A SCOTCH LAD'S FAITH.

I like the positive faith of that sailor boy that Captain Judkins, of the steamship Scotia, picked up in a hurricane. "Go aloft!" said Captain Judkins to his mate, "and look out for wrecks." Before the mate had gone far up the ratlines, he shouted, "A wreck! a wreck!" "Where away?" said Captain Judkins. "Off the port bow," was the answer. Life-boats were lowered, and forty men volunteered to put out across the angry sea for the wreck. They came back with a dozen shipwrecked, and among them a boy of twelve years. "Who are you?" said Captain Judkins. The answer was, "I am a Scotch boy. My father and mother are dead, and I am on my way to America." "What have you here?" said Captain Judkins, as he opened the boys jacket and took hold of a rope around the boy's body. "It is a rope," said the boy. "But what is that tied by this rope under your arm?" "That, sir, is my mother's Bible. She told me never to lose that." "Could you not have saved something else?" "Not and saved that." Did you expect to go down?" "Yes, sir; but I mean' to take my mother's Bible down with me?" "Bravo?" said Captain Judkins, "I will take care of you."—Sel.

Monier-Williams denounces the "jelly fish toleration" which refuses to acknowledge the decided superiority of Christianity. Let it be absolutely clear, says he, that Christianity cannot be watered down to suit the palate of Hindu, Parsee, Confucian, Buddhist, Mohammedan. Whoso wishes to pass from the false to the true religion can never hope to do by the rickety plank of compromise.—The Interior.

Dr. Laws says: "On the banks of Lake Nyassa, a few years ago the habitation of cruelty, there are now Christian schools with 150 teachers and 7,000 scholars."
