

PROVINCIAL W. M. S. AT ST. ANDREW'S

Outstanding Speakers Here Next Week—Mission Band Work To Be Featured.

Once again London is to be visited by many outsiders. Outstanding in the events of next week will be the eleventh annual meeting of the Ontario provincial W. M. S. of the Presbyterian church in Canada, which is to be held in St. Andrew's church, this city on May 5, 6 and 7.

At this time Miss Caroline MacDonald will be in the city, and will address the session on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and in the evening Dr. O. R. Ayson, principal of the Chosen Christian college and of the Chosen college, Seoul, Korea, will be the special speaker, giving his address at 8 o'clock, in the interests of foreign missions. Mrs. Charles Clark of Toronto, Indian secretary of the general executive, will also speak on Wednesday afternoon, and on Thursday afternoon Miss Evelyn Mitchell, travelling secretary of the W. M. S. for Canada, will speak.

Detailed Program.

The program in detail follows: Tuesday, May 5, 2 p.m.—Invocation. Rev. D. C. MacGregor, D.D.; Scripture reading, Mrs. D. C. MacGregor; welcome address, Mrs. J. M. McEvoy, president of the London presbytery; minutes, Miss Mary Russell, of Toronto; appointment of resolution, nominating and business scrutineers, committee; solo, Miss Gladys McEvoy; president's address, Mrs. J. D. Walker, of Toronto; provincial reports, Miss M. Russell, recording secretary; Mrs. Fred H. Rose, corresponding secretary; Mrs. James Lister, treasurer, and Mrs. F. Rae, finance secretary; dedication prayer, Mrs. McQuestion of Hamilton; continuation of provincial reports.

Tuesday, May 5, 8 p.m.—Scripture reading, Mrs. J. M. McEvoy, of Toronto; organ number, C. E. Wheeler, F.C.C.O.; Y. W. A. and C. G. I. T. reports and conferences, Miss Ida Malcolmson of Hamilton, and Mrs. J. D. Detwiler of London.

Wednesday, May 6, 9:30 a.m.—Scripture reading, Mrs. R. Harkness, president of the Malindan presbytery; presidential reports; communion service, conducted by Rev. D. C. MacGregor, D.D.

Mission Band Work.

Wednesday afternoon will be featured by the mission band reports on the work being done. For those interested in teaching the children of the work being done in foreign lands this session will be particularly interesting. The detail of the balance of the program includes:

Wednesday, May 6, 2 p.m.—Presbytery report continued; address, "Our Indian Work," Mrs. C. Clark of Toronto, Indian secretary of the general executive; solo, Miss Ulan Kennedy; address, Mrs. Caroline MacDonald, of Tokyo, Japan; mission band report, Miss A. Rennie of New Hamburg; conference and discussion hour; review of mission bands.

Wednesday, May 6, 8 p.m.—Music by St. Andrew's choir, London, directed by C. E. Wheeler, F.C.C.O.; opening exercises, Rev. D. C. MacGregor, D.D.; anthem, with E. A. Webster; Miss Ulan Kennedy as soloist; organ, "Intermezzo," C. E. Wheeler; solo, Mrs. Robert Durst; address, Dr. O. R. Ayson, president of Chosen Christian college, Seoul, Korea.

tian college and Severance medical college, Seoul, Korea. Thursday, May 7, 9:30 a.m.—Devotional exercises, Mrs. J. A. Loch, of Hamilton; resume of the year's work, Mrs. Fred H. Rose, corresponding secretary of Toronto; business and discussions on finance, resolutions, general interests and new business; report from the nominating committee, Mrs. Smyth, convener; election of officers; installation of officers; prayer for the new board, Mrs. J. MacGillivray, president of the W. M. S. in the western division, Canada.

Thursday, May 7, 2 p.m.—Organist, Ewart George; Scripture readings, Mrs. E. E. Kitchen of St. George, honorary vice-president; address, "Memories of the Washington Conference," Misses E. Mitchell, travelling secretary, of Toronto; solo, Mrs. Robert Durst; closing words, Mrs. James Hamilton, of Goderich, vice-president; reports on registration, railways and resolutions; closing prayer, Mrs. Hugh McKenzie, of Toronto, secretary for Korea.

ANNUAL OF W. A. TO CONVEENE HERE

Mrs. Gilbert Farrabee, Dominion President, Expected To Address Girls' Conference.

Toward the end of May the annual meeting of the Huron diocesan women's auxiliary will take place in Bishop Cronyn hall, this city. Added interest of this conference is the fact that Mrs. Gilbert Farrabee, the newly-elected dominion president, of Montreal, will likely be present.

The session will be held on May 26, 27 and 28, and a girls' conference in St. George's church will feature the period of meeting. The program, which will be issued shortly, is in part as follows:

Tuesday, May 26.

10 a.m.—Meeting of board of management, Cronyn hall.

11 a.m.—Celebration of holy communion in St. Paul's Cathedral. Sermon, the Lord Bishop of Huron; presentation of thankoffering, Cronyn hall; address of welcome, Bishop Williams; presidential address, Mrs. Frank Anderson; address, Rev. W. J. H. Pether, Wyoming.

4:30 p.m.—Department conferences.

8 p.m.—Reception at Bishopstowe.

Wednesday, May 27.

Morning prayer, St. Paul's Cathedral.

Mid-day prayer and quiet hour, Rev. Canon J. W. J. Andrew, St. Thomas.

Afternoon session: officers' reports; address, dominion president, Mrs. Gilbert Farrabee; address, Mrs. C. Clark of Toronto, Indian secretary of the general executive; solo, Miss Ulan Kennedy; address, Mrs. Caroline MacDonald, of Tokyo, Japan; mission band report, Miss A. Rennie of New Hamburg; conference and discussion hour; review of mission bands.

Thursday, May 28.

Morning prayer, St. Paul's Cathedral.

Mid-day prayer and quiet hour, the Dean of Huron.

ELECTED HALIFAX MAYOR.

Canadian Press Despatch. Halifax, April 30.—Alderman J. B. Kenny, K.C., was elected mayor of Halifax yesterday by a majority of 18 votes over his opponent, Ald. B. W. Russell, K.C.

WOMEN and THE HOME

CHAPEAUX FOR EARLY SUMMER.

Above are shown three smart millinery creations for early summer wear. At the left is shown a rather severe pressed beaver, worn by Betty Blythe, screen star. They are representative of the mode.

At the right is a simple black milan straw, with feathered "coque" decoration.

Social and Personal

Miss Virginia Dyer has returned home after spending the past few weeks in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan of Queen's avenue spent the week-end with relatives in Wincham.

Mrs. R. O'Neill and son Bruce, of Richmond street south, are spending a few days in Detroit.

Mrs. Clarence Foreman of Waterloo has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Alex. Harvey.

Douglas Hughes of this city is paying a visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hughes, in Burckessville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rountree of 5 Stanley street have returned to the city after spending a pleasant winter in Florida.

Miss Adeline Mooney of Ripley, who is a pupil of Mr. Charles E. Percy, her son, Dr. Kenneth Johnston, who has just returned to the city from New York. Covers were laid for ten at a table effectively arranged with pink carnations, mauve sweet peas, and pink flowers. The guests, all former college mates of Dr. Johnston, included Dr. Vaud, Dr. Annett, Dr. Murray Simpson, Dr. Roy Kinswood, Dr. Roland Reynolds, Dr. S. G. Henry, Dr. Mel. Platt, Dr. Peever and Dr. R. A. Johnston.

Mrs. E. H. Johnston, Colborne street, recently entertained at an enjoyable arranged men's dinner for her son, Dr. Kenneth Johnston, who has just returned to the city from New York. Covers were laid for ten at a table effectively arranged with pink carnations, mauve sweet peas, and pink flowers. The guests, all former college mates of Dr. Johnston, included Dr. Vaud, Dr. Annett, Dr. Murray Simpson, Dr. Roy Kinswood, Dr. Roland Reynolds, Dr. S. G. Henry, Dr. Mel. Platt, Dr. Peever and Dr. R. A. Johnston.

Mrs. Marjorie Corbett Ashby of England, president of the international women's suffrage alliance, is to visit Canada about the middle of May.

Mrs. G. H. Stevenson is entertaining the Campbell Chapter, I. O. O. E., for their regular meeting on the afternoon of May 7, at her home at the Ontario Hospital.

Rev. Dr. D. C. MacGregor and Mrs. MacGregor, who are visiting on June 17 for Scotland and Wales, expect to visit the holy land before returning to Canada in August.

Miss Isabel Tanton entertained the members of the Social Service club at her home on Waterloo street for their meeting this week. The annual meeting takes place in May.

By kind permission of Lieut.-Col. E. Seely-Smith, the band of the Royal Canadian regiment is giving a concert this evening at 8:30 o'clock in Warner hall, Cronyn Memorial church.

Miss Beatrice Taylor will represent the Western Ontario branch of the Canadian authors' association at the annual meeting of that body to be held in Winnipeg the latter part of June.

Miss Margaret Tilley of St. John, N. B., who was a guest with her aunt, Mrs. J. G. Boucher, during the winter, has lately been visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Crury, in Ottawa, and has now returned to her home in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. V. K. Greer are leaving today by motor to take up their residence at their new home at 41 Lascelles avenue, Toronto. They will be accompanied by their children, Master Kenneth and Miss Gertrude Greer.

Mr. F. M. Butler, of this city, superintendent of the London division of the C. P. R., is leaving shortly for his holidays, which will include a trip to the west and later a trip on the Empress of France on her round-America tour.

Mrs. E. W. McFarland of Hill street, is the general convener of the luncheons which the W. A.'s of the city are giving for the delegates coming to the Huron diocesan W. A. annual convention during the session at Cronyn hall late in May.

Miss Mae O'Neill of Detroit, Michigan, accompanied by Miss Pauline Zimmerman and Mr. Leo Valven, arrived in Toronto on "Sunny-Side Farms" last week-end, where they were guests with Miss O'Neill's mother, Mrs. Arthur P. O'Neill, near Denfield, Ontario.

Miss Grace Blackburn, Talbot street, is entertaining the members of the Western Ontario authors' association at her home tomorrow night to give them an opportunity to meet E. J. Pratt, Canadian poet, who will be in the city addressing a gathering of the students of the South London collegiate institute.

Miss Jennie Fidler leaves the middle of May to spend the summer months with her brother, Dr. G. Fidler, district representative for the agricultural department, in Robarts, Sask. Miss Fidler expects to attend the sessions of the Canadian authors' association to be held in Winnipeg the latter part of June.

The annual meeting of the Fort-nightly club was held recently at the Highgate Golf club, with an enjoyable evening was spent in cards and dancing. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. James, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Nicholls, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mann, and Mrs. C. H. Clinger. Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brantson and Mr. and Mrs. N. Ripley.

Miss Hazel McDonald was the charming hostess at a tea given on Tuesday at the Blue Dragon tea room in honor of Miss Alice Green, who sails shortly for England. From a table daintily centered with a large bowl of buttercups, Miss Lena F. Kerr presided over the tea.

After which Miss Patricia Fletcher presented Miss Green with a lovely under-arm bag. The guests included the Misses Ethel Adams, Pauline Grimshaw, Olive Cossey, Emma Pearson and Edna Wardie.

The final social of the season of St. Patrick's parish was held last night in the parish hall. There was a splendid turnout of guests, and about 25 tables of euchre were in play. The prize winners were Miss P. Latella and Mr. J. J. Fitzsimmons, who won the first prizes, and the second awards went to Mrs. Quigley and Mrs. Peter Madden.

A dainty lunch was served following the games, after which dancing was enjoyed. Excellent dance music was provided by the Night Hawk's orchestra.

Mrs. E. H. Johnston, Colborne street, recently entertained at an enjoyable arranged men's dinner for her son, Dr. Kenneth Johnston, who has just returned to the city from New York. Covers were laid for ten at a table effectively arranged with pink carnations, mauve sweet peas, and pink flowers. The guests, all former college mates of Dr. Johnston, included Dr. Vaud, Dr. Annett, Dr. Murray Simpson, Dr. Roy Kinswood, Dr. Roland Reynolds, Dr. S. G. Henry, Dr. Mel. Platt, Dr. Peever and Dr. R. A. Johnston.

Mrs. James Hair, Dundas street, entertained the members of the Priate of London Circle at her home this week, when an evening of euchre was greatly enjoyed. The first prizes were won by Mr. O. Emigh and Miss M. Hawley, with Mr. H. Cassin and Mrs. George Mellon winning the second prizes. The contestations were awarded to Mr. T. Hair and Miss Land. Fourteen tables were in play, and following the games a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

During the evening Mr. Harry Carter sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. R. Brown, and Miss Vera Hair made an efficient door attendant.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Berry, Wilton Grove, when they celebrated the 20th anniversary of their wedding. Fifty guests came to honor the bride and groom, and nearly a quarter of a century. The house was prettily decorated with yellow streamers and golden daffodils, and on display were many lovely gifts received by the host and hostess.

So Jimmy continued to amble along in the rut at his leisure.

first he couldn't imagine what that thing was making such an awful noise for, but as it drew nearer and began to move more slowly, he understood. That monster was trying to frighten him out of the road.

"Humph!" muttered Jimmy to himself. "If he thinks he can scare me by noise he has another thing coming to him. If he isn't afraid of me, what is he trying to scare me for? What is he slowing up for? He is just like all the rest of them—afraid of me. I've a perfect right on this road. I'm not taking up much of it. If that critter wants to pass me by, let him go around me."

So Jimmy continued to amble along in the rut at his leisure. You know he never hurries. Every few steps he would pause and look behind to wonder at that great creature with the great flaming eyes. And behind Jimmy an automobile crawled along honking and honking for Jimmy to get out of the way. At last the road widened over so little, and the driver of the automobile pulled out, and as he afterward said, "with his heart in his mouth," passed Jimmy. Jimmy stood along with more than a glance, attending strictly to his own business.

When the car had passed the driver sighed. It was a sigh of relief. As for Jimmy Skunk, he turned up his nose. "What an awful smell!" he exclaimed. (Copyright, 1925, by T. W. Burgess.)

The next story: "Jimmy Stops a Car."

Jimmy Skunk was a very good father and liked to walk out with his family and show the youngsters where good things were to be found. But he still liked to slip off by himself once in a while. You see, he had been by himself so long that he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

He didn't consider it adventuring. Jimmy is such an independent little chap, so untrammelled, that it is rarely that he has a real adventure. You know, everyone steps aside for him. It is only when food is scarce and Hooty the Great Horned Owl is very hungry, so hungry that he cares nothing for Jimmy's little bag of scent, that Jimmy feels that necessity for watching out. It is then that sometimes he knows what real adventure is.

But one night Jimmy had a new and very real adventure. He had slipped away by himself early in the evening, and to make sure that he would be by himself the rest of the night he had gone farther than usual. He had gone too far from the lair of his child, and he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

He didn't consider it adventuring. Jimmy is such an independent little chap, so untrammelled, that it is rarely that he has a real adventure. You know, everyone steps aside for him. It is only when food is scarce and Hooty the Great Horned Owl is very hungry, so hungry that he cares nothing for Jimmy's little bag of scent, that Jimmy feels that necessity for watching out. It is then that sometimes he knows what real adventure is.

But one night Jimmy had a new and very real adventure. He had slipped away by himself early in the evening, and to make sure that he would be by himself the rest of the night he had gone farther than usual. He had gone too far from the lair of his child, and he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

He didn't consider it adventuring. Jimmy is such an independent little chap, so untrammelled, that it is rarely that he has a real adventure. You know, everyone steps aside for him. It is only when food is scarce and Hooty the Great Horned Owl is very hungry, so hungry that he cares nothing for Jimmy's little bag of scent, that Jimmy feels that necessity for watching out. It is then that sometimes he knows what real adventure is.

But one night Jimmy had a new and very real adventure. He had slipped away by himself early in the evening, and to make sure that he would be by himself the rest of the night he had gone farther than usual. He had gone too far from the lair of his child, and he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

He didn't consider it adventuring. Jimmy is such an independent little chap, so untrammelled, that it is rarely that he has a real adventure. You know, everyone steps aside for him. It is only when food is scarce and Hooty the Great Horned Owl is very hungry, so hungry that he cares nothing for Jimmy's little bag of scent, that Jimmy feels that necessity for watching out. It is then that sometimes he knows what real adventure is.

But one night Jimmy had a new and very real adventure. He had slipped away by himself early in the evening, and to make sure that he would be by himself the rest of the night he had gone farther than usual. He had gone too far from the lair of his child, and he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

He didn't consider it adventuring. Jimmy is such an independent little chap, so untrammelled, that it is rarely that he has a real adventure. You know, everyone steps aside for him. It is only when food is scarce and Hooty the Great Horned Owl is very hungry, so hungry that he cares nothing for Jimmy's little bag of scent, that Jimmy feels that necessity for watching out. It is then that sometimes he knows what real adventure is.

But one night Jimmy had a new and very real adventure. He had slipped away by himself early in the evening, and to make sure that he would be by himself the rest of the night he had gone farther than usual. He had gone too far from the lair of his child, and he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

He didn't consider it adventuring. Jimmy is such an independent little chap, so untrammelled, that it is rarely that he has a real adventure. You know, everyone steps aside for him. It is only when food is scarce and Hooty the Great Horned Owl is very hungry, so hungry that he cares nothing for Jimmy's little bag of scent, that Jimmy feels that necessity for watching out. It is then that sometimes he knows what real adventure is.

But one night Jimmy had a new and very real adventure. He had slipped away by himself early in the evening, and to make sure that he would be by himself the rest of the night he had gone farther than usual. He had gone too far from the lair of his child, and he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

He didn't consider it adventuring. Jimmy is such an independent little chap, so untrammelled, that it is rarely that he has a real adventure. You know, everyone steps aside for him. It is only when food is scarce and Hooty the Great Horned Owl is very hungry, so hungry that he cares nothing for Jimmy's little bag of scent, that Jimmy feels that necessity for watching out. It is then that sometimes he knows what real adventure is.

But one night Jimmy had a new and very real adventure. He had slipped away by himself early in the evening, and to make sure that he would be by himself the rest of the night he had gone farther than usual. He had gone too far from the lair of his child, and he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

He didn't consider it adventuring. Jimmy is such an independent little chap, so untrammelled, that it is rarely that he has a real adventure. You know, everyone steps aside for him. It is only when food is scarce and Hooty the Great Horned Owl is very hungry, so hungry that he cares nothing for Jimmy's little bag of scent, that Jimmy feels that necessity for watching out. It is then that sometimes he knows what real adventure is.

But one night Jimmy had a new and very real adventure. He had slipped away by himself early in the evening, and to make sure that he would be by himself the rest of the night he had gone farther than usual. He had gone too far from the lair of his child, and he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

He didn't consider it adventuring. Jimmy is such an independent little chap, so untrammelled, that it is rarely that he has a real adventure. You know, everyone steps aside for him. It is only when food is scarce and Hooty the Great Horned Owl is very hungry, so hungry that he cares nothing for Jimmy's little bag of scent, that Jimmy feels that necessity for watching out. It is then that sometimes he knows what real adventure is.

But one night Jimmy had a new and very real adventure. He had slipped away by himself early in the evening, and to make sure that he would be by himself the rest of the night he had gone farther than usual. He had gone too far from the lair of his child, and he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

He didn't consider it adventuring. Jimmy is such an independent little chap, so untrammelled, that it is rarely that he has a real adventure. You know, everyone steps aside for him. It is only when food is scarce and Hooty the Great Horned Owl is very hungry, so hungry that he cares nothing for Jimmy's little bag of scent, that Jimmy feels that necessity for watching out. It is then that sometimes he knows what real adventure is.

But one night Jimmy had a new and very real adventure. He had slipped away by himself early in the evening, and to make sure that he would be by himself the rest of the night he had gone farther than usual. He had gone too far from the lair of his child, and he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

He didn't consider it adventuring. Jimmy is such an independent little chap, so untrammelled, that it is rarely that he has a real adventure. You know, everyone steps aside for him. It is only when food is scarce and Hooty the Great Horned Owl is very hungry, so hungry that he cares nothing for Jimmy's little bag of scent, that Jimmy feels that necessity for watching out. It is then that sometimes he knows what real adventure is.

But one night Jimmy had a new and very real adventure. He had slipped away by himself early in the evening, and to make sure that he would be by himself the rest of the night he had gone farther than usual. He had gone too far from the lair of his child, and he had grown rather independent. The family was all right, but once in a while a fellow does like to be by himself. Then there is nothing to worry about. So once in a while Jimmy would leave the family and go off adventuring by himself.

300 TO FEATURE IN "Y" EXHIBITION

Brilliant Dance Revue Will Be Held in the Arena Tomorrow.

The Arena will present a brilliant spectacle tomorrow night, when the annual Y. W. C. A. physical exhibition will be presented there under the direction of Miss Edith Wynne-Pryce. The annual Y. W. C. A. exhibition has now become an institution in London, and each year its audiences increase. For the first two years the exhibition was held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

The exhibition will be held at the armories, and the crowds were turned away. The building of the Arena, however, made possible new quarters for the exhibition, which will be better than ever this year.

Three hundreds will take part in the exhibition.

the difficult program of dances and physical drills. A special attraction will be a solo dance, a Brahms' Hungarian Rhapsody, by Mrs. Eric Reid. Miss Pryce, director of the exhibition, has been requested to dance again "Vive la France," to the strains of the Marseillaise played by a large orchestra. Another pretty solo dance will be a Pizicato polka from the "Sylvia Ballet," danced by little Miss Helen Wilkie, while "Habanera," a Spanish number, and an exhibition of the tango will be given by Miss Florence Foot, Miss Nonie Nash, Miss Marjory Partridge and Miss Clare Jones.

The costumes for the dance numbers are colorful and pretty, while the physical drills will be executed in smart white middie and "gym" bloomers. The technique of dancing will be illustrated by the massed dancing classes, all appearing in lovely Grecian costumes of pink shaded into rose.

A spectacular dance of the evening will be a Schubert waltz by twenty dancers, wearing shimmering Grecian robes in pale pink and blue. A number of very tiny tots will take part in the children's numbers, which include "First Footsteps" and a "Mary Lamb" dance. Such