

L E T T E R

FROM

Monf. DE LA VARENNE,

TO HIS

FRIEND at ROCHELLE.

Louisbourg, the 8th of May, 1756.

THOUGH I had, in my last, exhausted all that was needful to say on our private business, I could not see this ship preparing for France, especially with our friend Moreau on board, without giving you this further mark of how ardently I wish the continuance of our correspondence. It will also serve to supplement any former deficiencies of satisfaction to certain points of curiosity you have stated to me ; this will give to my letter a length beyond the ordinary limits of one : and I have before-hand to excuse to you, the loose desultory way in which you will find I write, as things present themselves to my mind, without such
