

On Sunday last, in response to the appeal of his Lordship Bishop Sweeney, $1300 were collected in the Cathedral, St. John, and $700 in St. Peter's Church, Portland, in aid of the Catholic separate schools. Though robbed of large sums by a fanatical majority to keep up the godless system, the Catholics of New Brunswick allow no pecuniary sacrifice to stamp their loyalty to the teachings of the Church.

FORTY HOURS DEVOTION AND JUBILEE AT ALEXANDRIA, GLEN-GARRY, ONT.

On Monday, the 5th inst., commenced at Alexandria, the forty hours' devotion and Jubilee. The efficient and zealous pastor, Rev. J. S. O'Connor, was assisted during the three days by the Rev. Fathers Masterson of St. Raphael's, Macdonell of Lochiel and Gauthier of Williamstown. Though the good people of this parish have ever been distinguished by their robust faith and practical piety yet those concerned were wholly unprepared to witness the edifying spectacle of a sacred edifice continually thronged from early morning till late evening with crowds of devout worshippers earnestly engaged in fulfilling the conditions prescribed for insuring the full effects of the above devotions. The number of communions reached above twenty-four hundred. The propitious rain vouchsafed as it were by a benign Providence as a mark of its pleasure to bless the harvest of faithful servants, did not damp the ardor of devotion, nor the heat of an election contest raging at the time in the vicinity distract the attention, or diminish the numbers in attendance. The exercises were closed on Wednesday by an appropriate sermon preached by the Rev. C. H. Gauthier the gifted pastor of Williamstown and a native of Alexandria whose earnest manner and eloquent discourse undoubtedly contributed to preserve in the minds of his hearers the precious fruits of a season of grace. A tastefully decorated church and altar and a well trained choir evinced the vigilance of a pastor solicitous for the external decorum of divine worship so effective in elevating the thoughts and fostering devotion. It is a matter of congratulation to priest and people alike that the object of the Jubilee has been so surely attained: with sinners reclaimed, the just confirmed and the tepid animated there is every reason to believe realized in Alexandria the intention of the Holy Father of applying to the well-disposed the treasures of the Church whose Dispenser he is whether king or captive.—Com.

THE LATE FEARFUL TRAGEDY AT BUENOS AYRES.

The following are the latest details of the terrible tragedy at Buenos Ayres. A father of the Society of Jesus thus writes to the Chronicle:—
You have already heard through the papers of the horrible events which have transpired here. The College of San Salvador, except a portion of the facade, is utterly destroyed; two hours sufficed to accomplish this work of destruction. The Rev. Fathers Cabeza, Martorelli, Albi, Villardel and Toire were wounded, and as also was the brother-coadjutor. All the other fathers and brothers were exposed to more or less danger, and endeavored to seek a refuge. One brave and truly apostolic brother in the midst of the tumult went out, at the peril of his life, to seek the unhappy fathers who had been pursued and wounded by the mob, and without thinking for a moment about the danger he incurred, saved eighteen of them and conducted them to a place of safety. In the course of the evening some generous persons, fearing for the life of this brave man, came and offered a safe hospital to our fathers. It was well they did so, for the house where they were hidden was already menaced by the crowd of infuriated Liberals, and doomed to destruction. The College of San Salvador was not the only building which was menaced, but the archbishop's house also. The mob went from the Church of St. Ignatius to the Convent of St. Francis, which they did not enter, and thence to the College of the Company. It was a complete assault on Communism, and, unhappily, we cannot say that it has failed.

The following is the text of the pastoral of the Archbishop of Buenos Ayres, which has so greatly offended the Liberals:—

We, Frederick Aneiros, by the grace of God and of the Holy See, Archbishop of Buenos Ayres, to all the faithful of the parish of the Cathedral of St. Ignatius, having recently read a protestation from the members of this parish against a reform which we thought fit to make, we hereby offer the following explanation thereof, in order to enlighten the ignorant and confound those who have wilfully misrepresented our meaning. Conforming ourselves to the bulls of the Sovereign Pontiffs, who created Buenos Ayres a diocese in 1620, and an arch-diocese in 1865, by establishing the principal parish in the cathedral, we have determined that the pastor thereof shall reside at the cathedral, and add his services to those of the canons. The Church of St. Ignatius will also serve us, dearly beloved, to hear Holy Mass in, and to assist at the Divine services. Instead of the parish priests and his vicars you will have a congregation of exemplary priests (Jesuits) to administer the sacraments at all hours, and to succor the sick who may require their ministry, and also to preach the word of God, so that no one will be obliged to go to the cathedral for baptisms, marriages and funerals. We cannot but feel sure that you will be glad to see the Church of St. Ignatius once more in the possession of those who built it from its foundation, and not only that but the superb national college and university which adjoin it, and which have never cost our government a penny. Those priests whom the violence of an old and irascible king caused to be exiled in the last century, and who were also driven away in the present by men whose names can never be remembered but with feelings of shame—we are sure Buenos Ayres can never forget those zealous priests who have been the truest friends of the people and the worst foes of vice—those priests who detest the impious, the incredulous and the wicked—and against whom the impious are ever leagued together—against whom are prejudiced only that class of people who read books of a frivolous, foolish and immoral kind, written with a view of deceiving the weak-minded who cannot judge for themselves. All those who are here present, and who, doubtless, do not belong to the number of those whom we have described, we are sure will approve what we have said and done, having doubtless heard what their ancestors have reported concerning the noble work of the priests in question. We beseech them to obey and respect these apostles and ministers of Christ. In the petition addressed to the government, it is said that all the parishes have protested against our wishes, which are approved of by the authorities. We cannot believe this, for we know that the parish is better than its enemies declare it to be, and that it is, at any rate, calumniated by those who are utterly without power of speaking the truth. What we do not understand is that these persons should have finished their petition by asserting that our measures will encounter difficulties in their execution. We cannot understand this, because if they are what they pretend to be—good citizens—why do they oppose a decree which is approved by the government, which they have no right to disobey? We cannot understand it, because if these persons are good Christians, how can they ignore that they, having the right to present petitions to the authorities, have also the duty, under pain of mortal sin and of exposing themselves to the censure of the Church, and even to excommunication, to obey the laws and decrees of the State, and also the decisions of the ecclesiastical body which has been legally appointed to govern them? Let these parishioners calm themselves, and during this holy season of Lent fulfil their religious duties by going to confession and communion at Easter, and let them remember that in a city like Buenos Ayres, where the Jews have their synagogues and apostates their pulpits, we Catholics must be more than ever united.

CANADIAN ITEMS.

HELP FOR FRANCE.—His Honour Judge Couriel has received from the Secretary of Madame La Marchale MacMahon a letter asking him to raise a subscription for the unfortunate people who have been ruined by the inundations in France. The Judge at once placed himself in communication with the French Vice-Consul in Montreal, and it has been decided to make an appeal to the people. The following is the letter received by Judge Couriel:—

"Paris, 61 Rue de Coccolles, 29th June, 1875.

"Sir,—Madame La Marchale MacMahon does not forget the generous efforts which you made after the war of 1870 to send to France a large sum of money for the wounded, and for the peasantry which had been ruined by the Prussian invasion, and charges me to ask you, if it is possible, to open in Montreal and all parts of Canada a subscription in behalf of the victims of the frightful inundations which have just ravaged the centre of France. Twenty thousand French people are without shelter, food or clothing, and charity alone can aid them. Do not refuse us, Sir, and I hope that soon you will remit me a first instalment for our unfortunate. I assure you that we are not ungrateful, and that we shall ever remember you. Accept the assurance of my highest regards.

"HENRY BLUNT.

"You have full power to organize the subscription as you see fit."

A meeting was held on Saturday afternoon in the Parish Reading Room—His Worship the Mayor in the chair—with the view of forming a Committee to collect subscriptions in aid of the victims of the recent inundations in the Midi of France. It was moved by Bernard Devlin, Esq., M.P., and resolved—That owing to the immense calamity which has befallen the Midi of France, the inhabitants of the devastated provinces, whose crops have been destroyed and whose houses have been carried away, merit universal sympathy, and that it is the duty of all Canadians to unite on this occasion in order to render assistance to their unfortunate brethren.

Moved by Ald. Loranger, in French, seconded by Mr. B. Devlin, in English, and resolved—That in order to contribute in the most efficacious manner for the alleviation of the innumerable miseries which afflict the victims of the devastating flood, a committee be immediately named to receive subscriptions and forward them to France.

Moved by M. P. Ryan, Esq., and carried—That the Committee named be instructed to open communications immediately with the Maitres of the towns of Sorel, Beauharnois, Joliette, St. Hyacinthe, Ste. Scholastique and Terrebonne, to the end that they may raise subscriptions in their respective localities and thus co-operate in increasing the general contributions.

EXTENSIVE FIRE IN A LUMBER YARD.—A fire broke out on Monday afternoon in the lumber yard of Messrs. McGauvran & Tucker in Basin street, close to the canal. The alarm was sounded by a man living opposite, when the fire brigade soon arrived and set vigorously to work. A general alarm was subsequently sounded, when the steam engine from No. 1 Station set out and was not long in reaching the place. The engine was at work throwing two fine streams of water from the canal on the burning timber. Several streams were also thrown from the hydrants and the greatest exertions were made to save a portion of the lumber. There were 2,000,000 of feet in the yard, and hopes were entertained that part of the western end of the yard would be saved. The timber being very dry and well seasoned went off like touchwood, and the heat, even at several hundred yards distance, was exceedingly oppressive. The firemen were working nobly, notwithstanding the smoke and heat in their immediate vicinity. The insurance on the lumber is by no means adequate to cover the value of the whole amount on the premises. Messrs. McGauvran & Tucker have policies in the Royal Canadian, $12,000; the Western, $6,000; Citizens, $2,500. Total $30,500.

THE PAPAL AB-LEGATE.—Monsignor Roncetti, the Papal ab-legate, arrived at Halifax on the 18th inst., by rail from Picton, which place he reached at 3 p.m., the day before in the steamer Miramichi from Quebec. All the ecclesiastics who left Quebec with him also arrived, and Bishop Rogers, who joined them at Chatham. Pontifical high mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Cathedral, at which all the distinguished visitors took part. Dr. McGlynn, of New York, delivered an impressive sermon. In the afternoon, in the same place, an address of welcome, signed by nearly all the Catholics of Halifax, was presented to the ab-legate, to which he made a suitable reply. In the evening the ab-legate held a levee at the Archbishop's residence, when many citizens were introduced.

The Halifax School Association has passed a resolution strongly condemning the Nova Scotia Legislature for passing an Act excluding clergymen from sitting at the Halifax School boards.

DEPORTATION.—The Canadian Rubber Company's extensive works, which are situated on St. Mary street, were closed last Wednesday week, throwing some six hundred persons, men and women, out of employment; about 1,000 people were employed in these works last Fall, but since January the number was considerably reduced and placed on half time. The employees, when the works were closed, were informed that they had for some time been supplied by the company with work at a loss rather than have them deprived of the means of sustenance; but that it was no use to fight longer under present circumstances against American competition, being undersold in their own market, such merchandise being offered more cheaply retail than the rates at which they could manufacture. A very large number of people are out of employment in the city; one strong man, eager but unable to secure employment stated to a citizen on Saturday that he had eaten nothing for two days. The citizen gave him a small sum of money to buy bread for himself and his starving children, and promises him something to do to-day.—Gazette.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—Between two o'clock Friday afternoon and Saturday morning, a box containing diamonds valued at $10,000 or $12,000, with valuable securities was stolen from the back office of the premises of Mr. Walker, jeweller, Notre Dame street. It is supposed that the theft was committed by a stranger, apparently an American, and very well dressed, who visited the shop and examined the diamonds on Friday afternoon without purchasing, however. As he was taking his departure, Mr. Walker set down the box and went out with two friends to lunch; he imagines that he placed the box on a window sill accessible from the yard, and that it was taken by this person, who seeing his opportunity entered by the adjoining gateway.—Gazette.

SMALL POX.—The weekly mortality bills of London, which reached us by the last mail, showed that there had not been a single death from small pox in a population as great as that of the whole Dominion of Canada. And with a population of only about one hundred and twenty-five thousand, Montreal loses several small pox patients every week. This is the difference between enforcing effective vaccination by law, and letting a large part of the population be unvaccinated.—Montreal Herald.

DROWNED.—Sunday afternoon seven boys hired a small boat and rowed to the island. On returning, about six o'clock, the boat swamped and a boy named Sylvester Nolan, 15 years of age, son of Charles Nolan, residing in Quebec Gate Barracks, was drowned. The remainder were saved by a boat.

The following is a statement of revenue and expenditure on account of the consolidated funds for the month ended 30th June, 1875. Revenue; Customs, $1,383,659 26; excise, $377,446 34; post office, $76,590 26; public works, including railways, $158,533 33; bill stamps, $17,993 75; miscellaneous, $48,045 44; total $2,071,897 38; expenditure $1,129,166 91.

OTTAWA NORMAL SCHOOL.—Mr. McCrac, an Irish Catholic, has been chosen by the Council of Public Instruction Principal of the new Normal School at Ottawa, he being deemed of the three teachers simultaneously elected, the best fitted for that post.

Over one hundred French citizens of Hull have left that city since the twenty per cent. reduction in wages was announced. They are leaving in large numbers every day. Some of them have gone to Michigan. The reduction of wages, as decided by the Chaudiere mill owners, will come into force this week. The average rates at present are as follows:—Millers, $8 to $9 per week; sawyers, $8 to $9; cutters, $8 to $9; ordinary hands, $6 00 to $7. The day's work is eleven hours, from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., allowing an hour at noon for dinner. On this rate the reduction will be twenty per cent., and the mills, instead of shutting down next month as it was at one time intended, will continue to work through the season, unless some unexpected phase of the trade presents itself. If the mills were to shut down now, they would throw 2,200 men out of employment.

On Friday, the 2nd inst., Mr. J. Kerton was digging a well on Mr. A. Elliot's farm in the 3rd Con. Picking, and had reached a depth of twenty-four feet. The bucket was being drawn up by a horse, with black and tackle, and his son (a lad thirteen years old) was leading the horse. The horse was backed to near the mouth, lost his footing and slid into the well. Kerton saw the hole darken, and with great presence of mind grabbed the bank just in time to prevent his being crushed by the horse in his great twenty-four feet fall. Some men were working about forty rods away, and on the lad giving the alarm, ran to the spot and assisted in extricating Mr. Kerton from his perilous position, by drawing him up. It was found that his only injury was the fracture of the larger bone of his leg, below the knee. The horse was hauled up and just as it reached the mouth of the well the rope broke and he fell with such force as to mangle him that the bones of his broken limbs protruded through the skin, and he had to be shot in the well, and the carcass then taken out.

It appears, says the even, that we are to have a baby show at Kingston during the meeting of the Central Exhibition next September. The Secretary has received so much encouraging mention on the subject from the ladies that he is quite prepared to take the responsibility of bringing it about.

WIDDER. July 17.—A fire broke out about 2 o'clock this morning in this place, in the vicinity of J. McGregor's hardware store, spreading along the street, burning the following places of business:—J. Cornille's drygoods store; J. McGregor's hardware store; Dr. Munro's drug store; R. Rawlings' blacksmith and wagon shop; T. Bennetts' shoe and general store; R. Palmer's hardware store; Lyman & Kennedy's general store, and B. Johnson's hotel. Loss about $30,000, which is mostly covered by insurance. Incendiarism is suspected.

Mr. C. Grant has shown the Meaford Monitor a couple of ears of the double headed spring wheat—the Eldorado—to which reference was made last fall. These were grown in St. Vincent township, and though the seed was sown as late as the 22nd of May the stalk measured 3 foot 6 inches in length, the head only peeping out from the shot blade.

This wheat was grown originally by a Mr. Smith of Collingwood township, and his whole crop was bought up by certain American speculators at an almost fabulous price. After having been shipped to the States it was returned to be sown in the better soil and under the more favourable climate of this country, to which it may be said to have been almost indigenous, the parties growing it agreeing to hand over the increase at a fixed price to the aforesaid speculators, who seem to understand perfectly what they are about. Some forty-five bushels we understand were distributed among various farmers in St. Vincent, and the balance in Collingwood, and Mr. Grant says all the fields look well and promise an abundant yield.—Globe.

The Galt Reporter says:—The rails for use on the line of the Credit Valley Railway near this town are expected this week per Grand Trunk line. When obtained and placed in position the steam shovel will be pushed to its utmost, and the deficient part of the line close to the town pushed as speedily as possible. Immense quantities of stone and timber are now on the ground in proximity to where the bridge is to be built but after all they are a mere commencement to what will be altogether required.

Arrangements are being made for the Provincial Ploughing Match in No. 3 District, which embraces the Counties of Wentworth, Wellington, Waterloo, and Halton. It is intended to hold the match on the Guelph Model Farm towards the latter end of October. The committee consists of Messrs. Thos. Stock, M.P.P., of Waterdown; C. J. Rykert, of Lincoln; and the Hon. D. Christie, of Paris.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS.—We could not possibly have better growing weather than that with which we have been favoured for some weeks past. From every part of the island we have the most encouraging accounts of the growing crops.—Charlottetown, (P. E. I.) Cor. Toronto Globe.

On Sunday morning last two dwelling houses belonging to a widow named Mrs. McGee, on Cherry street, Hamilton, took fire, and were burned down, together with the outbuildings, containing eighty hens and a number of pigs. The loss is about $3,000, none of which is covered by insurance.

BLENHEIM, July 17.—Some of the farmers in this neighbourhood have commenced harvesting. The crop promise well. Hay somewhat injured in curing by the repeated showers.

A settlement known as Launching, in P. E. Island, was visited with a terrible gale on Sunday evening 16th inst. It lasted only ten minutes, but great damage was done. Half stones fell an inch in diameter and rain poured in torrents. Houses were shaken to their foundations, large trees uprooted, and not a fence left standing in the settlement.

Died.

In this city, on the 18th inst., Mary Mullins, wife of James Low, aged 50. R. I. P.

In this city, on the 14th inst., Sarah Diamond wife of James Lindley, Currier. R. I. P.

At her late residence, Trenton, July 12th, after a lingering illness, borne with true christian resignation, and consoled by the last rights of her collector, Annie, the beloved wife of F. J. Maguire, Esq., Collector of Customs.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Alex. McElhannon, Esq., native of Cushtindall, county Antrim, Ireland, who emigrated to Canada in 1829. Her sincere piety and charity, her goodness of heart and kindness of manner had endeared her to all her acquaintances. She surely fulfilled her mission, in as much as she was a dutiful daughter, an affectionate sister, a faithful and loving wife, and a pious and tender mother. She has left a disconsolate husband and six children to mourn her untimely end.—May her soul rest in peace.

Uster papers will please copy.
