Neither contestants made the distance required to get the prize for ugwards of 500 miles. The score at the close was: Hart 417 miles; Panchot, 406; Ellison 401. Charles Rowell will come to New York sometime this fall. Patrick Fitzgerald will meet Rowell in a six-day contest for a stake of $1000 a side, open to the world, and he will name New York, Boston or Philadelas the place for the race. The Calumet club of Chicago and the St. Paul club played a game of lacrosse at Chicago Scturday for the championship of the United States. The St. Pauls won the first goal, the Calumets the next three, retaining the championship. It is claimed that a new trotting phenomenon has turned up in a 6-year-old stallion owned by a placksmith named Martin, near Indianapolis. The lacrosse grounds were crowded Saturday afternoon to witness the match between the Montreslers and Torontos. The grand stand was full, and a large proportion of those present were ladies. As usual the the visitors were first on the field and spent a full quarter of an hour in tossing the ball before the home club made its appearance. The ball was faced at 3.30 o'clook, which was exactly a half hour later than advertised. The teams were as follows:
