

five years of operation. They welcomed the arrangements made to maintain Commonwealth multilateral assistance to Mozambique and emphasised the importance of a continuing Commonwealth contribution to national reconstruction and democratic development in Mozambique.

Angola

31. Heads of Government noted that although UNITA had accepted the Bicesse Accords and the Abidjan Protocol and had indicated that it now recognised the result of the United Nations supervised election of September 1992, the war continued with untold human suffering and destruction. They deplored the continuation of the civil war and called upon UNITA to end hostilities and join in the democratic process and to observe all the relevant UN Security Council Resolutions on Angola. Heads of Government warned that failure on the part of UNITA to comply with those Resolutions would justify consideration of further sanctions and other measures.

Cyprus

32. Recalling the position they had adopted at Harare, Heads of Government reiterated their support for the independence, sovereignty, territorial integrity, unity and non-aligned status of the Republic of Cyprus. Noting that the United Nations resolutions on Cyprus had not been implemented, they stressed the importance of securing compliance with all the United Nations Resolutions on Cyprus and, in particular, Security Council Resolutions 365 (1974) and 550 (1984). In that connection, they emphasised the need for the speedy withdrawal from the Republic of Cyprus of all Turkish forces and settlers, the return of the refugees to their homes in conditions of safety, the restoration and respect of the human rights of all Cypriots and the accounting for those missing. Expressing grave concern at the influx of Turkish settlers, they emphasised that nothing should be done which would result in changes in the demographic structure of Cyprus.

33. Having in mind the United Nations Resolutions calling for the withdrawal of all foreign forces from the territory of the Republic, Heads of Government welcomed the offer of the Government of Cyprus that upon the complete withdrawal of such forces, it would assume any added cost of a United Nations Force in Cyprus until the Cyprus question was resolved.

34. Heads of Government shared the disappointment of the United Nations Secretary-General, as expressed in his latest report to the Security Council, regarding recent developments in respect of his mission of good offices in Cyprus, including that an agreement on the package of confidence-building measures had not yet been reached due to the negative attitude of the Turkish Cypriot side. They welcomed and fully supported the intention expressed by the Secretary-General in his report and the positive
