Mrs. Evans, wife of Rev. Dr. Evans, of London, received news on Saturday of a zerious accident to her father, Mr. Gunn, who resides some distance west of St. Thomas. The old gentleman was on a visit to London on Tuesday last, and on returning home went out into his garden for the purpose of trimming berry bushes. While thus engaged he called his little gandson to his assistance to cut a bundle of bushes. To accomplish this the boy took hold of a sharp hatchet, his grandfather meanwhile being on his knees and holding the bushes. The result was the sharp instrument came down with all the force the child was capable of on Mr. Gunn's head, inflicting a frightful wound. The old gentleman lies in a precarious condition, his life being despaired of.

ESSEX.

At the Sandwich Assizes the case of Wood'vs. Arnold was an action for breach of promise of marriage. The plaintiff is the daughter of a respectable and well-to-do farmer in the township of Maidstone. The defendant is the son of Henry Arnold, the well known stock raiser of the same township. The plaintiff was the only witness called except the defendant's neighbors, who testified as to his means. The engagement was admitted, but defendant claimed there had been a mutual breaking off of the engagement and the ring and presents were given up. The jury, after deliberating for half an hour, gave a verdict of $1,000 for plaintiff.

The man who works for God always gets his pay in advance. They that are in the flesh (unconverted) cannot please God. The surest way to win the love of the people is to become lovable.

The man who has Christ has everything that God's law requires of him.

The man who tears one leaf out of the Bible will soon disbelieve it all. A child should be taught the manly art of patience, often more difficult to practice than that of pugilism.—[Marion Hariand.

If need be, that a frailer one may wear
A mantle to protect it from the storm:
To bear the frost-king's breath so one be warm:
To crush the tears it would be sweet to shed
And smile so others may have joy instead.
