STADIUM EVENTS AT THE SWEDISH OLYMPIAD BROUGHT TO CLOSE WITH UNITED STATES ATHLETES ENJOYING COMFORTABLE LEAD

King of Sweden Presents Laurel Wreaths to the Triumphant McArthur Presented With Bronze Statue of the Original Runner; Minor Sports Continue for Three Weeks

STOCKHOLM, July 15.—The last day of the track and field sports in the stadium brought no sensations. The games reached their culmination in the Marathon. The curtain falls on the Olympic with the United States well in front in the total points of all sports and with a sweeping victory in the field and track events which for years have constituted the program at meetings in Americans and Great Britain and to which athletes of those nations devote their energies.

The bestowal of the prizes by the king, who placed laurel wreaths on the heads of the victors and shook hands with all the winners, took place in the stadium this afternoon. The American team led the march of triumphal athletes which, when arrayed before the king, formed an assemblage of picked men and women of the world in sport such as was never seen in one body before.

The Triumphant March

The procession into the arena was a remarkable sight. Every sort of civil and military costumes figured from full dress military with plumed and shining helmets and much gold lace, to simple khaki and from frock coat and silk hat to running tights. The women swimmers and tennis players wore pink and white dresses, while the women gymnasts made a very charming appearance in sailor frocks.

King Gustave mounted the rostrum behind the tables loaded with trophies, wreaths and medals. Ralph O'Craig, Detroit I.M.C.A., the double winner of the 100 and 200 meters dashes, was the first victor called. He stepped forward to the platform and the king placed the laurel wreath on his head and shook hands warmly. Several Americans then came forward. The Marathon winner, McArthur of South Africa, received the greatest cheer. He appeared in green tights with bare arms and legs. In addition to other laurels, he was presented with a big bronze statue of the original Marathon hero falling in the finish. The king applauded him and held his hand for a long time.

Sports Continue Three Weeks

The sports will continue three weeks. The military riding competitions are not yet finished and the Olympic regatta with entries from England, Canada and most of the European countries is about to begin. Then comes the rowing program, which puts the eared boats down for two trials in one day, Canada against Leander in the morning and against Austria in the afternoon of the same day. Canada, England and other nations have entered a protest.
