Another Letter From France.

George D. Berry, a Former Bear River Boy is now Serving in Y. M. C. A. Work in France

Dear Sister Alice—I received your very welcome letter yesterday and it was much appreciated. I can tell you, I have received only a few letters from America since my arrival. The mail service here is very poor. I am glad to have the opportunity to come to France in the Y. M. C. A. work. I will tell you a little of our trip over.

The boat was not a very large one and we had some very rough weather. We left New York on Monday, Dec. 2nd, and on Sunday, the 8th, we passed through a very bad storm. The Captain has called for 20 years and he has never gone through a rougher sea. The waves broke over the boat, breaking down on our heads while eating dinner. It looked pretty bad for a while. The ladies putting on their life preservers while the men helped bail out the ship. A good many of the passengers thought we would not see France, but the good Lord had something better in store for us than a grave in the ocean.

I did not have time to go to see Lawrence on my way over, as we spent only one day in England. That day we spent out at Old Winchester, the old capital of England, the first three hundred years of her history. We visited an old Cathedral there built in the year 1079, crossed an old bridge with the date carved on it 1533. Pretty old, more than six hundred years before Columbus discovered America. We came directly from Winchester to Paris. Paris is a wonderful city. I will not attempt to describe the city or the people, only to say I have a great admiration for the French people and the part they have had in saving the world. Some of our Americans do not like the French people. I think it is our fault and not theirs. When I remember what Lafayette and his people did for America I can never but admire them. I have also discovered a trait in the English people which I admire so much, that they say so little about, the part they took in the great struggle for freedom. What is true of the English is also true of the Canadians.

I like my work very much and think I am making good. It is not hard for one to make good who wants to serve his fellows. I guess it must have been your example, my dear sister, when I first came from Nova Scotia to Boston, only a boy of sixteen, I was taken into your home and when I saw the work you were doing in Bethany Church and Sunday School, I started in there and have kept it up ever since. After all that is the only thing worth living for. The man or woman today who lives a selfish life will die a pauper even if they have made a million dollars. I am planning now to visit Nova Scotia on my way home next fall and will be able to tell you something about the country here. On Xmas day we had dinner out at the old palace in Versailles, at an old hotel near the ten million dollar palace of Louis XIV. We were the last of the Castle party who crossed the ocean to gether. I had the honor of making the acquaintance of an American Colonel from New York who gave us a very nice after dinner speech. He had served most of his time in France with the English army. He spoke in the very highest terms of their bravery and also the way in which the English officers looked after the welfare of their men.

I must close this letter now, with kindest regards to the home folks. Your loving brother,
GEORGE.

FOR THE COTTAGE HOSPITAL

Handsome Painting to be Ruffled

(From a Hamilton, Bermuda Exchange)

This week there will be put up for raffle at the Little Green Shop, on Queen Street, a handsome oil color painting entitled "His Victoria Cross," the generous gift of Mrs. Dorothy McAvity, for disposal in aid of the Cottage Hospital. Mrs. McAvity is a prominent portrait painter of Canada who is spending some months in Bermuda.

This picture is a replica of an original painting by Mrs. McAvity and stands in a heavy gilt frame, being about 4 by 5 feet. It had not left the studio when the artist accorded a private view to our representative yesterday, and although the subject is a very sad one—it is strikingly portrayed. In the artist has mixed her colors with heart. There is in it that touch of nature which makes the whole world kin, for here is a vivid and poignant little war story without words. A story which through the war has been made sadly common, and the sorrowing woman seen on this canvas stands as an example of many others. "His Victoria Cross" has been beautifully portrayed by the skill of the artist, and it is easy to predict that when this picture is put on view at the Little Green Shop it will be the centre of attraction and a big incentive to invest a dollar for the twofold purpose of getting a chance to win it and assisting the Cottage Hospital. The public spirit of this lady artist is to be highly commended.

[Mrs. McAvity, above referred to, is a daughter of John Irvin, Esq., of this town.]

67 YEARS OF GROWTH

IN the early days the founder of this business made a few gross of matches a day, and sold them himself, driving his horse and wagon as far as Toronto. Today, from automatic machines, 70,000,000 matches a day are turned out to keep Canada's home fires burning. And not matches alone; indurated fibreware, household helps, and a host of paper products have been added to this line.

The House of Eddy

has become an institution which touches the daily life of the Canadian public in a thousand different ways.

There is a reason back of this steady and rapid progress. Business institutions do not grow to such proportions by accident. It takes real merit to accomplish such a result; merit in the quality of the product, and in the concern which is back of it.

When you buy matches, see that Eddy's name is on the box. When you are in need of some of the familiar household helps, such as a washbowl, a pail, or a washboard, remember that there is an Eddy product which will fill your needs, made from light and durable Indurated Fibreware. Remember also that Eddy's Paper Specialties are standard.

Economical—

Because It Covers More

EVEN if this paint were sold at a price half as high again as any other—it would still be the economical paint to use on your house. In sheer covering capacity it has no equal. A gallon of it goes so far that you'll buy less of it and yet do more with it.

B-H PAINT 70% Pure White Lead
30% Pure White Zinc
100% Pure Paint

This paint is guaranteed to possess as its important basis the above formula which we inscribe on every can. The result of such a formula is all that you could ask in brilliance of color and in proper "body"—a paint which gives a fine lasting finish, exceeding all others in "covering capacity" and in durability. Paint with B-H "English" Paint—and your house is protected for years, where a coat of ordinary paint will last but a few months.
