

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Notes.

Take special notice of all the services. The week is well filled up. The B. Y. P. U. give us an excellent lead, and the District B. Y. P. U. is going to close with a fine program.

The Sunday Schools have their Union Memorial Services this afternoon, instead of the regular Sunday School lesson. It is an excellent idea. The life of our Queen is worthy in every way of being impressed upon the children's minds. Our Main School goes to Brunswick Street Methodist Church. Our Mission School goes to North Park Street Presbyterian Church. Our Pastor speaks at North Park St.

The Convenors of Committees ought to call their respective Committees together at once, and secure the election of chairman. Much depends upon the chairman, but he cannot succeed unless his Committee helps. Everyone of our Committees have important tasks before them. There is no danger of beginning to plan too soon for aggressive work.

Our Convention Boards are calling for funds to carry out the work. Let us bear in mind the monthly offering next Sunday.

Among the many lessons we learn from the life of our beloved Queen, the most prominent, is her regard for the religion of Jesus Christ. For sixty-three years she has been the preacher of Christianity. The world has been mightily influenced by her reverence for God and His Holy Word. In "the bright light which beats upon a throne," her faith in Jesus Christ was only the more fully revealed. We are glad our new King Edward VII has declared his purpose to walk in his mother's way. The prayers of Christian people all over his mighty empire will go up incessantly for him. Long live the King.

God save our Gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King;
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

Application for Sittings should be made to Deacon J. S. McPherson. The seats are reserved, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.
