SUCCESSFUL CURE FOR THE POTATOE DISEASE.—Mr. John Kyle, of Clydeview, Parlic, to whom the government, in conjunction with the Agricultural Society of France, lately awarded a magnificent gold medal, valued 500 francs, besides a handsome prize in money, for his discovery of the cure of the vine disease, having by careful observation found that the disease which has for so many years attacked the potatoe is in reality the very same distemper, both in its incipient and matured stages, which was likely to prove equally fatal to the vine, (now, happily, overcome by Mr. Kyle), and that what would constitute a cure for one would, as a consequence, be equally efficacious in its application to the other. Although it is more than ten years since Mr. Kyle's attention was directed to the grape disease, and to its cure by the application of sulphur, the expense of this country for this material he found to stand greatly in the way for its general use, and Mr. Kyle, in his series of experiments in connection with the potatoe disease, substituted quick lime in room of the sulphur, and the result, so far as his experience is gone, has been entirely successful; these portions to which he applied the lime invariably escaping the disease, while those passed over being invariably attacked by the ravages. Others, with some of whom Mr. Kyle has communicated, have tried the experiment with the same successful results. Like the grape disease, the first manifestations of the potatoe distemper must be watched, as it is in its earliest stage that the application of the hot lime destroys its further power of progress. By applying the lime too early its chemical properties may be weakened before the disease appears, and by applying it too late the distemper may have developed itself beyond the power of the lime to conquer it. The mode of application is simply by throwing the lime lightly on the "shaws" when the disease first appears. In France they have got a machine made for the purpose, something like a pair of bellows, when applying the sulphur to the vine.

DEATH OF REV. PATRICK M'KENNA, BROOKLYN.—This melancholy event took place on the evening of the 5th instant, in the 40th year of his age and the 18th of his ministry. Mr. McKenna was a native of Tydavnet, County Monaghan, Ireland; he was educated at St. John's College, Fordham, and was ordained by the Most Rev. Archbishop Hughes. He was a faithful, zealous pastor and kind friend. May his soul rest in peace.

A TERRIBLE CALAMITY IN ST. LOUIS.—The Pacific Hotel, in St. Louis, was destroyed by fire before daylight on Saturday morning, and, horrible to relate, between forty and sixty persons either perished in the flames, or were killed by jumping from the windows. The fire broke out in the lower part of the building, and the stairways being enveloped, all egress was cut off except by the windows. Many leaped from the 2d story and were horribly mangled or instantly killed, and many more were unable even to reach windows, and were burned in their rooms. Several more bodies are supposed to be in the ruins, and hundreds of excited men are engaged in removing the rubbish.

PROTECTION OF FEMALE EMIGRANTS.—The prostitution of immigrant girls at sea, by the officers and crews of our packet ships, has become so frequent that the Commissioners of Emigration have been compelled to a thorough investigation of the subject. They find, after careful examination, that since the establishment of steam communication with Europe, the number of cabin passengers in sailing ships has greatly diminished, and in proportion to this diminution, the captains and officers of sailing ships, freed from restraint, have become more licentious and depraved. It is now a matter of frequent occurrence for the master of a packet ship to select from among his female passengers some unprotected girl, take her into his cabin, and by various artifices induce her to yield to his wishes. Following the example of their superior, the subordinate officers and crew do likewise; and thus it frequently happens that a score or more of young women, who went on board the ship with unblemished characters, are turned adrift when they arrive here, to meet a fate more dreadful than death itself. This is a subject worthy of the most serious consideration. Years ago we pointed out the evil, and from time to time have directed public attention toward it. The Commissioner of Emigration have at length prepared a memorial to Congress, praying that the passenger laws may be so amended as to "prevent, by severe punishment for the act, the recurrence of this increasing evil and wrong." We trust that Congress will give it early attention.—N. Y. Tribune.

FRANKLYN MORTALITY IN AN EMIGRANT VESSEL.—The Hamburg ship Howard, Captain Walter, from Hamburg, arrived at New York yesterday morning, after a passage of ninety six days, the voyage being a stormy one from beginning to end. She left Hamburg Nov. 17, with two hundred and eighty-six passengers, thirty-seven of whom died on the passage from a sickness resembling cholera, and from weakness occasioned by shortness of provisions and water, the latter being dealt out in very small quantities for the past forty two days, and most of it being made from steam from salt water. The Howard is at anchor at Quarantine.

CURA—SLAYERS AND COOLIES.—It would appear, by the following extracts from the New York Journal of Commerce, that the slave trade continues, practically, in full activity at the different Cuban ports; and that all the horrors and abominations of what is called the "middle passage"—that is, the voyage from the slave-producing countries—are unabated, if not aggravated, by the efforts of England and her allies to suppress the detestable traffic.—The U. S. mail steamer Black Warrior, J. W. Smith commander, from New Orleans 12th inst., and Havana 15th, arrived last evening, having encountered strong head winds and seas the entire run from Havana. We report: Two cargoes of negroes have been landed since last advice. The American ships Kate Hooper and Challenge had arrived with cargoes of Coolies. They landed 1238 at Havana, and 313 had died on the voyage. Business throughout the island had improved, and sugars had advanced. Stock 68,000 lbs. Exchange on New York, 1 to 1 per cent prem.; London, 14 to 14 1/2 per cent prem.

HAVANA, Feb. 15, 1858.—Arrived 10th, the American ship Challenge, Kinney, from Swatze. 137 days with 620 Asiatics on board—286 died on the passage, from ship fever, dysentery, &c.—consigned to Senor Don Jose Maria Morales. On the 12th inst., arrived the ship Kate Hooper, Bowers, master, 103 days from Macao and St. Helena, with 616 voluntary passengers. Died on the passage (reported) 22; killed in the suppression of mutiny, 6 (reported in the U. S. 50.) Captain Jackson, of this vessel, died at sea of dysentery. To this date we have received since April 10th, 1855, 17,644 Asiatics, for eight years' servitude in Cuba, of which more than twenty per cent. have already disappeared. Died on the vessels engaged in the traffic, 3117, during voyages, by suicides, disease, &c.—more than one-sixth of those taken on board, without including several casualties, mutinies, &c., which have caused the destruction of whole cargoes. Of some three or four thousand received previous to the 10th of April, 1855, nearly all have perished.—It is not probable that a tenth will remain at the close of their eight years. We are to have cargoes of Sepoys, it is said, to add to our heterogeneous mixture of Cuban stock.—Cor. Jour. Com.

Hundreds of our citizens complain of debility and languor of the system, derangement of the liver or stomach, want of appetite, &c. they are frequently the result of too close application and a thousand other causes we cannot not here name; but we would say to all so afflicted, do as we have done—get a bottle or two of Dr. Hoffman's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. Jackson; and, our word for it, you will be cured. We recommend this medicine, knowing from experience that it is much superior to the generality of patent medicines. We would say to our readers, purchase none except prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.

Principal office, 418 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa. sold by druggists or storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canada, West India, and South America, at 75 cents a bottle. See that the signature of C. M. Jackson, is on the wrapper on each bottle.

DR. MORSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS.

DR. MORSE, the inventor of MORSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS, has spent the greater part of his life in travelling, having visited Europe, Asia, and Africa as well as North America—has spent three years among the Indians of our Western country—it was in this way that the Indian Root Pills were first discovered. Dr. Morse was the first man to establish the fact that all diseases arise from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD—that our strength, health and life depended upon this vital fluid. When the various passages become clogged, and do not act in perfect harmony with the different functions of the body, the blood loses its action; becomes thick, corrupted and diseased; thus causing all pains, sickness and distress of every name; our strength is exhausted, our health we are deprived of, and if nature is not assisted in throwing off the stagnant humors, the blood will become choked and cease to act, and thus our light of life will forever be blown out. How important then that we should keep the various passages of the body free and open. And how pleasant to us that we have in our power to put a medicine in your reach, namely Morse's Indian Root Pill, manufactured from plants and roots which grow around the mountainous cliffs in Nature's garden, for the health and recovery of diseased man. One of the roots from which these Pills are made is a Sudorific, which opens the pores of the skin, and assists Nature in throwing out the finer parts of the corruption within. The second is a plant which is an Expectorant, that opens and unclogs the passage to the lungs, and thus, in a soothing manner, performs its duty by throwing off phlegm, and other humors from the lungs by copious spitting. The third is a Diuretic, which gives ease and double strength to the kidneys thus encouraged, they draw large amounts of impurity from the blood, which is then thrown out bountifully by the urinary or water passage, and which could not have been discharged in any other way.—The fourth is a Cathartic, and accompanies the other properties of the Pills while engaged in purifying the blood; the coarser particles of impurity which cannot pass by the other outlets, are thus taken up and conveyed off in great quantities by the bowels.

From the above, it is shown that Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills not only enter the stomach, but become united with the blood, for they find way to every part, and completely rout out and cleanse the system from all impurity, and the life of the body, which is the blood, becomes perfectly healthy; consequently all sickness and pain is driven from the system, for they cannot remain when the body becomes so pure and clear.

The reason why people are so distressed when sick and why so many die, is because they do not get a medicine which will pass to the afflicted parts, and which will open the natural passages for the disease to be cast out; hence, a large quantity of food and other matter is lodged, and the stomach and intestines are literally overflowing with the corrupted mass; thus undergoing disagreeable fermentation, constantly mixing with the blood, which throws the corrupted matter through every vein and artery, until life is taken from the body by disease. Dr. Morse's PILLS have added to themselves victory upon victory, by restoring millions of the sick to blooming health and happiness. Yes, thousands who have been racked or tormented with sickness, pain and anguish, and whose feeble frames, have been scorched by the burning elements of raging fever, and who have been brought, as it were, within a step of the silent grave, now stand ready to testify that they would have been numbered with the dead, had it not been for this great and wonderful medicine, Morse's Indian Root Pills. After one or two doses had been taken, they were astonished, and absolutely surprised in witnessing their charming effects. Not only do they give immediate ease and strength, and take away all sickness, pain and anguish but they act on to work at the foundation of the disease, which is the blood. Therefore, it will be shown, especially by those who use these Pills, that they will so cleanse and purify, that disease—that deadly enemy—will take its flight, and the flush of youth and beauty will again return, and the prospect of a long and happy life will cherish and brighten your days.

CAUTION.—Beware of a counterfeit signed A. B. Moore. All genuine have the name of A. J. WHITE & Co. on each box. Also the signature of A. J. White & Co. All others are spurious.

A. J. WHITE, & Co., Sole Proprietors, 50 Leonard Street, New York.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all dealers in Medicines. Agents wanted in every town, village, and hamlet in the land. Parties desiring the agency will address as above for terms. Price 25 cents per box, five boxes will be sent on receipt of $1, postage paid.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"Griffins Works.—They are interested with scenes of the deepest pathos, and the most genuine humor—at one moment we are convulsed with laughter, at the next affected to tears. We heartily recommend Gerald Griffins Works to the attention of the American public, and predict for them an immense popularity."—Sunday Dispatch. "We welcome this new and complete edition of the works of Gerald Griffin, now in the course of publication by the Messrs. Sadler & Co. We read the Collegians, when it was first published, with a pleasure we have never forgotten, and which we have found increased at every repeated perusal. Ireland has produced many geniuses, but rarely one, upon the whole superior to Gerald Griffin."—Brownson's Review. "Whoever wishes to read one of the most passionate and pathetic novels in English literature will take with him, during the summer vacation. The Collegians, by Gerald Griffin. The picture of Irish character and manners a half a century since in The Collegians, is masterly, and the power with which the fond, impetuous, passionate, thoroughly Celtic nature of Hardress Grogan is drawn, evinces rare genius. Griffin died young, but this one story, if nothing else of his, will surely live among the very best novels of the time. It is full of incident, and an absorbing interest allures the reader to the end, and leaves him with a melted heart and moistened eye."—Putnam's Monthly.

"We have now before us four volumes, the commencement of a complete edition of Gerald Griffin's works, embracing the 'Collegians' and the first series of his 'Manter Tales.' The nationality of these tales, and the genius of the author in depicting the mingled levity and pathos of Irish character, have rendered them exceedingly popular. The style in which the series is produced is highly creditable to the enterprise of the American publishers, and we are free to say that the volumes are worthy of being placed in our libraries, public or private, alongside of Irving, Cooper, or Scott."—Hunt's Merchant's Magazine.

ROBERT PATTON,

229 Notre Dame Street. BEGS to return his sincere thanks to his numerous Customers, and the Public in general, for the very liberal patronage he has received for the last three years; and hopes, by strict attention to business, to receive a continuance of the same.

R. P., having a large and new assortment of Boots and Shoes, solicits an inspection of the same, which he will sell at a moderate price.

MRS. D. M'ENTYRE,

No. 44, McGill Street. OPPOSITE SAINT ANNE'S MARKET, MONTREAL.

BEGS most respectfully to inform the Ladies of Montreal and vicinity, that she has just received a large assortment of

FASHIONABLE MILLINERY,

FROM PARIS, LONDON, AND NEW YORK; which she is prepared to sell on the most reasonable terms.

She would also intimate that she keeps constantly employed experienced and fashionable Milliners and Dress Makers; and is better prepared than heretofore, having enlarged her work room, to execute all orders, at the shortest possible notice.

Mrs. M'E. is also prepared to CLEAN AND TURN.

To the latest Style, Straw, Tuscan, Leghorn, and Fancy Bonnets and Hats.

Mrs. M'E. has also received a splendid assortment of SPRING and SUMMER SHAWLS, SILK CAPES, CHILDREN'S DRESSES, and PINAFOREs of every style and price.

Mrs. M'E. would beg of Ladies to give her a call before purchasing elsewhere, confident that she can give a better article at a lower price than any other establishment in the City, as all her business is managed with the greatest economy.

Mrs. M'Entyre would take this opportunity to return her best thanks to her numerous Friends and Patrons, for the very liberal patronage she has received for the last three years.
