BRILLIANT WORK BY FRENCH.

PARIS, To-day. A bloody battle is going on on both flanks of the Somme, says an official issued by the War Offices to-night The French have made fresh progress east of the Village of Forest, north of Galvanized Fencing the river, and south have successfully attacked objectives along a front of 20 kilometres (121/2 miles) from Barleaux to Chalons. The village of Farm and Poultry Sovecourt was brilliantly carried by assault, as well as part of Verman Dovillers. Over 5,000 prisoners have been taken north and south of the Wire Strainers and Somme in the last two days. Progress was also made on the right bank of the Meuse in the Verdun sector in the Fleury region.

BRITISH OFFICIAL.

LONDON, To-day. An official statement from Genera Headquarters issued to-night reads This morning the enemy made counter attack against our newly wor position northwest of Moquet Farm. He was easily repulsed. North o Falfemont farm our troops gained further ground during the afternoon Heavy fighting continues on this portion of our front. Beyond heavy ar tillery actions between the Ancre and the Somme there is nothing to re-
