

HOW THE STANDARD HELPED ROOSEVELT

John D. Archbold Says Company Contributed $125,000 to Fund.

THOUGHT COLONEL KNEW

Does Not Know Whether Other Members of the Company Made Personal Contribution.

[Canadian Press.] Washington, Aug. 23.—John D. Archbold, pictured as the public as political manager and directing genius of Standard Oil, today took the witness stand before the Senate committee investigating campaign funds, to tell his version of contributions to the campaign of 1904, now the subject of dispute between Senator Penrose and former President Roosevelt.

Mr. Archbold was sworn and Senator Clapp asked him what contribution the Standard Oil Company had made to the campaign of 1904.

"We made two contributions to the Republican campaign in 1904, one to Cornelius N. Bliss, of $100,000, and the other to Senator Penrose of $25,000," replied Mr. Archbold.

"Do you know when the contributions of $100,000 to the Republican campaign was made?" asked Senator Clapp.

"I have not the date in mind," said Mr. Archbold, "nor have I had time to thoroughly search with reference to it. My best recollection is that it was some time in September, 1904, I think about the middle of September."

Given in Cash.

"By check?" asked Senator Clapp.

"My recollection is that it was given to Mr. Bliss in cash."

"Who was present?"

"To the best of my recollection I was alone, and at my office."

"Have you any written data with which to fix a date?"

"Mr. Bliss gave me a receipt, but in such investigation as I have been able to make before I hastened here, I have not been able to find it."

"Had you any previous talk with Mr. Bliss as to this matter before you made this contribution?" asked Senator Clapp.

"Yes, some time before, either at my office or that of H. H. Rogers," answered Mr. Archbold.

"Did you have a talk about politics and contributions and the board of directors?"

"Was the $25,000 contribution to Senator Penrose in the form of a check?"

"I cannot say. My letter-books show no record of any such letter as has been mentioned."

(Continued on Page Ten.)

SPECIFICATIONS DO NOT SUIT ENGINEER

Mr. Wright Asks Firm To Be More Explicit Regarding Incinerator.

The contracts for the incinerator have not been let yet, owing to the fact that City Engineer Wright has not yet signed the specifications. He is in correspondence with Laurie & Lamb, Montreal, who were awarded the contract, and an explanation will be received shortly regarding disputed points.

"I have read the specifications over, and I have refused to attach my name to them," said Mr. Wright. "To my mind, the specifications do not convey any meaning whatever, and I have asked for information on them. I have shown them to certain contractors, and they could make no more out of them than I did. When the specifications read according to my ideas, they will be signed by me."

As a result no work has been done on the building, it is to be completed by October, but at the present rate of progress it will not be ready for a long time after that date.

TILSONBURG MAN IS BEST AT TRAPS

Montreal, Aug. 23.—The amateur trap shooting championship of Canada was won by George Vance, of Tilsonburg, Ont., in the trap shooting contest held at Connaught Park this morning, the victor making score of 49 out of 50.

F. H. BREWSTER BUYS BEN HOLE'S RESIDENCE

Latter Will Take Up His Home in the West.

Mr. F. H. Brewster has purchased the home of Mr. E. V. Hole, at the corner of Colborne street and Dufferin avenue. Possession will be given before Oct. 1. The consideration was not made public.

Mr. Hole is at present in the west, and will move his family there this fall, locating in Saskatchewan.

ALLEN SWANWICK DEAD

Demise of Well-Known East Londoner After Brief Illness.

Mr. Allen Swanwick, of 207 Rectory street, died Thursday night at his residence after a few days' illness. His indisposition was first considered serious on Sunday, and since that time disease, Roscommon, Ireland, and after Mr. Swanwick was born in Parades, Roscommon, Ireland, and after coming to Canada located in North Oxford County. Thirty-two years ago he removed to this city and had since resided here. He was a Conservative, an Orangeman, and a member of the Church of England. Besides his wife he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Donald McDonald, of London Junction, and two sons, John and Albert, both of this city.

The funeral is to be held on Sunday to Woodland Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Appleby, of St. Matthew's Anglican Church, will conduct the service.

IMPRESSIVE SCENES MARK THE MOURNING FOR GEN. BOOTH

Body Garbed In Red Jersey of the Army Lies in State, While Many Thousands, From the Highest in the Land to the Poorest He Had Helped, Pay Last Tributes.

[Canadian Press.] London, Aug. 23.—The body of the late General William Booth lay in state today, and the occasion produced such a display of sincere respect from all classes as has probably never been exceeded.

All nations and all creeds were represented among the many thousands of people who paid their last tribute to the great evangelist.

Even before dawn, despite a pelting cold rain, thousands were waiting in front of Congress Hall, Clapton, in the northeast of London, where the body had been conveyed from the late general's private residence. Before the general public was admitted, however, a large number of personal friends, public officials and high officers of the Salvation Army came to pay their last respects.

Then from 10 o'clock onward a constant stream of humanity, unchecked throughout the day filed in reverent silence past the catafalque of the dead general. Poorly clad women had tramped miles through the driving downpour to obtain a last sight of the man who had brought some sunshine into their lives. Shoulder to shoulder with them were fashionably dressed women, who desired to pay their homage to the great dead Christian leader and uplifter.

Army Banner Flying.

The usual signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

The signs of mourning were not visible. Flying over the great hall at the top of a tall flagpole was the Salvation Army banner with "Blood and Fire" upon it. Draped above the doorway was a Union Jack and a German flag, supported each side by the Stars and Stripes of the United States.

FRENCH NEWSPAPER HOT AFTER HUGHES

Says Transfer of Colonel Roy to Vancouver Is Flagrant Injustice.

[Canadian Press.] Montreal Aug. 23.—Le Canada, the French morning newspaper, declares that French-Canadians are being discriminated against in the transfer of Col. Alexandre Roy from the command of the Fourth (Montreal) Division, to Vancouver.

"Astounded at this sudden change, we have made certain inquiries, and from what we have learned we believe that we are face to face with another case of flagrant injustice at the hands of the Minister of Militia and Defence at Ottawa," says Le Canada.

"This transfer offers no appreciable advantage, and appears to us to be a new form of ridicule, of which our compatriots are to be victims of those at Ottawa."

"We shall continue to protest against a change of this kind, and mean nothing and which can only be a source of inconvenience to him upon whom it is imposed."

COUNCIL WILL REGULATE MOTORCYCLES IN LONDON

Legislation to This End Will Likely Be Enacted Shortly.

Legislation dealing with motorcycles will probably be taken up by the city council at its next meeting. Judging from the present temper of the aldermen, drastic steps will be taken to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

The noise from the machines is unbearable, he says, and the result is that the city is being made a nuisance to its residents. The council will have to take steps to prevent the nuisance caused by these machines. Ald. Robinson is taking the question up, and will make a report to the council on the subject.

THREE-CORNERED POLLING GOES TO LIBERAL PARTY

Asquith Government Has No Trouble Retaining East Carmarthenshire.

[Canadian Press.] Carmarthen, Wales, Aug. 23.—The Liberals easily retained the parliamentary seat for Carmarthenshire at the by-election, whose result was announced today.

The Rev. Townyn Jones, the Liberal candidate, polled 6,082 votes, against the 3,354 secured by the Unionist, Merwyn L. Peel, and the 1,089 of the Labor candidate, Dr. J. W. Williams.

At the last election the Liberals polled 5,825, the Unionist 2,316, and the Laborite 1,176.

MISSING PURSE WITH $1,000 FOUND ON MAN ARRESTED

Charles Butler Held in Connection With Nerve Theft of a Big Sum From Farmer Near Melrose—Clever Work of the County Police.

Charles Butler, a young man who has been employed as a farm laborer by Robert Vennor, who lives between Melrose and Hyde Park, was arrested by Constable Northgraves on Wednesday morning, while all the family were doing the chores. It was not discovered until breakfast time, when Butler failed to show up. A search was made, and when it was discovered that the money was missing, Constable Heath, of Hyde Park, was at once communicated with. He telephoned a description of Butler to London, and in a short time Constable Northgraves, who was watching, saw his man walking down Walnut street. He at once arrested him, and when searched the purse and money were found on Butler. He was arraigned before Squire Chittick and remanded for a week.

Butler says his home is in Florida, and that he came to this district with the Ringling circus. He went up to camp at Goderich for a while, and then came back and hired with Mr. Vennor. It is believed that he walked into London after taking the purse.

Trail of Graft Leads to THE POLICE HEADQUARTERS

Prominent Civilian Now Implicated in New York Looting.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Aug. 23.—Tracing the devious trail of graft, the state's attorney believes today that it leads directly to police headquarters. The blackmail phase of the Kosenthal matter is now being probed by District Attorney Whitman, who has let it become known that he had obtained evidence implicating a police inspector and a civilian with an office at headquarters, in grafting.

The state's attorney has been able to note a series of interesting coincidences from four bank accounts and safe deposit boxes belonging to the inspector and the civilian whose names are being inquired into. Heavy withdrawals of funds by the inspector were invariably followed on the same day by a visit of the civilian to his safe deposit box. There were many of these coincidental visits. The state's attorney says he believes that the inspector was "splitting" with the civilian.

While Mr. Whitman will not commit himself, it is known that he expects an offer of a complete confession from a man high in police circles, whose story will lay bare the graft "stem to its roots, and whose narrative will involve many others who have profited by blackmail on gambling and disorderly houses.

District Attorney Whitman admits that no matter what exposition is made, it will be impossible to take away the thousands of dollars of blackmail from the grafters, as it can never be proved that the money in their possession at the time of the indictment was the same money which they extorted from the victims of the system.

G. T. R. MEN HAULED INTO COURT; UNLOADED COAL ON SUNDAY

Officials Point Out That They Must Work Night and Day to Keep Up Supply.

Six Italians employed by the Grand Trunk Railway Company in unloading coal in the East London yards on Sunday last were charged with committing a breach of the Lord's Day act in police court this morning, but the matter was adjourned in order to permit the company to defend the men.

The charge was laid by the police department. According to Grand Trunk officials the company has been in bad shape for coal during the trouble at the mines, and now that some is being supplied it has been found necessary to work night and day unloading the cars in order to have them returned to the mines without an instant's delay. It is alleged that the work was abominably necessary.

Mr. Primo, Peter Jento, M. Ferno, Jose Renco, Jos. Grenhill and Brentho Navello were the defendants. The evidence is to be heard on Aug. 28, when the company will supply counsel to defend the men.

BAWDEN TROPHY WON BY M'DONNELL'S HENSALL RINK