

Illustrated Gift Books by

HAMILTON WRIGHT MABIE

Nature and Culture

A holiday edition of one of Mr. Mabie's most popular books, illustrated with 24 full page reproductions of nature studies.

Cloth, 8vo, $2.00 net

By the same author—A Child of Nature, $2.00; My Study Fire, $2.50; In the Forest of Arden, $2.00; Under the Trees, $2.00; Backgrounds of Literature, $2.00.

CLIFTON JOHNSON

Highways and Byways of the South

It is undoubtedly the most faithful and entertaining record of the rustic South that has been published. Richly illustrated from photographs by the author.

Cloth, 8vo, $2.00 net

LAFCADIO HEARN

Japan, An Interpretation

In this extensive volume Mr. Hearn has undertaken a far more thorough and exhaustive interpretation of Japan, its people and customs and life, than in any of his previous books.

Cloth, 12mo, $2.00 net

GRANT AND HAMILTON

Life of Principal Grant

This story of a remarkable man whose career touched our country's life at so many points, is told with the greatest possible care and with a frankness that does not conceal the weak points of a strong man's character.

It is a fine substantial volume containing 531 pages, printed on a high grade deckle edge paper with ample margins, and handsomely bound in green buckram cloth, gilt top.

Price, $3.50

FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

EDWYN SANDYS

Sportsman Joe

The story of a leisurely journey across Canada, of how Joe learned to fish and shoot, and the art of camp fire cookery in all its niceties.

Cloth, 12mo, $1.50

ERNEST THOMPSON SETON

Monarch

The Big Bear of Tallac

The life story of the great grizzly "Monarch" still pacing his prison floor at the Golden Gate Park. With 8 full page illustrations and numerous drawings in the text.

Cloth, 12mo, $1.25 net

MRS. MOLESWORTH

The Ruby Ring

A new story by the author of "Carrots," "Cuckoo Clock," with eight illustrations by Rosie M. M. Pitman.

Cloth, 12mo, $1.25

JUSTIN MCCARTHY

An Irishman's Story

One of the most representative Irishmen of the last 30 years, tells in this volume the story of his life and work in Ireland and London, and of the interests which have occupied his working years.

Cloth, 8vo, illust., $2.50 net

American Sportsman's Library

New Volumes, each $2.00

Lawn Tennis and Lacrosse, by J. P. Paret and W. H. Madden. Guns, Ammunition and Tackle, by A. W. Money and others. The American Thoroughbred, by C. E. Trevathen,

PROF. W. DEECKE Italy

A popular account of the country, its people and its institutions. A sober, serious work of real importance, attractively written.

Cloth, illust., $6.00 net

HAMILTON WRIGHT MABIE

Parables of Life

One of the richest, most beautiful and thoughtful of Mr. Mabie's books. A holiday edition, richly illustrated with appropriate and suggestive pictures by W. Benda.

Cloth, 8vo, $2.50 net

E. J. H.

Songs of Motherhood

A volume of poems for young mothers on the beauty and miracle of motherhood.

Cloth, 12mo, $1.50

FRANCIS L. WELLMAN

The Art of Cross Examination

A new edition containing about one hundred and fifty pages of new matter, some of which will be the best in the book.

Cloth, 8vo, $2.50 net

E. NESBIT

The Phoenix and the Carpet

The story of the adventures that five genuine and delightful children had with the Phoenix and the Magic Carpet.

Cloth, illust., $1.50

S. R. CROCKETT

Red Cap Tales

A number of tales told in succession from four of Scott's novels, strongly reminiscent of Lamb's Tales from Shakespeare.

Cloth, 8vo, $2.00 net

JACOB A. RIIS

Is There a Santa Claus

Some children wrote to Mr. Riis for an answer to this question. His reply is a little gem of its kind, nicely illustrated and decorated.

Cloth, 12mo, 75c.

MORANG & CO., Limited, PUBLISHERS
TORONTO