The Companion for the Rest of 1898.

THE principal attractions offered by The Youth's Companion for the remaining weeks of 1898 provide a foretaste of the good things to follow in the new volume for 1899. To the first issue in November, Frank R. Stockton will contribute a humorous sketch, entitled "Some of My Dogs," and in the issue for the week of Nov. 10th will appear Rudyard Kipling's thrilling story of the heroism of soldiers in the ranks, "The Burning of the Sarah Sands." In the seven issues to follow there will be contributions by Lord Dufferin, William D. Howells, J. E. Chamberlain, the American war correspondent, Mary E. Wilkins, Hon. Thomas B. Reed, the Marquis of Lorne, Mme. Lillian Nordica, and I. Zangwill. Those who subscribe now for the 1899 volume will receive every November and December issue of The Companion from the time of subscription to the end of the year free, the Companion calendar for 1899 free, and then the entire 52 issues of The Companion to January 1st, 1900. An illustrated announcement of the 1899 volume and sample copies will be sent free to anyone addressing The Youth's Companion, 111 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass.

is the suggestive title of a new Sunday-school hymnal, issued by The Century Co. It is believed to be just what the Sunday-schools of to-day want—a fine, all-round hymn and tune book, with music well written and within the compass of children's voices, and adapted to all the various grades.

It restores to use many of the best pieces that were the favorites of a generation ago, but which will be new to the scholars of to-day; and it includes the choicest of modern English and American tunes, such as "Onward, Christian soldiers," by Sullivan, "The Son of God goes forth to war," by Cutter, and evangelistic songs for teacher's meetings and Christian Endeavor rallies.

It comes from the press well-printed in large, clear type, and bound in a board cover of tasteful design, and it will cost only $25 a hundred five dollars less than such books are usually sold for. It promises to have a large sale. Remit 50 cents in stamps to The Century Co., Union Square, New York, for a sample copy.

Odds and Ends.

"It strikes me, Mr. Brief," said Mr. Dogway, "that your charge of $150 for this opinion is pretty steep." "No doubt," said Mr. Brief. "But you see, Dogway, when you come and ask me for an opinion which violates all my convictions, you've got to pay, not only for your law, but for my conscience."

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, and all summer complaints, sea sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief, and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.

Kate: "Bell and Charley seem to be rather sweet on one another." Maud: "Sweet? Why, they were out playing golf all the afternoon." Kate: "But that doesn't signify." Maud: "It does in their case. They forgot to take the clubs with them when they went out."

Parents buy Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator because they know it is a safe medicine for their children and an effectual expeller of worms.

Where can I get some of Hollo-way's Corn Cure? I was entirely cured of my corns by this remedy, and I wish some more of it for my friends. So writes Mr. J. W. Brown, Chicago.

A man in Binghamton, N.Y., out of the kindness of his heart, said recently that he would be a father to the children of a destitute widow, meaning that he would help them to the extent of his power. But the widow attached a different meaning to the remark, and has sued him for breach of promise.

Skepticism. This is unhappily an age of skepticism, but there is one point upon which persons acquainted with the subject agree, namely, that DR. THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL is a medicine which can be relied upon to cure a cough, remove pain, heal sores of various kinds, and benefit any inflamed portion of the body to which it is applied.

"Of course, John," said a teacher reported by The Detroit Journal, "you would rather be right than be President." After thinking the matter over for a few moments, John cautiously replied: "Well, I'd rather be right than be Vice-President."

Prevent Disorder.—At the first symptoms of internal disorder, Par-melee's Vegetable Pills should be resorted to immediately. Two or three of these salutary pellets taken before going to bed, followed by doses of one or two pills, for two or three nights in succession, will serve as a preventive of attacks of dyspepsia and all the discomforts which follow in the train of that fell disorder. The means are simple when the way is known.

Do Not Delay.—When, through debilitated digestive organs, poison finds its way into the blood, the prime consideration is to get the poison out as rapidly and as thoroughly as possible. Delay may mean disaster. Par-melee's Vegetable Pills will be found a most valuable and effective medicine to assail the intruder with. They never fail. They go at once to the seat of trouble and work a permanent cure.

CATARRH CAN BE CURED.

Catarrh is a kindred ailment of consumption, long considered incurable; and yet there is one remedy that will positively cure catarrh in any of its stages. For many years this remedy was used by the late Dr. Stevens, a widely noted authority on all diseases of the throat and lungs. Having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, and desiring to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all sufferers from Catarrh, Asthma, Consumption, and nervous diseases, this recipe, in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing, with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Noyes, 920 Powers Block, Rochester, N. Y.
