

March 24th, 1927.

Dr. W. Reid Blair,
Director,
New York Zoological Society,
New York City.

Dear Dr. Blair:-

Thank you very much for your note of the 23rd of March.

I had intended to write you saying how sorry I was not to have seen you last Saturday night.
We had a very pleasant gathering, although smaller than usual. It is always a great pleasure for me to meet with McGill men, so many of whom have won fine positions for themselves in the communities in which they live.

I hope it will not be long before you are fully restored to your usual good health.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.
