

A Wonderful Increase.

Stenographers may form some idea of the present wonderful growth of the typewriter business from the fact that the business of the Remington typewriter, for the months of January and February, 1892, exceeded the business of the corresponding two months of 1891 by $160,000.

The further fact that the Remington business has more than doubled in the last three years shows emphatically the growing popularity of that machine. The Remington factory, at Ilion, N. Y., gives employment to 700 workmen, and the sales-agents, Wyckoff, Seamans & Benedict, dispose of a finished Remington typewriter every five minutes.—Phonographic World, April.

Daniel Was Included.

Benvenuto Cellini had just finished a beautiful hanap, when Lucretia Borgia entered his studio. This gentle lady admired the work in silver, but failed to grasp the meaning of the design.

"The design appears to me to illustrate some biblical episode," said she.

"It does," returned Cellini. "Daniel in the Lion's Den" is the subject.

"Ah! but I see only the lions."
"Undoubtedly, however, you note a slight distinction of the lions' bodies?"

"Yes."
"Well, that's Daniel."

Not in Her Day.

"For heaven's sake, Jane! that dust must have been there for six months, at least!"

"Sure, mum, then it's not my fault at all, for the ledgy knows I've only been just ten weeks in the house."

Justifiable Pride.

Gus de Smith—You are looking bright and happy this morning, Gilhooly.

Gilhooly—Yes; I'm out of debt at last. Every bill I owed was outlawed yesterday by the statute of limitations. I tell you, Gus, a man feels like a man when he is square with the world.

YOUNG LADY PATIENT—Doctor, what do you do when you burn your mouth with hot coffee?
DOCTOR—Swear!

He is not hard to please;
But woman—bless her little heart—
Wants everything she sees.
