The Gold medal was founded by the Students in 1872, and then partially endowed. The amount of the endowment has since been increased by the Alma Mater Society. The Silver medal, struck by the same die, is given by the Senate.

It will be observed that many of the foregoing scholarships, prizes, &c., are not yet endowed, but it is hoped that ere long the capital represented by these generous annual gifts may be secured. We wish to see many more memorial bursaries founded, attaching to the College permanently names that deserved to be honoured.
