WAS THE WRONG MAN HANGED!

CORK CORONER AND JURY BELIEVE JOHN TWISS WAS INNOCENT.
CORK, Feb. 10.—At the inquest on the body of John Twiss, hanged here yesterday for an agrarian murder, the chaplain of the prison testified that the condemned man had declared that he was innocent and the victim of police revenge.
The jurors in their verdict say they believe Twiss was innocent, and that he ought to have been relieved. The Coroner coincided in this view.
The case has created a great sensation.
