

COAL RIOTERS USE CANNON.

McKEESPORT IN THE HANDS OF A DESPERATE MOB.

The situation at McKeesport, Pa., June 6.—An angry mob of 2000 foreigners, National Tube Works strikers, returned to McKeesport, just after noon, having in their morning raid destroyed two of the largest coal tipples on the river. The raiders first halted at David Moore's tipple at Point View. The structure was soon raised to the ground. The rioters then tore down the tipple owned by John P. McIntyre. The mob first tore down the platform at the railroad siding, but was stopped on the hill by Mr. Correy, superintendent of the company, who had a revolver. A half dozen men rushed upon him and quickly disarmed him. He denied that any men were at work, but the infuriated foreigners would not listen to him and a committee was appointed to inspect the mine. They returned shortly with 25 men. McIntyre arrived and ordered the men off the place. The mob, seeing a revolver in his hand, shouted: "Teach him a lesson." This was followed by an attack on the tipple, the men using picks and axes, and soon the structure was in ruins. Not content with this, the mob was applied and the entire tipple, machinery and all other equipments were soon ablaze. The mob then continued the march over the hill. McIntyre and Correy were helpless and had to stand by and see the property destroyed. The property destroyed was valued at over $10,000.

Rioters in Possession of the Town.

During the rioting several men were trampled upon. Upon returning to the city the mob took possession of the streets in the vicinity of the Tube Works, shouting, cursing and creating the greatest excitement. Bloodshed is feared before the day is out, as there are no deputies here to contend with the rioters, most of whom have been employed as day laborers at the Tube Works. The situation is much the same as prevailed at Homestead, before the battle. The men are in complete possession of the town. Mayor Andre has issued a stronger proclamation, calling upon all citizens to preserve the peace at any hazard.

Three Cannon Trained on McKeesport.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon 100 of the Tube Works strikers went to Raymond on the Pittsburgh, McKeesport and Youngsborough Railway, out loose and set adrift five coal barges, one of which was loaded. The coal pile was then destroyed and the wreck fired. The mob then divided, following the banks of the river, cutting loose all coal drifts tied along the shore. The strikers have secured three cannons which they have planted in the bushes on the hill opposite McKeesport. They are trained directly on the tube works. The men in charge say they are intended for business.

The crowd of 2000 strikers that started for the Duquesne Tube Works entered the works and asked the 350 men at work to stop. The men obeyed.

Cannon To Be Used Against the Strikers.

Charles Chas. Col. J. H. via telegraph, June 6.—The deputies have taken up a fortified position at the Summit Mill, just below Gillette, and have placed their cannon in position. The strikers have all retreated to Hill Hill and are reformed, and they have been largely reinforced. Deputies from the army and navy are on duty, although they stated they would lay down their arms to the militia. The deputies will remain where they are all night and make an attack in the morning.

Dynamite Bombs Near Pottsville.

Pottsville, Pa., June 6.—A messenger just arrived from Wesley, a small town three miles distant, reports the miners having attacked the Little Brook, the operators of the mine there, and fatally wounding three of them with dynamite bombs.

A reporter just returned from the scene of the miners' riot at Wesley reports one man killed and two fatally and dozens of others more or less seriously wounded. The mining property was destroyed.

TORONTO IS HEALTHY.

Decrease in Contagious Diseases—Garbage Collector at the Island Free.

At the meeting of the local Board of Health yesterday Dr. Sheard, Medical Health Officer, reported that the sanitary condition of the city is exceptionally good. This was evidenced by the small number of contagious diseases and by the low rate of mortality. The contagious diseases reported in May are tabular and compared with the totals of the corresponding month last year:

Diphtheria. Scarlet Fever. Typhoid.

1894... 25 51 11
1893... 77 15 15

The number of typhoid cases in April last was 51. The return for May shows a decrease of 40.

Free Garbage Collection at the Island.

Dr. Sheard recommended that garbage and night soil be collected at the Island free of charge. Last year $334 was collected, but many residents and campers refused to pay and deposited their garbage in the lagoons and sand, thereby endangering the public health. Dr. Sheard added that it was not feasible to construct a sewer, as there would not be sufficient fall for the outlet.

In accordance with this report, the committee resolved that no shall this year be taken for garbage collection, which the city will effectually undertake free of all charge.

DID HARTLEY DIE FROM ARSENIC?

The Inquest at New Durham Agnol Adjourned Awaiting the Analysis.

Nokovon, Ont., June 6.—The inquest on Caleb Hartley was resumed to-day at New Durham. The evidence adduced was unimportant, though one of the witnesses testified that in his opinion the condition of the body at death denoted the presence of arsenic. The analysis has not arrived yet. The quest was again adjourned to Tuesday next. It is generally thought that evidence of a sensational character will be forthcoming when the relatives of the deceased are called upon to testify.

In the Surrogate Court.

The will-filied yesterday were: William R. Shields, $11,300, of which $8000 is in life insurance; James Moir, $2000; Mrs. Margaret N. Boulton, $11,000; Miss Marie A. Anderson, $374; George Kay, North Guilbunbury, $2468.

Guard of Trade Notes.

The committee appointed by the Board of Trade to nominate candidates for the new constitution board will submit about 35 names to the council of the board, which will meet on Friday.

The Insolvency Committee of the Board of Trade will meet this afternoon.

The Musical Hall Festival.

The plan for the Musical Hall festival concert opens to the public at the hall this morning. Although the advance sale has been very large, there are still plenty of good seats left and there will doubtless be a great rush.

VACANT HOUSES ARE SCARCE.

People Moving into the City From Out-side Points—The Demand for Good Residences Increasing.

Much has been said and written during the past couple of years about the large number of vacant houses in Toronto, and the World believing that the reports have been greatly exaggerated, as regards the present year at least, made an investigation yesterday.

A representative of this paper called upon several of the leading real estate agents, and the information gleaned tends to show that a much better state of affairs exists than is generally supposed.

Few Houses Vacant Over the Don.

In the East End of the city there are scarcely any habitable houses vacant at the present time. During the past couple of years very few of the cheap class of tenements have been built, and from present indications any building that is done will be for comfortable detached houses, as there is a demand for this class of buildings in all parts of the city.

In the North End and in Parkdale a similar state of affairs exists, and it is now quite certain that next January will show the population of Toronto to be very materially increased.

When the interviewers were asked where the people came from who were moving into the houses this spring, they all gave practically the same reply, namely, that many were from outside the city, and others from the outlying districts of the suburbs, while numbers were moving out of the older and cheaper class of houses into those of more modern style.

Increased Demand This Year.

Mr. Armstrong of the firm of Carr & Armstrong, 709 Yonge street, said that there was a very large and increased demand early this spring for larger houses in the Yorkville district, and now there is a good demand for the smaller houses of modern style. There are some of the older houses vacant, but this is accounted for by the many new houses, which are nearly all occupied. As an instance, Carr & Armstrong cited six new houses in Danforth road, five of which are now occupied. Many of the houses this firm let this spring went to people moving into the city.

No Cheap Tenements.

J. E. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

LOSS OF POWER.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

Mr. Hugh McMath, 1304 Queen street, Parkdale, corroborated what the real estate men of the East End said. Mr. McMath further stated that there had been quite an influx of people from the country to Parkdale, and that there is a demand for the newer houses, while many of the older houses are in a fair state of repair, still people seem to want the new ones. Very few of the newer houses are vacant. There are now in course of erection in Parkdale about 25 new residences, and Mr. McMath said he was certain they would be occupied as soon as ready.

Mr. J. H. Le Roy & Co., corner of Broadview and Queen streets, were next seen. Mr. Le Roy stated that there had been a much better demand this spring than last, and that there is a demand for early houses on their list. He reported nearly every habitable house in the East End of the city to be occupied. He thought the day for building cheap tenements had passed and said there is still a good demand for small detached houses. He accounted for this state of affairs by the generally healthy condition of the East End and the splendid car connections. He said there are very few houses vacant.

THE UNITED SERVICE.

97 KING ST. EAST.

Every day adds to our popularity as the place to purchase stylish, well-made, ready-to-wear clothing at the easiest prices. Trade is coming our way at a great pace. We have the values and our prices do the rest.

Men's Old Pants, worth $2 and $2.50, for $1.25.
Boys' 2 and 3-piece Suits, worth $2.50, for $1.50.
Boys' Serge Blouses, extra value, 50c.

The buying public are convinced that our word is as good as our bond. The tables are just groaning with good things in quality and price to meet the present demand. You'll find every garment a decided bargain. If you've not been a regular shopper heretofore look in and see us.

THE UNITED SERVICE CLOTHING CO. Y. CHEYNE, MANAGER. 97 KING-STREET EAST.

EVERYBODY'S CORNER.

INQUIRY, COMPLAINT, ADVICE AND PROTEST FROM MANY WRITERS.

All sorts of Quizzes From All Sorts of People—Their Troubles, Memories, Ambitions and Anxieties in Type.

Conservative Politicians want to know the amount the Mowat Government received from liquor licenses in 1893.

Answer: $394,517, or $340 less than last year.

Widow wants to know our price for a boy's strong to suit and a girl's dress.

Answer: 75c. $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.25, $3. The latter price buys a suit for a boy from 8 to 14 years of age that is marked to sell in the Globe Incendiary Stock at $5.50.

Men's fancy union striped Worsted Pants, actual value $1.50, special at 95c—GLOBE INCENDIARY STOCK.

A. A.: It is not necessary to fold one's napkin on leaving the table.

J. C.: Your intended should give you a list of the friends of his family, as well as his personal friends.

Man's strictly all-wool Scotch Cheviot Pants, regular price $3, special at $1.50—GLOBE INCENDIARY STOCK.

Business Man: Read the account of what you refer to in The Monetary Times of June 2nd, 1893.

Mary wants to know what our opinion is of a young man who has come from a distance, then wanted to embrace her, without previous acquaintance. We have a very poor opinion of the young man who would act so indecently. It will be a dangerous for him if he ventures around our way.

Men's dark all-wool Cashmere and Cheviot Pants, worth $3.50, at $2.50. Men's Bicycle Sweaters, in all colors, regular price $3, special at $2.25. GLOBE INCENDIARY STOCK.

Jim asks the price of our sack coat with pants and vest to match in tweed. We have over 500 lines in the goods referred to. The prices range from $3.50 a suit up to $10. They all belong to the Globe Incendiary Stock and are exactly half the amount as formerly marked.

Men's Union Cheviot Suits, made to sell at $7 and advertised elsewhere as worth $10, special at $3.98. GLOBE INCENDIARY STOCK.

Tom: The night before the wedding the bridegroom, who has come from a distance, would of course stop all night at an hotel. It is of course rather with yourself where to stop the next night.

Young Conservative asks who we think will be elected for North Toronto. We hope they may both get in. It is certain that both will be elected on the 26th inst., but is the other either by the vote of the people, and the other elected to stay at home.

Men's strictly all-wool Scotch Cheviot suits, made to sell at $12 and advertised elsewhere as worth $15, special at $8.98. Young Men's all-wool Cashmere and Cheviot suits, made to sell at $3 and $10, special at $1.45. GLOBE INCENDIARY STOCK.

Mattie asks us our opinion on the weather. We think it is going to be, and Mattie may be safe in making an engagement to meet Jimmy any evening this week.

Men's Harmsford dye fast black Hose, worth $1.50 a pair—special at $1.10. Men's tan colored Hose, fast colors, regular price 25c—special at 20c. Men's fine Scarfs and Four-in-Hand Ties, regular price 50c, at 40c. Men's Tourist Hats in light and dark colors, at 75c. Men's Bathing Goggles Underwear, regular price 75c, at 50c. Men's lace back Suspender, regular price 50c—special at 40c. Men's fancy black and blue striped Hose, regular price 75c, at 50c. GLOBE INCENDIARY STOCK.

ARMY AND NAVY CLOTHING COMPANY (LTD.). 125-3 KING-ST. EAST. YONGE-STREET.

BELL TELEPHONE SUBSCRIBERS HAVING FACTORIES OR WAREHOUSES Should adopt the Convenient LOCAL SWITCHBOARD SYSTEM.

Which gives quick and easy communication between all departments in the building, and also connection through the Central Exchange with other subscribers. For information and references apply BELL TELEPHONE BUILDING, 37 Temperance-st.

Medland & Jones General Insurance Agents and Brokers. Representing Scottish Union and National Insurance Company of Edinburgh, Accident Insurance Company of North America, Guarantee Company of North America, Office Mail Building, 106 York Street, N. W. Jones, S. W.

Bartenders' and Barbers' White coats gotten up at 10c each.

Toronto Steam Laundry 106 YORK-STREET. Telephone 1055.

NOTICE. The S.S. "Carmora" has been taken off the route between Toronto and New York, N.Y., and will not resume her trips until further notice.

W. A. Geddes, General Inland and Ocean Steamship Ticket Agent. CUNARD LINE, BEAVER LINE, HAMBURG AM. PACKET CO.

Canadian representative for W. Wingate & Johnston, shipping agents, London, Liverpool, Glasgow and Southampton. Offices at Geddes' Wharves and 69 Yonge-street.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON EXCURSIONS 50c PORT DALHOUSIE And Return By the Palace Steamer.

Every Saturday at 2.30 p.m. from "Yonge-street Wharf" (west side). Tickets at principal offices and at office on wharf.

NIAGARA FALLS LINE—DOUBLE TRIPS—Empress of India.

Daily at 7.40 a.m. and 3.30 p.m. from City Wharf, foot of Yonge-street (west side), for St. Catharines, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Rochester, New York, and all points east and south. This is the only steamer connecting with railway at Port Dalhousie. Family books for sale 40 trips for $5. Tickets at all G.T.R. and principal ticket offices.

STR. GARDEN CITY Flying daily between Toronto, Port Dalhousie and St. Catharines, leaving Toronto 8.40 p.m., arriving Port Dalhousie 9.50 p.m., St. Catharines 10.40 p.m. Returning leaves St. Catharines 8 a.m., Port Dalhousie 8.45 a.m., arriving in Toronto 11 a.m.

The popular Wednesday and Saturday 3 p.m. trip up old Welland Canal commences June 16. After July 1 a 7 hours' outing to Wilson Park on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays, leaving Toronto at 11 a.m., returning 6 p.m. Family Book Tickets at all principal hotels and ticket offices, 40 trips for $5. For further information apply GARDEN CITY OFFICE, Geddes' Wharf, east side.

NIAGARA RIVER LINE 3 TRIPS DAILY (except Sunday) Commencing Monday, June 4th, Steamers CHIOBA and CHIOPEWA will leave Yonge-street Wharf, east side, at 7 a.m.,