OBJECTION, A 19 TO 1 CHANCE. Mr. Scagram's Imperied Colt Lands the Money at Saratega Xesterday. SARATOGA, Aug. 19.—Sixty-five starters in the six races gave large fields and plenty of chances for speculation to-day, most of which proved unfortunate, as only one race was won by the favorite. The other five avent to horses against whom long odds were laid. A majority of the prominent horses and horsesemen have gone down to Westchester. Plenty of horses re-main here but they are selling platers, except a few who have stake suggements. Ben Harmon ran a good race to-day, which was freely commented upon, because of his poor showing last week. Mores seem to get in and out of favor with lightning rapidity in these days. The Canucks pulled off another 'good thing" to-day with the Enslish colt Objec-tion, who went to the post a 12 to 1 chance. The them sips, as was done at the recent becaust meeting. Then again a trotting norse can be broken by a driver, and thus one a heat, while a running horse must be quarely pulled. There are of course frauds in the running, the same as on the trotting ard, but the former offers the best sport to the public. It is sincerely to be hoped that ome of Detroit's public spirited citizens will ake hold of the matter and push it to a suc-cessful inleb. A running meeting under the auspices the present trotting as-tociation would usedly succeed. A movement-or a running meeting should be an independ-ant one. urday's express brous insseveral packages of ned to H. I. Kerschner of m total of the amount was signed to H. I. Kerschner of Bethlehem. The sum total of the amount was $5000 and it was the payment of a one-twenticity part of ticket No. 58907, which number draw the second cash capital prize of $100,000 in the July drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery. The $5000 was not alone Mr. Korschners. He was one of the sight Bethlehemites who had a pool, and held the lucky licket. Mr. Kerschner was soon yester-day afternoon by a reporter and said: "About a month ago some Allentonians were talking about the Louisiana State Lottery, at the Sun Hotel in Bethlehem, and George Hirst, the bar-tender, and I decided to invest $1 aplace in the lottry to try our luck. Several employee of my stable and a few of Mr. Hirst's friends-joined us and we made a pool of $5, each throw-ing in $1. Eight tickets were, get and i locked them up in a safe. The drawing came off on the idth and several days afterwards we were shown the prize list and Jound that one of the stypenties are our tickets for collection to the Adams Express Company and the monay ($5000) was very promptly forwarded to me. After paying a commission for collecting, our prize there remained something Hike $400, which we divided, sach of the eight idee $400, which we divided, sach of the eight idee $400, which we divided, sach of the eight getting $20,12" The lucky members of the pool have deposited their "boodie" in bank. Mr. Kers-chner shys this was the first pool that was made up in Bethlehem and all consider themselves are ying the sourd all as ree, is "not so ikey."-Bethlehem (Pa.) Times, July 30.

The Steek Kanneks. The New York Sporting World of Saturday says: The Kanueks unbottled then "good thing" yesterday. It was Shamrook, and she won a good race handily. These sleek gentle-men from the North, with their unpretentious manners, expected to do it on Thursday in the Dalesman race, but Allen was watching Dalesman when the latter fell, which caused Shamrook to pull up. Shamrook was backed heavily in New York on Thurs-day, but it has not developed whether it was done again yesterday or not. The Excelsion Stable industriously circulated the tip that Carrie G couldn't possibly lose the race, and when they went to the post she was a strong first choice, The Lion being a good second and Boccaccio third. Shamrook oppend as 12 and 4 and closed at 8 and 3, so the Canadian con-tingent got good returns for a small invest-ment.

Priests in Retreat. The priests of the Diocese of Toronto

The priests of the Diocese of Toronto com-menced their annual retreas yesterday at St. Michael's Collegs. Fifty were present, in-cluding a few visitors. Father Henning of St. Patrick's is the conductor of the retreat, which occupies several days. Gossip et the Turf. . A report from Saratoga is to the effect that both Jaubert and Remsen are broken down. After the steepleohase at Brighton Beach on Friday J. H. McCormick purchased San-tord, the winner, at private sale for $700. Mr. Robert Bonner has suffered a severe loss recently, in the death of his stallion Nut-bourne. He was out of the dam of Mand S. and was 12 years old. He had never been re-gularly trained but often trotted fast quar-ters, and was valued at $10,000.
