Moravpiece of oil property about a quarter of a mile east of this place, for the purpose of developing the oil industry. The indications of oil were visible through the cations of oil were visible through the surface of the earth in different places and, after an expert from Toronto had pronounced it a bonanza for investors, it was not long before a joint stock com-pany was formed, with a good working apital, and a charter, under the name of the Harrietsville Oil Company. Then the world began to look decidedly bright.

WANTED—PARTNER WITH SMALL capital, to take half interest and manage carriage and automobile store. Z, According age carriage and automobile store. A few thousands dollars were needed for thy. oper machinery to release the imprisoned oil, that seemed almost ready to ooze out of the ground naturally of itself. This demand being soon met, an engine and all the requirements for drilling were the shareholders took on a still brighter countenance. One of the investors who took a leading part in advancing the progress of the company was Mr. Thomas Pearson, of Nilestown. One of the drawbacks at the very outset was the employment of men totally unacquainted with this kind of work, to do the drilling and take charge of the machinery. Keeping His Place Warm. This story is told of a successful gen eral, who was far from being a brilliant scholar at school. After he became famous he one day dropped into the old school, to pay a visit to the scene of his former woes. The teacher was anxious to make a good impression on the general and put the pupils through their lessons so as to show them to the best advantage. After a while the general said: "But which is the dunce? You have one, sure-
