

Presbytery unanimously requested Mr. Cumming to spend the winter on the Island, to which he agreed. The Presbytery adjourned to meet on the last Wednesday of February, in Zion Church, at 11 o'clock.

R. LAIRD, Clerk.

Conference of Presbyteries.

A Conference of the two Presbyteries in this Island was held in Zion Church, Charlottetown, on the 28th inst. Rev'd A. Campbell was appointed Chairman, and R. Laird Clerk. The members of the Church of Scotland present were, Rev. A. McLean, Thomas Duncan, G. Stewart and J. McColl, Ministers; and Dr. Mackieson, Messrs. A. Robertson, W. Mathieson, J. McMillan and Charles Kennedy, Elders. The members of the sister Presbytery present were those attending the meeting of Presbytery for the day. Rev. I. Murray assigned reasons for failing to carry out the appointment of the last Conference as to visiting Clyde River, and St. Peter's Road. On motion Revs. T. Duncan, and I. Murray, and Messrs. Wm. Mathieson, and R. Lawson, Elders, were appointed a Committee to visit Clyde River and St. Peter's Road, for the purpose of conferring with the parties there interested in the proposed pastoral co-operation. On motion the Conference instructed the Committee, if they see the way clear, to advise the two sections at Clyde River to proceed as a united congregation. The Committee were directed to meet in St. Columbus Church, St. Peter's Road, on Monday, the 23d January next, at 6 o'clock, p. m., Rev. I. Murray to preach.

On motion of Rev. T. Duncan, seconded by Rev. R. Laird, the Conference resolved that the publication of the Presbyterian be resumed, the annual subscription to be six shillings and three pence in advance. The Conference felt compelled to increase the price slightly in order to prevent financial embarrassment; but the paper is now to be published weekly instead of fortnightly. Revs. Isaac Murray and Thomas Duncan were appointed co-Editors, to be assisted by contributors.

The Conference adjourned to meet in St. James' Church, Charlottetown, on Tuesday, the 24th January next, at 2 o'clock, p. m.

R. LAIRD, Clerk.

Presentation.

Calvin Church, St. John, closed the year by giving their Pastor and his Lady a substantial token of affectionate regard.

These gifts, prized specially as tokens of esteem and love, were gratefully acknowledged by Mr. Houston, and were the more highly valued by himself and Mrs. Houston, that they were not the gifts of a select few, but of the congregation as a whole.

It is cheering to note the multiplying indication of progress, material and spiritual, on the part of this congregation, during its present Pastorate. It has renovated and beautified its church, and enlarged and fitted up in best style its basement. Its prayer-meetings and Sabbath school have nearly doubled, and our pages bear testimony to its public spirit and large-hearted liberality. We have one page of "Honour" and on this, in the present number, under the head of Home Missions Calvin Church stands at $75, and proportionate numbers have been recorded for all the other funds. And here, by the way, we must apologize to the juveniles for omitting last month the words "Sabbath School" after Calvin Church $25 for Dayspring. And when to complete this enumeration of good deeds, we add that it takes ONE HUNDRED COPIES of the Record our readers will not be surprised to learn that we regard it, in this respect, as adopting a wise policy, and are persuaded that it will continue to prosecute the high ends of a living Presbyterian Church.

Is it a fancy on our part that the congregations which take most Records, and are most fully conversant with the wants and doings of the church, and the most liberal contributors to its schemes? It may be, but a very striking array of facts could be produced in support of it.

Presbyterian Centenary at Lunenburg.

On the first Monday of the New Year, the Presbyterians of Lunenburg celebrated the completion of ONE CENTURY of their existence as a Presbyterian Church,—the Hundredth Anniversary of the ordination of their first Pastor.

The services were conducted in the Lunenburg Church. The programme was as follows:—An ordinary diet of worship was held at 2 o'clock, p. m., at which Rev. Mr. Morrison, of Bridgewater officiated, preaching, from Rom. 13: 11; "It is high time to awake out of sleep," to a crowded audience, gathered from all the Presbyterian congregations of the county, with some brethren of other denominations. One feature of interest at this service, was the presence of a centenarian—a lady who has seen the suns and frosts of a hoary century and more, being now in her 103rd year—Mrs. Kaulbach, mother of the present, and relict of the late Sheriff of the County. Her faculties are to a large degree serviceable still, and her physical strength wonderful for her age. After the worship was over at the Church, the peo-