DIED AT ST. ANTHONY.—Mr. T.
Carter, Ship's Broker, has received a message, informing him of the passing of Capt. Jensen, of the Danish schooner Immanuel, at St. Anthony hospital. Death resulted from lung trouble.

At Rest.

The funeral of the late E. J. S. Mac-Gregor took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence Bannerman St., and was attended by a large number of citizens, practically all of whom were personal friends of the deceased. Included in those present were Dr. Robinson, P.M.G., Mr. G. W.
LeMessurier, chief clerk, the superintendents of the various departments and many clerks from the G.P.O. and postal telegraphs. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. C. A.
Moulton, and interment was at the C. E. cemetery. At the mortuary chapel the favorite hymn of deceased "Jesu lover of my Soul" was sweetly and reverently sung.

Put Clock Back.

At eleven o'clock to-morrow evening, the hour hands of all clocks must be put back one hour, that is to ten o'clock, and thereafter must run on the same as before the law came in force. It is a pity that the law cannot be continued, as the extra-hour of daylight will be sorely missed now that the evenings are shortening.

Acknowledgment.

A deep sense of gratitude impels me to acknowledge the generous assistance of all visitors to my Garden Party, particularly the President, Secretary and members of the R. R. and B. Committee of the Star of the Sea Association, St. John's, as well as to express my sincere thanks to the following donors for their great kindness to me:—

"Troublesome Troops."

(From "Chaparra.")
A Canadian soldier in the region of Vimy Ridge met a swanking English officer, whom, according to good Canadian custom, he did not salute.
The officer stopped him.
"Look here, my man," he said,
"don't you know I'm an officer? Why don't you salute?"
"Oh," said the Canadian, "are you an officer?"
"Yes," replied the officer, and then noticing for the first time that the man was a Canadian, he added with annoyance: "Oh, you're a Canadian, aren't you? Well, do you know that you Canadians give us more trouble than the whole rest of the English army put together?"
"Yes," replied the Canadian, with a slow smile. "That's what Fritz thinks too."

How to Dodge "Flu."

Keep feet and clothing dry.
Avoid crowds.
Protect your nose and mouth in the presence of sneezes.
Gargle your nose and mouth three times a day with a mild antiseptic if you salt and water.
Don't neglect a cold.
Keep as much as possible in the sunshine.
Don't get "scared."

enables traders throughout the World to communicate direct with English MANUFACTURERS & DEALERS in each class of goods. Besides being a complete commercial guide to London and Suburbs, it contains lists of EXPORT MERCHANTS with the goods they ship, and the Colonial and Foreign Markets they supply; also PROVINCIAL TRADE NOTICES of leading Manufacturers, Merchants, etc., in the principal Provincial Towns and Industrial Centres of the United Kingdom.
Business Cards of Merchants and Dealers seeking BRITISH AGENCIES can now be printed under each trade in which they are interested at a cost of 5s for each trade heading. Larger advertisements from 15s to 50s.
A copy of the directory will be sent by post on receipt of postal orders for

Household Notes

Some small collars are at the back only.
Fine knife pleats are excellent as trimming.
V necks are almost as popular as square ones.
Embroidery in worsted and angora is smart.
The smartest veils are those with spots and dots.
Caps to match the dress are made for tiny children.
Draped bodices are best developed in soft charmeuse.
Set-on sleeves for wraps retain the kimono effect.
Bead bags are pulled up with strings or ribbons.
Metal-thread embroidery is smart on satin or velvet.
Square collars edged with beads are very attractive.
Some of the newest nightgowns have pockets in them.
Many gowns of black satin have collars of pink satin.
The waistcoats of the new tailored suits are often of fur.
A toque of brilliant jet beads may be worn with any costume.
Some straight slim skirts have two or three side flounces.
Gloveskin velvet seems made especially for afternoon frocks.
Empire dresses for young girls are trimmed only with tucks.

Denominational Ratio.

We copy the following denominational percentage of enlistments in the Royal Newfoundland Regiment from a despatch dated St. John's N.F., Sept. 3, cabled or written Toronto and published in that city on Sept. 12th. The extract is quoted verbatim: "The total membership of each religious denomination in 1911 and the numbers of each who volunteered up to June 28th last, are as follows: Church of Rome, membership 81,779; Volunteers, 1639. Church of England, membership 78,618; Volunteers, 2044. Methodist, membership, 68,042; Volunteers, 1818. Salvation Army, membership 10,141; Volunteers, 265. The percentage enlisting from each church, per thousand of population, is, according to this table—Church of Rome, 30.02; Church of England, 26.00; Methodist, 26.72; Salvation Army, 26.01." We do not assume the responsibility for the compilation of these figures, merely reprinting them from the Toronto journal in the public interest.

T. P. U. Meeting

The executive of the Truckmen's Protective Union held their regular meeting last evening when the proposed new tariff came up for discussion. The matter of handling the R. N. Co.'s freight bills on the shipments of goods carted by the Union was also discussed, carmen complaining that they usually pay the freight bills on shipments of goods they cart, which means delay and loss of time without remuneration. The executive did not arrive at a decision on either matter discussed, but on Monday night, at the annual meeting of the Union, both will be further considered and possibly finalized.

Naval Casualty.

H.M.S. Briton, St. John's, 4th October, 1918.
Sir, I much regret to have to inform you that the Admiralty have reported the death of Hugh Dan Campbell, Seaman 4th R.N.R., Official No.
2833.X, from pneumonia at Haslar Hospital, England, on 28th September, 1918.
Yours truly,
A. MACDERMOTT,
Commander (Act.)
Editor Evening Telegram.

Accidental Shooting.

On Thursday last, at Lewisporte, operator Power, son of Constable Power, was accidentally shot in the leg by a small boy who was playing "soldier" on the platform at the railway station, having in his possession a 22 calibre gun and as usual pulled the trigger not knowing at the time that the gun was loaded. The bullet entered Power's right leg above the knee passing near the bone and lodging in the back of the leg. No doctor being present to extract the bullet the injured man decided to come to the city for treatment, and reached here by yesterday's express being subsequently taken to the hospital.

CHURCH PARADE.—The soldiers in training will hold their usual church parade to-morrow morning, attending Divine Service at their respective churches.
