3, 4 and 5. With respect to questions Nos. 3, 4 and 5, the annual public reports which the government believes should be made by companies on their implementation of the code of conduct are intended to provide pertinent information to interested Canadians. The extent of progress in realizing the objectives of the code is a matter for their (interested Canadians) judgment.

6, 7 and 8. In response to questions Nos. 6, 7 and 8, the Secretary of State for External Affairs has each year drawn the existence of the code and its provisions to the attention of Canadian companies which may be operating in South Africa, and has encouraged the issuance of annual public reports. The operation of the code is under review in the light of the experience gained to date.
