Mercantile Summary.

"Say, have you ever had your store broken into?" "No. You see, everything is so very cheap here that if a thief wants anything he simply comes in and pays for it."—German Paper.

THE British Columbia Deposit and Loan Company, Limited, capital $500,000, is offering 5 1/2 per cent. interest on deposits in large or small amounts for fixed periods, and will lend money on mortgage in British Columbia at current rates. Sir Joseph Trutch is president of its board of directors.

D. W. HAYDOCK, carriage manufacturer, of St. Louis, Mo., made an assignment last week. The cause of his trouble was the stealing of $35,000 by a trusted foreman, who squandered the money in "pool alley" betting on horse races. The stealing, says the St. Louis Grocer had been going on for a number of years.

A SMALL grocer named Martin Simpson, in Berlin, has made an assignment. The estate does not look badly on paper, as there are nominal assets of $5,000. But these, it is said, will not produce one-third their face value, and the liabilities are $3,700. Consequently creditors need not expect a very large dividend after his chattel mortgage is paid.

An American named Avard J. Moore has published a little illustrated book called "That Uncomfortable Shoe." The author points out the many imperfections in the various parts which comprise the average shoes now made, and which are so uncomfortable. Being a practical shoemaker, having worked at the bench for many years, he is enabled, through this experience, to suggest to the public in general what kinds of shoes to wear to insure the greatest ease and comfort.
