

Dear Sir Arthur:
My husband, Dr.
Whitehead is at the present time, on an examining-trip for
the Conservatorium in the West. This morning I am in receipt of the enclosed letter from him.

I will probably be