Ulster Parliament opened

King and Queen Present--His Majesty Speaks From "A Full Heart"--Sinn Fein Boycott Defeated--Smuts Makes Prophetic Utterance.

KING OPENS ULSTER PARLIAMENT.

BELFAST, June 22. King George and Queen Mary arrived in the harbor of Belfast shortly before eight o'clock this morning. Their yacht, escorted by a flotilla of warships, made a quick trip across the Irish Sea from Holyhead, during the night, and reached here more than three hours before it was expected. The weather changed suddenly during the night and there was a steady drizzle this morning, which threatened to mar the day's proceedings. At 10 o'clock, however, crowds began to gather along the line of Royal passage soon after daybreak.

"I speak from a full heart," said King George in his speech, formally opening the Ulster Parliament to-day, "when I pray that my coming to Ireland to-day may prove to be the first step toward an end of the strife among her people, whatever their race or creed." The ceremony of the opening of the Ulster Parliament was similar to that attending the inauguration of the British Parliament at Westminster, and was a brilliant spectacle. There was but little room in the hall where the function took place for those having cards of admission, but it was a distinguished assembly that watched the event, regarded as marking an epoch in Irish history. From the moment the Royal yacht, Victoria and Albert, dropped her anchor at the entrance to Belfast Lough, the King and Queen were objects of enthusiastic demonstrations by the loyalists of Ulster. The people of County Down on the south side, the County of Londonderry on the northern side, vied with each other in extending greetings. An even noisier welcome awaited the King and Queen as they steamed past the shipyards where the cheers of thousands of workmen mingled with the shrieks of sirens and whistles.

King George and Queen Mary departed from Belfast for London at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

CHAOTIC SITUATION IN BRITISH LABOUR.

LONDON, June 22. The National alliance of employers and employed of Great Britain have asked the Government to summon a joint industrial conference, representative of all masters and men now engaged in wage disputes with instructions to try to save the industrial situation from chaos. At the same time it is understood that the Labour Party and Trade Unions Congress are considering calling a conference in London next week to deal with the proposal of a general strike in support of the miners. Reports from the Districts to-day show that no large number of miners have resumed work, but that it is secured by due intimidation rather than unwillingness.

INTERVIEW WITH DE VALERA.

LONDON, June 22. Christopher O'Sullivan, Australian correspondent, in an interview with Eamon De Valera in behalf of an Australian news agency, asked him whether Ireland would accept a status similar to that of the British Overseas Dominions, to which Mr. De Valera replied, "no such status has been offered Ireland. Until it becomes possible to translate Ireland to the antipodes, or another hemisphere, no such status can be realized." Asked what solution he proposed, Mr. De Valera replied, "A neutral Irish State whose inviolability would be guaranteed by the United States and the States of the British Empire and any others that could be secured as signatories. Free Ireland would never allow its territories or harbors to be made basis of attack upon England by an outside power. A native Irish defence force would be many times as effective in keeping out an invader as any force England could put there, while in case of danger England's forces would still be available. Any pledge Ireland gives, Ireland will keep. With an independent Ireland beside her, Great Britain would be more, not less safe than she is from foreign attack."

SOUTHERN SENATORS ACCEPT CONDITIONALLY.

Senators of Southern Ireland have indicated that they would accept a resolution with the intention of exercising fullest freedom of action regarding the powers to be hereafter granted Parliament and the Government of Southern Ireland. We are of opinion that the powers given under the present Act are insufficient to enable the Government of Southern Ireland to be carried on with any prospect of success, and urge upon the Government that the earliest possible steps be taken to amend the Act. We desire further to make it clear that we are ready to act in the second Chamber of the House with the Lower House, and are not prepared to exercise our functions in connection with any other body nominated by the Lord Lieutenant to replace the elected Lower House."

Outport Man Says All His Troubles Are Over at Last

Well Known Logy Bay Fisherman Gets Rid Of Indigestion And Rheumatism - Walks Miles Without Any Trouble.

Statements are continually being received at the Tanlac office from people in all parts of Newfoundland, but especially from the Outports, many of whom are removed from all medical aid expressing their gratitude for the way this truly remarkable medicine has restored them to health in many cases after years of suffering. Characteristics of these statements is one received from James McDonald, fisherman of Logy Bay, who said:

"My stomach was so badly out of order for a year that what I ate gave me no strength at all. I got weaker day by day, finally, if I tried to walk any distance my knees would give out from under me and I would have to stop and rest. I was always having to ease up my work, as I was not strong enough to stick to it. My legs hurt me so bad at times I couldn't sleep hardly and would wake up in the morning all tired out. "On a trip to St. John's I got Tanlac and the first bottle did not seem to do me much good, but as I was sleeping better I determined to keep on taking it and it was lucky for me that I did, for after I had been taking it a little while longer I noticed a decided improvement. I kept on getting better every day until finally my health was entirely restored. My stomach trouble is gone, I have a fine appetite and I can digest everything I eat. I can walk miles and work hard now without getting tired. Tanlac is certainly a godsend to us who live in the Outports."

DIAMOND DUST

Nothing But the Truth—Without Fear or Favour.

THEY'RE OFF.

Opening Day at the ballyard! The season has started once more. And up in the bleachers, the mad rooting creatures are anxiously lapping the score. The ballclubs are off in a clatter. They've started the golfing race. The gamblers are betting. And managers fretting. And Cockey is swinging his mace. The experts have finished their dogging. Jawn B. has got them along. Cockey Mann is crabbing, some 1400. Bert Channing is gabbling. And poor Ches is calling them wrong.

GALA OPENING.

Ideal weather and a large gathering of fans including His Excellency the Governor and suite and a good brand of ball were the features that marked the opening of the baseball season yesterday morning. The grapplers were the Lions and B.I.S. and the former successfully defended their title as champs when they emerged victorious by 7 runs to 4. Both teams got away at the crack of the pistol, just after Mayor Gosling had thrown the first one over, amidst the applause of the rosters, and it was nip and tuck right up to the sixth when Munn and Robertson by their heavy slugging put the game on ice. The Irish youngsters played a good game and will have to be reckoned with. Their new discovery—Bryan Johnson—is a bird and looks like a pro in action. The veterans showed up well but Hiltz will have to put a little more snap in them if they pursue running away with the silverware for the third time in succession. However it was the opening game, and possibly some of the players in both line-ups were a little bit edgy. The score by innings was:

Lions: 1 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 2-7
B.I.S.: 0 1 0 0 1 2 0 0 0-4

AFTERNOON CLASH.

Another large attendance saw the doughty and experienced Cubs manhandle the C.E.L. to the tune of 10 to 4 but although the score looks one sided, yet at times the Institute boys gave a very good exhibition. It would look however as though Scandie's gang is out for blood this season as they seem to be well drilled and rehearsed and their fielding and throwing are with almost machine-like precision. Some of the newer C.E.L. players were a little nervous and were the cause of their infield blowing up in the third when they let 5 Cubs cross the plate. The red and whites started the boys business right in the out and shoved across 2 runs before Manning could stem the tide. They have the nucleus of a good nine and it must be only the matter of a season or two more when all the youngsters comprising their, and the Irish, team must perform come into their own, for you know youth must be served. The score by innings was:—

Cubs: 1 0 5 4 0 0 0 0 0-10

NEXT GAME.

The next game will be between the B.I.S. and Cubs and a meet between them has always proved most interesting. Manager Channing proposes to strengthen the Irish line-up considerably.

TROUTIN DEY CALLS IT!

They are telling a good one this morning on a certain Water Street business man who was elected manager of a fishing expedition yesterday. The boys gave him twenty dollars to buy provisions with. He came back with fifty cents worth of bread and nineteen dollars and fifty cents' worth of the stuff that no fishing trip is good without.

"And, what the Heck," said the boys disgustedly, "do you mean by buying so much bread, Bill?"
"And all the world rejoices
For playtime now is here—
And playtime is a gaytime,
The best time of the year."
