The foregoing is e schedule for group No. 1 of the intermediate O. R. F. U. drafter at the convener's meeting held in the office of Convener Ald. A. M. udd on Saturday afternoon. London opens the rugby season at Tec mseh Park on Saturday afternoon, meeting the Petrolea Hard Oil the rivals of old.

In return for the ope. ing game the local intermediate squad will give Petrolea a game a Thanksgiving Day, November 12, as the Petrolia Rugby Club is a pending on the holiday receipts to draw the largest gate of the season, and in this way make the game pay its way in the plucky rugby town.

There was a one-hour squabble at the meeting on Saturday to see where the holiday gate would land. O. N. Wilson, the Sarnia representative, put up a pathetic plea for the game, while Petrolia also put in a claim for the game. London wanted the holiday date also, but it was finally decided that Petrolia should have the preferred date.

A conference has not yet been arranged. Negotiations between the two bodies, which, according to opinion here, threatened to wreck the international races, began when the trustees asked the American race committee to furnish them with specifications of the possible new American contenders this year. In reply the Gloucester body protested against new addition to the deed of gift of the international trophy concerning displacement and sparring, which, in Gloucester opinion, discriminate against the local type of fishing schooner, and asked for a conference on the matter.
