At the beginning of the eighteenth century a number of ruffianly young men of the higher classes—called by Swift "a race of rakes that play the devil about the town every night"— known as "Mohocks," infested London, sallying out drunk into the streets, carrying short clubs loaded with lead at both ends and perpetrating shameful cruelties upon peaceable passersby, wantonly wounding and disfiguring the men and subjecting all alike to atrocious insults.

Lecky says that matrons inclosed in barrels were rolled down the steep and stony Snow hill. Watchmen were unmercifully beaten and their noses were slit. Coaches and chairs were overturned on rubbish heaps, and coun try gentlemen visiting the theaters had to be accompanied by their armed re-tainers as if in time of war.

Single Russian Torpedo Boat Destroyer Undertakes Big Contract In Hope of Ridding Black Sea of Mutineers -Rear-Admiral Choukin Searches British Ship for Odessa Refugees-Riot Victims 6,000.

With Kustenji and other unprotected ports of Roumania, Bulgaria and Turkey at the mercy of the battleships' guns, and with the inability of Vice-Admiral Kruger's squadron to interfere with her career tacitly admitted by retiring them from commission, this desperate expedient was seized upon to prevent international complications, and to rid the Black Sea of mutineers.
This problem for a single destroyer,

This problem for a single destroyer, which is difficult and dangerous at best, as she will have to encounter both the Kniaz Potemkine and her attendant torpedo boat, is now complicated by the departure of the battleship from Kustenij, and ignorance as to where she will next turn up; but a despatch from Kustenii throws a glesm of horse on Kustenji throws a gleam of hope on the dark situation by intimating that a considerable number of her crew are anxious to desert their leaders and to escape the consequences of their mutinous actions.

The Admiralty, however, it should be stated, does not admit that the Smeetilvy has gone on such an errand, though the officials say frankly that the Kniaz Potemkine must in law be regarded as a pirate.

As much as Russia, as a matter of principle, would like to see the provi-sions of the treaty of Paris, closing the Dardanelles, abrogated, the Foreign Of-fice would oppose the passage of foreign warships as a temporary, expedient, declaring the occasion did not warrant such a measure.

Odessa, July 4.—Estigates of the number killed during the fires and rlot-ing of last week run as high as 6,000. A far greater number were shot down, but many of the bodies were inciner-

The military commandant to day appointed Gen. Karakozoff, commander of the Lubna Dragoons, to the post of Governor-General of Odessa. Karakooff later summoned the editors of the Odessa newspapers and blamed them for their conduct during the troubles. The Governor-General ordered the editors not to make the slightest reference to the present outbreak nor, to the

The warship's officers returned from Nikolaieff, went on board and picked out the ringleaders of the mutiny and several of their followers, all of whom were sent ashore. A torpedo boat destroyer and a guhboat arrived here during the night, bringing Rear-Admiral Choukin, commander of the Black Sea fleet. The city is quiet. Many strikers have returned to work.

British Ship is Searched.

The torpedo boat destroyer, upon her arrival here, fired a blank shot across the bow of the British steamer Cranley, lying off Fontana, for the purpose of taking off British subjects if necessary. The destroyer signalled the Cranley to accompany her inside the harbor. The Cranley complied, the destroyer in the meanwhile keeping her guns trained on the steamer. The British Consul-General last evening released the five vessels which had been held in readiness to remove the British subjects. The Consul-General considers that all danger has passed. The Cranley incident is ended. The officials, in the presence of revolutionists, and the Russian officials apologized to the Consul-General.

Peasant disturbances in the neighborhood of Odessa are giving rise to much apprehension. The peasants are forcibly occupying lands and seizing live stock. Troops have been sent to suppress the disorders.

No Reason to Interfere.

London, July 4.—In the House of Commons yesterday afternoon, Earl Percy, the Foreign Under-Secretary, replying to a suggestion that friendly representations should be made to Rus-

Cronstadt, July 4.—The crew of the Russian crulser Minine refused to put to sea yesterday with the other vessels of the active squadron, alleging that the age-and bad conditions of the Minine prevented her participation in gun practice and manoeuvring.
