COFFEE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—Coffee—Futures opened steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 5 points, and eased off slightly during the day under local realizing and in sympathy with the closing decline of one-quarter franc at Havre. There was no fresh feature in the general news to weaker confidence in prices, but the market found little support, owing possibly to the close approach of the holidays, and while the final tone was steady, prices were 5 to 19 points net lower. Sales for the day were reported of 25,750 bags, including January at $6.75; March, $6.55; May, $6.95; July, $7.05; September, $7.05; May, $7.05; May, $7.05; September, $7.05; May, $7.05; September, $7.05; May, $7.05

REGINALD HUDSON WAS VERY HIGHLY HONORED

Choir Leader and Organist of the Hyatt Avenue Church Was Given Handsome

Present.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heard, Lovett street, was the scene of a very enjoyable social function and choir practice on Wednesday evening. The occasion brought the members of Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church choir and their organist and choir leader, Mr. Reginald Hudson, together for the last practice in the capacity of choir and organist.

After having a good practice in the preparation of the Christmas music, the evening was spent in music and games. During the social side of the evening, Mr. Hudson was called forward, and a well and suitably worded address was read by Mr. Heard, after which the presentation of a handsome mahogany music cabinet and writing desk was made by Miss Mabel Pink and Miss Ida Wyatt, members of the

Mr. Hudson made a very feeling and suitable reply, thanking the friends and choir members for their beautiful and valuable gift, and for their untiring support during his term of four

Mr. Hudson said he had two source to thank for his success in choir work; first, the sacrifice and true devotion of choir members, and also a praying mother, and if any person in the social gathering could tell anything in church work that stood out for greater results for good than praying Christian mothers, he would be glad

Mr. Hudson during his term at Hyatt Avenue Church, has not only proven himself a leader in the music world, but has a powerful influence through out the church, and has discharged his duties faithfully and well. The evening's social gathering was brought to a close by singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," after which a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Heard and the members of their home for their kind and profitable evening.
