Salt of Enviable

Reputation

Harbor Grace Notes.

Rev. F. S. Coffin, of St. Andrew's

Church here, who was spending a week or so in the city, arrived back to town again by Tuesday night's Miss M. Fraser, of Bay Roberts, spent last week-end here, being the Custom House) during her stay.

guest of Mrs. J. Ash (at the old

Messrs. J. W. Jordon and Wm. Tapp

who went out to the city on Thursday, after having spent a two weeks'

holiday at their homes, left by the s.s.

many friends are pleased to know their stay here was most enjoyable, and hope to see them again in the

The Strawberry Festival on the South Side on Wednesday last was very much enjoyed by those who attended. The proceeds amounted to over 150, which will go towards the

The ladies of St. Paul's Church are having their festival on Thursday of this week in St. Paul's Hall, and we to partake of the good things they

Messrs. Baine Johnston's schooner

Jean Dundonald Duff, which arrived from St. John's on Wednesday, hav-course of a year or so.

new school fund.

have to offer.

the times and ground.

"Here Cemes El Capitan." Yesterday evening I suddenly found thrilling military and social event of our high school days. I could see the forms marching across the hall, feel the heat of the May night, almost smell the daisies that were used as decoration For a minute I could not think what had brought the old scene back so vividly and then, all at once, I became conscious that my playing that good old Sousa two-step ugliest landscape?

Do you remember "Meet me in St Don't tell me the stars are shining anywhere but there?" Once in a into that and I am immediately on frontier, found in a ditch a new-born the deck of a little coasting steamer baby boy wraped in a shawl and wearand the moon is shining and a crowd ing clothes of good quality. One of boys (I think I called them young the miners carried the child home to men then) are singing, "Meet me in his wife, who began to undress it. A fated to come to a tragic end in a few St. Louis, Louis," to the accompani- thick envelope fell out of the clothes. ment of the mandolins which were The miner opened it and found 450the rage just then. That was one of 1000 fr bank-notes (each worth nomion August 2, 1547. Christian was like day night last from Whooping Harthe first times I was ever on a ship nally £40), with a note, in a woman's at right and the vivid first impres- handwriting: "To the kind stranger sion of the moon on the water and who finds my baby; please take care of she had been poisoned. Having heard the rectement of sleeping on a boat him and have him named Victor." A his steward Turbern Oxe, once boast are indissolubly linked with that motor car containing three well- his love for Dyveke, he had the man lands is spending a holiday in town, tunes and their relation to memories. was found during the afternoon.

LOCAL-

Fresh Carrots.

Fresh Lettuce.

New York Turnips.

New Potatoes.

cuits.

Fresh Turnips, etc.

Canadian Green Cabbage

Good Old P.E.I. Potatees

Moir's Fresh Pilot Bis-

Fresh Beets.

For Regatta Week

Fresh Fruits, etc.

Canteloupes.

Grape Fruit.

Cucumbers.

Fresh Tomatoes.

Shelled Walnuts.

Eno's Fruit Salts.

Jelly Powders.

Smyrna Figs in bags.

Cal. Oranges, all sizes.

Salted Peanuts, 10lb. tins

Pure Gold Extracts and

Honey Dew Melons.

Caifornia Oranges

NEW MAKE CODROY TABLE BUTTER.

No. 3 tins; about 5 ears to the can.

CANADIAN BUTTER, 1 lb. pkgs., 2 lb. slabs and bulk

GOLDEN BANTAM SWEET CORN ON THE COB-

C. P. EAGAN,

Duckworth Street & Queen's Road

any- One must have heard them many times, thing more po-tent than the sound of an old chain of events, or perhaps some sin-

The Authorman says that "Hiawath" I have heard it you ever in the night, ride a bike, said that nothing down a hike," (which for some reapast so vividly as a sniff of some words) always means men marching formation that the marching half-remembered fragrance that is in a Labor Day parade, to him. And I linked up with some old memory- can never hear "I'm waiting for you, the smell of violets or the smell of Cindy, by the Water Melon Vine" "the wattle at Lichtenburg ridin' in without a sense of depression. There the rain." Indeed, I have a feeling was once a big festival in our town that I myself may have made that at which practically every little girl statement. But to-day I present the in town danced. But we were Methrevivifying power of a tune as a can- odists. The Methodists of those days were stricter than those of to-day and we we left out. I shall never forget that left-out feeling. If I ever have

As Haze Seftens a Landscape,

old songs bring back are pleasant ones. And even that has lost its poignancy and I can smile at it to-day. That is the best thing about memories. new neighbor across the street was them just as the haze beautifies the

Two miners on their way home from dressed women is reported to have flung into prison, and the unhappy being the guest of Miss Ronena This-That is a queer thing about these old been passing the spot where the baby

A King Who Loved a Market Girl.

When, one summer day, Chancellor Valkendorf strolled through the mar-ket place of Bergen, his progress was followed by scowling eyes and mutter-ed maledictions, for he represented popular tune to gle personality. When one hears it, it brings back that single personality or across the years occasion just as if a lightning flash and vivify again had lit up one object in the forethe times and ground.

Interest her to know that he was the mos hated man in Norway. As he entered the market place his eyes were arrested by a beautiful picture—that of a young and extremely pretty girl standing behind a stall piled with fruit and vegetables. To emphasise her beauty, the maid had for a companion places where one to with its maddeningly catchy tune and whose black eyes flashed daggers at the idiotic words of the parody: "Did the Chancellor's glances of admiration. Undaunted, however, he made a profound bow to the dainty girl, and brings back the son stick longer than the original a little, and grudgingly gave the indaughter, and that they had come from money. When duty called the Chan-cellor back to Copenhagen he carried accounts of the market beauty to the visited Bergen some weeks later, and abouts of the beauty whose praises Valkendorf had so enthusiastically sung. The prince began to shadow her everywhere, and whispered words of love in her ear. Dyveke Sigbrit— that was the pretty girl's name—be-Westerday evening I suddenly found a chance to prevent some other child's came intoxicated by the homage of such a handsome lover, and she was soon caught in the toils of the most amorous prince in Europe. Later on she found herself installed, along with her mother, in a sumtuous home on without, but most of the memories the the outskirts of Upsala, and the prince became the adoring slave of the pretty market girl. Incredible as it may seem the ugly mother, by reason of her strong will and clever brain, quickly became his chief adviser, and isn't it—the haze that time has thrown he consulted her on questions of State across them softens and beautifies in preference to the most astute of his Ministers. When the Danish King died and Christian succeeded to the crown, Dyveke and her mother reached the pinnacle of their splendour, and were installed in a suite of apartments in Do you remember "Meet me in St. A Rich Baby in a Ditch. installed in a suite of apartments in Louis, Louis, meet me at the Fair. A Rich Baby in a Ditch. installed in a suite of apartments in the Copenhagen palace. For reasons of State Christian took for his wife the sister of the Emperor Charles V., who insisted on the banishment of the lowwhile some old hurdy-gurdy breaks work at Vieux-Conde, on the Belgian born interloper. But Christian was into that and I am immediately on frontier found in a ditch a new-born queen shut herself up to hide her humiliation, the market girl was his ing been towed to port by the motor months, for she was one day seized with violent pains, and after a few hours illness, died in her lover'n arms Hart, master, arrived in port Satur-

steward paid with his life for a crime of which he was almost certainly innocent. Christian had to pay a heavy jects, and he was swept from his throne to spend his last days an exile in Holland.

Spirited Away.

each, and an iceman are being sought by the authorities. So far as can be learned, a resident of the Southside, the original custodian of the liquor, hearing that the police were after him, removed the packages to the vicinity of Long Pond, where they were hidden, only to be discovered by a well known tippler, and he, sampling too much of the contents of one of the kegs fell asleep near his find. On his awakening, the kegs could not be found. Evidently the owner had moved them to an-other hiding place. On Monday night wishing to procure some of the

who was known to work nearby.

along with them. Neither the booze

B. I. S. WEEKLY OUTING-

Schr. Minnie Maud, Theophflus

a man distraught, and swore a terrible bor and Englee to her owner E. Simvengeance on those who had taken his mons, after having made a fine run beloved from him, for he had no doubt from the northward.

Schrs. Elsie Smith, Leander Pike, price for this act of vensance, how-master, (in last notes this name ap-ever, for this act of injustice, the peared as Elsie May, we regret the climax of a reign of cruelties and op-pression roused the fury of his sub-Ellen, Pet and motor boat Minarue were docked here during the past There went out to the city on Friday, Miss Ebsary and Mr. G. Davey, who have been visiting friends in town; also on Saturday Miss Elsie Stafford, Mrs. Kenneth Bussey and three children, Mr. B. Simmons, and for Spaniard's Bay, to spend week-end, Mrs. S. Gordon. Miss G. Taylor, of Heart's Content, has been in town for the past week being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. E

Mrs. A. W. Loveys and child are in town spending a while; Mr. Loveys being here in connection with employment bureau. Sir Richard A. Squires.

K.C.M.G., LL.B., Prime Minister and Colonial Secretary, in company with spirits the Southside man went to the Mr. W. H. Cave, Minister of Shipping, spot where it was buried but to his motored around the bay on Saturday surprise, he found that the seven and spent yesterday (Sunday) in kegs had vanished, and an iceman town, being the guests of Sir Richard's father, Mr. A. Squires. All were pleased to be honored by their nor the iceman have since been lo- presence with us.

cated, although diligent search has been made for them. John Trapnell, Esq., J.P., I.S.M., arrived from St. John's by Saturday night's train, having been there to receive the Imperial Service Medal fo thirty-two years' faithful service whilst Keeper of His Majesty's Court Every Thursday during summer, commencing July 7th, spemer, commencing July 7th, special train leaves St. John's at 7.30 p.m., returning leaves Don-7.30 p.m., returning leaves Donernor at Government House at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. Mr. Trapovan's at 11.30 p.m. Tickets, including train fare and dancing, nell has the or many friends. nell has the congratulations of his

75 cents each. Refreshments extra at Donevan's.—ily13, w,th,tf

That Libby's Evaporated Milk is just for special dishes.

It is true that it whips like cream, that it makes wonderfully smooth and rich ice cream, that it adds immeasurably to the flavor of unique desserts-

-but you can use it-and save money-in all your regular

If a recipe calls for milk you simply add water to Libby's use as much water as you do milk-and you have milk of guaranteed purity, of exceptional richness.

It is always fresh; always ready.

If the recipe calls for cream, use Libby's as it is. It is pure, rich milk-from the finest dairy sections of the United Stateswith more than half of the water removed and nothing added. Milk like cream at a cost of only one third of bottled cream!

Try Libby's Evaporated Milk in soups, in gravies, in creaming potatoes, in cakes, puddings and breads.

Use it as cream on your breakfast foods and in your coffee.

Your grocer has Libby's Milk or will get it for you

Order a supply to-day.

Libby, McNeill & Libby

EXTRA

GRAN.

SUGAR

In 2 Pound and 5 Pound Cartons.

Proof Positive of Superior Quality and Purity.

"I hereby certify that I have drawn by my own hand 7 samples of all brands of St. Lawrence Extra Granulated Sugars (indiscriminately taken from 7 lots of 400 bags each) and find them uniformly to contain 99..99|100 per cent. of pure cane sugar.

MILTON L. HERSEY, M.A.Sc., LL.D., Consulting Chemist to Quebec Government

Analyist Appointed for City of Montreal. Made by The St. Lawrence Sugar Refineries—the largest in Canada—and distributed to thte New-

With all

HARVEY & CO., Limited.

Bishop's Falls, having spent a month's holiday with his parents and friends, left town on Saturday to resume work again.

Schr. Nevis. Capt. Baker, is in port awaiting dockage. Mr. W. H. Green-land, of Bay Roberts, who is the owner of this schooner, arrived in town y this afternoon's train.

Mr. Kelly, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, after having spent a most enjoyable holiday, has now resumed work A return football match will be played at Shannon Park to-night be-

Carbonear and the Shannon team

Aug. 1, 1921. To make okra salad: Wash young juice or lemon pop, they set the lanpods and boil whole in salted water, guage flowing, they can't remember

ble; and when his lodge, and knock flies off the they're called on ing. ginning at 7.30, between a team from | to orate, like busy bees they bumble. They see a large, attentive crew, to hear their spiel collected, and they tell all they ever knew, and all they e'er suspected. Warmed by grape When soft, drain carefully. Chill and, when to stop, and don't know where when very cold, dress with French they're going. And when the ghastly dressing. Let pods stand in dressing morning breaks they get the daily paor a half hour and serve very cold on pers, and read, with many piebald they behold their words in print, know they left their bases, and swe news I keep in of deep magenta tint, rolls down to touch, and I'm furrowed faces. And then in cold forever reading spair they rise, and frame excel of delegates who neatly: "The blamed reporters, but talk too much, their eyes, misquoted us complete. whose to n gues But none believes this tawdry to are a 1 w a y s none likes the whining groaner, speed. And some stale excuses will not wash when are men of high has pulled a boner. Man would st estate, and some dire disaster dodge if he would can obscure and hum- spieling, and spend the long hours

Household Notes.

The Russian closing is used nany of the smartest French foo eplaced the straight-line frocks. Organdies are sometimes trim with appliqued chintz flowers. A frock of orange-and-white aches, the story of their capers. When gingham is trimmed with white

MUST AND JEFF-

IT LOOKS LIKE ANOTHER PUNK WEEK FOR MUTT.

ade Commissio Raps Gove TREATY WITH U

sw days ago a friend from Mr. J. M. D undland Trade Comr foundland Trate York, in which, and York, he comments on Tariff and Newfound therewith. He says:
don't have to point indiscretion of withd the Commissioner from while the tariff questi One of the most imposing used by me when a January and April k of Newfoundland er trade relations with this object in yie ioner was sent readily perceive the the position was disc the Government, Minister and Mr.

contradistinction to action, I would dra n to the aspirations moment, as judged by ier Meighen at the nial Prime Ministe ecently, when he sta intention of Can r to the United State would have direct dis ation at Washingt mplified still furth that Canada is now a esterday the Britsh rote me to say that O'Hara was visiting had intimated to hi ending a Trade Co ted that all repres Britsh Empire sho one roof-all offic tion of the various vere called upon to it is a very serious ourse, in his official ot butt in to advis worse exhibition of they lost their ner sis to me. Of cours poor old country s at Washington the made a study of the m ost influential of th administrat you have read, no ordney and that tariff, and a stron that. Such a tariff orm of the Republic on; and, when the N sing their cause, to win every ed" the League of gun in the party. ivised the Governme land to take up th Weshington. There cannot d as they are.

Ind now for a little that our efforts wer , and the net amoun was the turning away gold that should have oundland for bait. , then, is not the for the repealing of I say it is, and let s hip be displayed. for free fish to Ar his, take the duty off a ting largely from -somethingthan lose the n We made an arrece on the currence on the currence Bond did this, I beli point that has up to me_"What us taxing your taxing it yourselve You have an exporcents per quintal." was cancelled."

ig interests down to it is Newfoundland

rmen were forbidden uy bait and driven ou

smen argued that we their fishing industry

out as a competitor

y was withheld; but much. Look up the American fisheries an and grow fat We advise th Price $1.00; tra.—apr26,tf hild Found in (