DUSSELDORF - "You must be distress and privation. The exchequer making an enormous lot of money," is telling a tale with its increasing wasted on whimsical ideas, and in-"you spend more than half your time counting great stacks of bills."

The head porter looked up sadly. "Don't joke with me," he admonished. "I am the man who is respensible for the passing of one of the oldest, ironical, sarcastic remarks ever made about jobs."

"What is it, I would like to know?" "This job isn't worth carfare." the porter replied.

It turned out to be literally true. It cost him fifteen thousand marks a month to go to and from his work on the street cars, the hotel paid him ten thousand marks.
