—
Sons who met the foremost onslaught
Of the foe in his attack—
But other sons were sent the ranks to fill!

There's been hero deeds accomplished
By the mother, by the sire,
Deeds heroic by the daughter and the son
And for aye with stronger claiming
We shall claim thee, Union Jack,
And rally round thee till the fight is won.

By the blood of men who follow
Where the fiercer challenge calls!
By the hands of men who battle
With the tempest, and the sea—
By the heart of men who've triumphed
Where the blinding blizzard falls
On the trackless frozen ocean of the Pole!

By the souls of Vikings breathing
In the north winds ecstasy,
We are with you, mother England, to the goal!

SUPERB VITAGRAPH DRAMA AT NICKEL THEATRE.

A new programme will be given at the Nickel Theatre to-day. It will be equally as good as the other charming programmes given there of late. "The Hazards of Helen" will be continued. The great feature for to-day, however, is a superb drama by the Vitagraph artists entitled: "For Another's Crime." Leo Delaney, Leah Baird and Roger Lytton are in the leading characters. "The Closing Web" is a beautiful two-part social drama. "How Heroes are Made" is the comedy. "Forbes Law Duguid" the great baritone singer will be heard in a new song. Mr. Duguid certainly deserves the good things said of him. Don't forget the big matinee for the little ones to-morrow.

BRITISH THEATRE.

The vociferous applause which greeted the termination of Madame Olive Timmons' great singing at the above Theatre last night, was a whole-souled testimony to this celebrated artist's splendid work. Her rendition of the beautiful song "The Rose" was indeed a work of art whilst the manner in which she interpreted the charming "petite chanson" "Come Out Mr. Sun-Shine" displayed wonderful technique and marvellous voice control. Mr. P. J. McCarthy played the accompaniments with his well known Madam's skill. Madame Timmons will be heard to-night in new selections.

AT THE CRESCENT.

Harvey Collins, directed from New York's big theatres, arrived by the Stephano, yesterday, for the Crescent Picture Palace for a short season. Mr. Collins possesses a fine tenor voice and Crescent patrons who heard him sing "A Little Bit of Heaven" yesterday were delighted. To-day's picture programme is up to the Crescent's usual standard. A fascinating drama entitled "The Hopeless Game" is presented by the Lavin Company in two reels, beside four other interesting pictures. Mr. Collins sings "A Little Bit of Heaven" again to-day. Don't miss hearing him. The usual extra pictures will be shown at the big Saturday matinee. Send the children; the Crescent staff will take good care of them.

"OURS" IN THE WEST END.

There was a crowded house at each performance last night at the ever-popular little theatre, and all enjoyed the good programme. The little singer was loudly applauded and had to respond to the hearty encores. To-night there will be an entire change of pictures all the pick of the market and carefully selected to suit all patrons. Always a good show and a clean, comfortable theatre to enjoy an evening be found at "Ours."

Meeting of Patriotic Association.

A meeting of the Patriotic Association was held at the Board of Trade Rooms last night. His Excellency the Governor presiding. Upwards of fifty members were present. His Excellency announced that the Major's recently appointed to the Newfoundland Regiment have already taken up their duties. He spoke of the good work done by the Aeroplane Committee and paid a worthy tribute to the patriotism of those who contributed to the fund. He also referred to England's appreciation of her oldest colony's gifts, mention of which has already been made in the Press. He then read the accompanying letter from Sir Spencer Ewart, the Commanding Officer of the forces in Scotland:—

Headquarters Scottish Command, Edinburgh, 19th July, 1915.

Dear Sir Walter Davidson,—
I am very much obliged for your Excellency's kind letter of July 1st. I can assure you that it has been a very great pleasure and honor to me to have had the Newfoundland Regiment under my orders during its period of training in this country. When the Battalion first arrived it was quartered at Fort George, but subsequently I moved it to Edinburgh, as it seemed appropriate from an Imperial point of view that the soldiers of Newfoundland should garrison our ancient Castle for a time. The Battalion is now at Stob's Camp, near Hawick, on the borders, where it has made good progress in its training, and I have lately recommended that it shall be moved to England to be incorporated in a Brigade, prior to proceeding upon active service.

The Battalion has conducted itself to my entire satisfaction, and I have the authority of the Lord Provost of Edinburgh for saying that its presence in our Scottish capital has been much appreciated by the people. The Lord Provost himself was present at the station to welcome your officers and men in the name of the City of Edinburgh on their arrival here from Fort George.

The Newfoundland Regiment is composed of the best possible material, all ranks being of fine, sturdy physique. I shall watch the future career of the Battalion when it goes to the front with the greatest interest, being convinced that every officer and man will do his utmost to uphold the honour of his regiment, of Newfoundland, and of the Empire. It was a great pleasure to me to be present at the Ceremonial parade at Stob's Camp, when Lady MacGregor presented the regimental colour to the Battalion for I am quite sure that all ranks are animated by a desire to emblazon upon the colour honours of which Newfoundland may for all time be proud.

I shall feel much obliged if your Excellency will convey to my Ministers my cordial thanks for the kind letter which you have addressed to me.

Yours sincerely,
SPENCER EWART.

The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer of the Aeroplane Fund Committee were then read and adopted.

The report of the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. J. A. Clift, K. C., showed that the sum of $34,848.55 had already been received and acknowledged, that sufficient was in sight to make the total $40,764.19 and that $21,705.21 had already been expended in the purchase of two aeroplanes. This leaves a balance of $19,058.98 not including subscriptions to be received from Borwood and the employees of the Reid Nfd. Co., which should make the total about $21,000.

The report of the Reserve Force Committee was presented by Sir Joseph Outerbridge and was adopted. This report showed that 145 men have passed the medical examination and have been accepted for G Company, now in training. Since the formation of the Reserve Force Committee 214 have volunteered and 1114 of these have been sworn in for service abroad. The Equipment and Military Committees are performing their work most satisfactorily and the recruits are making excellent progress. Sir Joseph Outerbridge then read communications received from the Captain of H. M. S. Calgarian, Sir William McGregor, Col. B. MacAlmont the General Staff Officer of the 12th Reserve Infantry Brigade to which our regiment has been attached, all of whom spoke very favourably of the conduct of the men and their proficiency in drill, which reflects much credit on the officers who trained them.

It was decided that the work of the Aeroplane and Machine Gun Fund should continue for the present, the balance to be devoted to Machine Guns particularly for the Newfoundland Regiment. Information is being sought from the War Office as to the cost of the machine guns with which the Newfoundland Regiment are being equipped.

After a vote of thanks had been passed to the Press, and to Mr. W. J. Edgar for his services as Asst. Treas. of the Aeroplane Committee, the meeting adjourned.

BEN JONSON died 1638, aged 62. By some he was ranked second only to Shakespeare. His first great production was "Every man in his Humour" in the acting of which Shakespeare took part. He produced plays, tragedies, poems and miscellaneous writings, some of which have lived. VELASQUEZ died 1660, aged 61. A famous Spanish painter, whose pictures rank among the finest in Spain. His style was sombre and fantastic but he invested his works with such a natural force that they were lack in distinction. PENNYSON born 1899. Poet Laureate from 1850 to his death in 1892. His "In Memoriam" in which he eulogized his affection for the memory of his dead friend Arthur Hallam, is a gem of great beauty and depth of thought.

Hollywood Garden Party

The annual Garden Party in aid of the Church fund at Hollywood, was held at Dunphy's Farm Wednesday and was fairly well attended. The day was not an ideal one for outdoor amusements. The guests and visitors were made as happy and comfortable as possible, and all enjoyed themselves thoroughly well. The dinner and refreshment tables were well patronized and the Rev. Pastor Fr. Finn and his committee were untiring in their efforts to make their patrons enjoy themselves—the younger element in games of football, dancing and singing, while the older surveyed. At sunset the ladies' committee repaired to the Star Hall where a part of the day's business was resumed. Teas and refreshments were served and the big dance commenced, all of which considerably increased the day's proceeds to the handsome sum of $350. Among the visitors were Rt. Rev. Monsignor Veitch, Rev. R. M. Sheehan, P. W. Brown, Supt. Hanrahan and Magistrate O'Rourke and G. Kennedy, M.H.A.
