DISAPPOINTED AFTER ALL

"WELL," said Hungry Higgins,
"here is the first good thing I ever read about them college dudes."

"Wot it is?" asked Weary Watkins, with little interest.

"Wy, it says a lot of 'em had a can rush—no, it ain't, either. It's cane rush.
They was a bit of gravy coverin' up the 'em."

"I second the motion," chuckled the facetious cyclist, who occupied the rear seat on the tandem.

"Do you appreciate poetry?" asked the serious young man.

"Yes, indeed," answered his rich prospective father-in-law. "There's one piece of poetry that has done me a world of good. Old as I am, there are times when I should make mistakes if I didn't say: 'Thirty days hath September, April, June, and November.'"

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

AT the next concert, on Friday afternoon, December 8, the place of honor will be given to Haydn, whose beautiful symphony, No. 4, will be performed. Haydn's works are noted for their simplicity, clearness of style, grace and playfulness, characteristics that are very prominent in his fourth symphony. Edmund A. Burke, basso, will sing "She Alone Charmeth My Sadness," from Gounod's "Queen of Sheba." Mr. Burke is a great favorite and we are sure his friends will turn out in numbers to hear him sing this beautiful song. Miss Resina, of Paris, harp soloist, will play "Reverie," by A. Hasselmans, and "La Source," by A. Zabel. This young lady has graduated at the Paris Conservatory of Music with high honors, and will undoubtedly give a good account of herself. The closing number on the programme will be Strauss' immortal masterpiece the "Blue Danube" waltzes.
