DEDICATION OF OAK BAY CHURCH

Bishop Perrin Delivers Impressive Valedictory Sermon-Ceremony at St. Mary's Attracts Large Numbers

An inevitable note of sadness permeated the natural spirit of rejoicing at the dedication service of St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, last night. The knowledge that it was the occasion of the last official ministrations of Bishop Perrin made such spirit of sadness ineradicable. It was as much a tribute to the respect and affection in which bishop-elect of Willesden is held in British Columbia as it was of thanksgiving for the new church that St. Mary's was thronged with a congregation far larger than the utmost stating accommodations could provide for. The new church, on Burns street, Oak Bay, is a really handsome building, constructed of British Columbia fir, and designed by Messrs. James & James, of 1007 Government street, Though the en-

L James is to be congratulated on having designed a church the simplicity of which is such that it only adds to its nobility and dignity of design. Any attempt at ornate decoration has been steadfastly avoided, and the result is that instead of the architectural excresences and conceits in construction that mar so many of the smaller churches, Oak Bay has a church truly dignified in design and in Motion Presented by Opposi- The wounded man, who is reported dead conducive to religiou

From David's self-effacement, the Bishop pointed a moral to those who withhold their support from a church because it is not built in accord with their views, or administered exactly according their gratuous advice. "If God be our father," said the Bishright and natural than that we should give to Him what is really HIST Inough all belonged to the Father in earthly things, he continued yet the present brought by the child to the Father on his birthdaymorning bought perhaps from the little one's savings for twenty-five cents, was blessed. Nor was the man worthy the name of father who would not be touched and gladdened by the stupendous symbol of unselfishness and love of the child. The church in which they were met for the first time that night had been dedicated to St. Mary. Though like all women born in sin, Mary was honored by us all because she was chosen of all women to become the mother of our Lord. Yet how many who looked round the church and were pleased with its beauty, realized that it was the house of God-that God was there. Duties of Worship. Speaking of the duties of worship and the necessity for sincerity of heart and solemnity of thought, Bishop Perrin made a striking denunciation of those who were too supercilious and egotistical to worship God, and of those among us who lounge in to His presence and were not even ashamed. In His name he besought those present to make their new church a shrine of sincerity-a holy of holiness for those who worshipped God with all their heart. Let them pray God to purify their intentions, stifle all. scandal, malice and uncharitableness, and destroy all evil desires and passions that sapped one's life and corrupted the soul. He defined the true friend as "one who knows everything about me that . is bad, and yet loves me." "Conscious of our own miserable failures," concluded the Bishop; with instinctive eloquence "and we have failed-we come to Him with a broken and contrite heart to be strengthened and inspired anew by Him who'is the source of all goodness, mercy strength and love." In the words of his text might, they will say that might "all things come of Thee, and of Thine own have we given Thee." The Dean of Columbia announced that for the present the services at St. Mary's would have to be confined to the Sunday celebration of Holv Communion at 8 a. m., and an ordinary service at 7 p. m. He hoped, however, to be able to arrange for a morning service shortly. The collection last evening amounted to over $150, which will be devoted to the building fund.

At the outset of his sermon the Bishop of Columbia reminded his hearers that this solemn but happy function was the last act of his administration in the Diocese in which he has worked with such unflagging energy and whole-hearted devotion for the past eighteen years. "There can, said the Bishop, "be only one opinion of the beauty and useful-ness of this Church." The presence of fifty communicants that morning who came to receive the sacraments at the opening of the Church was earnest of its usefulness and future activity in God's service. He regretted that he could not consecrate it, as it had a debt still upon it, which however, can be paid off by next Sunday by the united effort of those present that night. The present building, adequate and beautiful as it was, would in the near future, he pho-phesied, be used as a parish hall when, as he hoped and was confident, they may be able to erect a larger church. Tonight, therefore, he had dedicated it, and in doing so he paid a graceful

Duty Collected Last Month Exceeded Only by Record of Last March—Heavier Than in August

The steady growth of the business of Victoria is indicated by the customs returns, the total receipts at the customs house being much larger last month than during the previous month, having exceeded those of August by over $64. 000. The duty collected during September was second only to the record of last March, when the largest figure was reached. The total receipts during September were $439,674,59, of which $175,790.84 was paid in duty and $263,-793 by Chinese. During August the duty amounted to $171,317. The record was reached last March which showed a total $192.294 and the highest total collected was during June when the Chinese revenue of $360,052 swelled the returns to $538.858

BRITISH ADMIRAL SAYS

To the Zam-Buk Co.

ROYAL NAVAL CLUB, Portsmouth, England

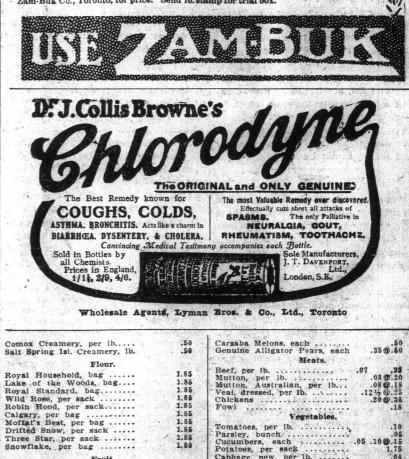

Dear Sirs,-I have found Zam-Buk most reliable for healing cuts and abrasions; while for the relief of skin irritation it is invaluable. (Signed) RODNEY M. LLOYD, Admiral.

Zam-Buk Cures Bad Burns.

Stoker Kingsnorth, of H.M.S. "Cochrane," says:-"I slipped and fell with my arm on an exhaust steam pipe, which fairly frizzled the skin. At once the ship's surgeon dressed my arm, but the burns took the wrong way, owing to a lot of dirt from the pipe setting up blood-poison. A large scab appeare and from underneath the festering flesh, matter oozed out. I was in fearful pain and didn't know how to get ease.

"For weeks I remained under treatment, but the ordinary ointments proved no good. Indeed, I got worse. I therefore obtained a supply of Zam-Buk and almost as soon as this was applied I got ease. From the very first application, healing commenced; and a few boxes of Zam-Buk healed my wound completely."

Zam-Buk cures eczema, ulcers; abscesses, ringworm, bad leg, waridese ulcers, piles, cold sores, chapped hands, babies sores, etc. All stores at 50c., er post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Send lc. stamp for trial box.
