JAPAN WORK.

FROM MISS LIZZIE HART.

TOKYO, Jan. 31st, 1893.

One of our churches in this city, which has for some years been independent, that is, has received nothing from the Missionary Society, has of course had its bright and dark days, but this year has been a very hard one. From a number of little things that I have seen and heard since the new year, I was led to think that the people were finding it hard to raise the funds needed, and that unless there was an
