SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
EXPRESSES SYMPATHY FOR VICTIMS OF BRIGHTON BOMBING

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, The Right Honourable Joe Clark, today sent the following message to Sir Geoffrey Howe, U.K. Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs.

"I was shocked to hear of the bomb attack on the hotel in Brighton and saddened to learn that some of your colleagues had been injured. To them, and to the families of those killed in the attack, I offer my deepest sympathy. You may be sure that we join you in condemning this cowardly and senseless act."
